OHIO PEACE IS IN DANGER

Work Already Begun to Prevent Columbus Conference From Indorsing Agreement-Means Fight to Death With the Bosses.

WASHINGTON, May 10 .- (Special.)-It the intention of President Rossevelt put Senator Foraker out of political life. He will do everything possible to He. He will do everything possible to prevent, not only his re-election to the Senate, but also to keep him out of the Republican convention next year, if the Senator shows the least desire to become a delegate to that body. He is thoroughly convinced that the Ohlo Senator misrepresents the people of Ohlo and that it is the duty of the Administration to the state of the contraction of the state of the contraction of the state of t

Mr Foraker suspected that the hostility of the President went that far, but when he got here this morning he received telegrams from friends in Ohio telling him that the President had already be-gun work to prevent the peace confer-ence at Columbus next week from in-dorsing the part of the peace programme that calls for the return of Mr. Foraker the President in that kind of mixing in Ohio affairs is not certain. If the Presi-dent tries to carry out his present in-tention, it means that the organization leaders who made up the peace programme must either fight for all of it or acknowledge that they are not leaders at all, but look to the White House for orders. As for Mr. Foraker, he has got to fight to prevent districts in Ohio from indorsing Mr. Taft and by doing that reopen in its entirsty the peace programme forced upon him by his colleague, Senator Dick, and George B. Cox.

the Secretary.

"The Secretary stands by his original declaration that the contest in Ohlo has so shaped itself that Senator Foraker must be eliminated not only as a Presidential, but a Senatorial figure."
