SAN FRANCISCO, May 10 .- (Spe-SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—(Special.)—A full dozen innings had been played today before the winning score was made. At times the bases were filled but the batteries steadied themselves and held things even. In the second Bliss for Oakland drove one to center that Lovett could not handle, and the batter took first. Haley struck out and Bighee singled, followed by Devereaux, who hit for the same distance. Bliss scored. Hogan popped to center and Bighee came home. Devereaux was pinched at third.

ereaux was pinched at third.

Portland awakened at this stage of the game. Gum singled and took second on a wild heave. Shinn's easy out advanced Gum to third and Lovett's tap brought him home. Van Haitren added another for Oakland in the sixth, Casey and Dunleavy came in for Portland on Donahue's long single to renter. The next six innings were full of fireworks. In the last half of the twelfth Devereaux came up for Oakland and rapped out a two-bagger. Hogan fanned. Smith lined a long single and Devereaux scored.

PULLMAN TO MEET THE O. A. C.

Great Interest in Field Events at Corvallis Next Monday.

CORVALLIS, Or., May 10 .- (Special.) --There is much interest among the students at the college in a dual track meet to take place next Monday afternoon between the Washington State College and the State Agricultural College of Oregon, On paper the two teams are closely matched. They happen to be strong pretty much the same events. Welch. of Pullman, and Davolt, of O. A. C., are undoubtedly the two best men in the mile in the Northwest. The former has done the distance in 4:39, while Davolt has never been beaten. The struggle between them is looked forward to with extreme interest. Halm, of Pullman, and Hall, of the Oregon aggregation, have both done 135 in the hammer, and their match will be un-certain till the last throw is made. The quarter mile run will be equally close between Greenhaw, of O. A. C., and Thoule, of Pullman, both of whom do the his seventh straight game, allowing but stunt in less than 53. Pullman will have four hits and keeping these scattered. R.H.E. certain for O. A. C., the first for Thayer and the other for Chapman.

One event of especial interest will be between Wolf, of O. A. C., and Haim, of Washington, in the shot-put. The paral-lel between the two notable athletes is remarkable. Both are about the same height, weight and build, both are star football men, both put the shot about 40 feet, both are crack baseball players, and both are freshmen.

Yacht Club Plans Races.

The Oregon Yacht Club is getting busy. The Oregon Yacht Club is getting bisy, As soon as the Summer approaches the yachtsmen begin to plan races, handicap regattas and everything in the yachting line, and the racing committee of the club is busy arranging a purse to defray the expenses of the Summer's sport, and to provide prizes for the winning boats.

First Contest of a Series That Promises to Make Big Leaguers Turn Green With Envy to Occur Tomorrow. WHILE it is not senerally known, the methods followed by the Chicago Nationals and the Chicago Americans in their world championship series last Fall were those originally put into practice by the baseball teams of The Oregonian, the Telegram and the Journal. These teams will without question give the finest demonstration of how the great National game ought not to be played during the coming Summer months ever experienced in the world's history. The first exhibition will take place at the league grounds, Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets, between the teams representing the Telegram and the Journal, tomorrow morning at $2.30 o'clock. The police have been notified, and so has the Coroner. No rioting will be tolerated and no victims will be allowed to desecrate the diamond during the contest. The game will open promptly at $2.30.
