Portland Dealers Purchasing Around 18 Cents.

EASTERN OREGON QUIET

Firmer Tone on Valley Grades, but Prices Not Yet Advanced-General Situation in the West. The London Market.

Portland wool huyers have picked up a few lots of new italio wool in the last few days on the basis of 18 cents for good average quality, but very little trading has been done in Eastern Oregon. Shearing is now general in that section of the state, but now general in that section of the sub-, our only a limited quantity of the clip has reached the warehouses in some quarters of the trade it is thought probable that the market will attain some degree of activity prior to the opening of the scheduled scaled-bid sales, but others look for no movement hefore the sales days.

Shearing is commercian in the Willamette

Shearing is commencing in the Willametto Valley and it will not be long before some of the clips are on the market. Prices do not show as much weakness as they did not know as much reasons as the since the advance in course wools was recorded at London, but the buyers still have their limit fixed at 20 cents for Valley wools and this limit is not likely to be raised until Easton responds to the higher prices abroad.

Advices from other sections of the West

Advices from other sections of the West Advices from other sections of the west-indicate a rather backward movement. In Utah there is small trading at life to 17c for heavy clips and up to 21c for light Some Wyoming clips were put up and bids of 18c to 18c refused. Several clips have been consigned to Boston and Philadelphia parties. In Nevada there is trading at 17c to isc.

There are plenty of buyers in all the producing sections of the West, but they are waiting. The conservative talk of Boston merchanis previous to the opening of the season is bearing fruit in the hold-off policy season is bearing fruit in the hold-off policy of buyers. Nobody has broken loose as yet of buyers. Nobody has broken loose as yet of buyers. Nobody has broken loose as yet of huyers. State of the feasible compared to the and trading is mactive compared to the excilement which has prevailed at this time during the past few years. The wish may be father to the thought, but it is stated that prices are working lower all through the West. In the transactions resorted, however, there is not much change shown from the prices obtained on previous

Regarding the change in the tone of the Regarding the change in the tone of the English market a Boston wood writer says:
Cable advices from London are more encouraging. It appears now that the early weakness developed at the auction sales was due more to the quality of the offerings than to any tendency toward lower values. The market this week has ruled stronger as the efferings improved in quality. On Monday last crossbreds were cabled as distinctly firmer and since then this tendency has been maintained Competition has been keen. The extent of the purchases for the United States so far is not known, but it is believed that only a small quantity has been secured.

FINE TRADE IN STRAWBERRIES. Best Oregons Sent in This Senson Grown by Mills of Springbrook.

Decline in Wheat Prices, Due to Realizing, Does Not Change the Opinion of Some Financiers.

NEW YORK, May 14.-Securities markets at all the great centers of capital were more or less depressed today, and it seemed that the immediate compelling cause was the had outlook for the world's crops. This diagnosis is not necessarily discredited by the fact that stocks rose in New York yesterday when wheat stocks rose in New York yesterday when wheat opened and that the reaction in the wheat market today was accompanied by a decline in stocks. The speculative conditions may be advanced in explanation of the seemingly contradictory movements. Besides the special operations in yesterday's stock market designed to sustain or lift prices, it was evident that an outstanding short interest was seeking to take advantage of the had crop news to cover short contracts. The fact that their cover short contracts. The fact that their cover in go operations were effective in lifting prices was significant of the narrow speculative site.

On the other hand, today's reaction in the wheat market was attributed in large part to the heavy selling to take profits induced by the recent extensive advance in the price of the heavy selling to take profits induced by the recent extensive advance in the price of the heavy selling to take profits induced by the recent extensive advance in the price of the heavy selling to take profits induced by the recent extensive advance in the price of the large shortage in the Winter wheat crop already indicated makes the Spring wheat sceding a matter of paramount interest in the sceding a wheat. This reaction did not serve entirely to relieve apprehension over the crop prospects. The large shortage in the Winter wheat crop already indicated makes the Spring wheat seeding a matter of paramount interest in the forming of opinion in the markets. The weather news from the Spring wheat region today indicated conditions unfavorable for seeding. The violent decline in Canadian Pacific was traceable to this cause. That stock also reflected the depressed condition in foreign securities markets, owing to the large volume of it in foreign hands. Last prices for stocks showed to important recovery from the low levels. Bonds were heavy. Total sales, par value, $1,252,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Bonds-Loss Is Practically All Regained Later on a Renewal of Bullish Activity, Led by the Big Advance at Minneapolis.

> CHICAGO, May 14.—The bull campaign in wheat was mearrily checked today by enormous realising sales which forced prices enormous realising sales which forced prices flow about 3 cents from the high points of the day. Almost all of this loss, however, was subsequently regained on renewal of bullish activity, the market closing strong with the July delivery unchanged compared with yesterday's final quotations. The September and December options were each $6 2 to lower than yesterday's close.
> The market opened amid intense excitament, sid for a brief period it appeared as if it might develop into a runaway affair similar to that or yesterday. Initial quotations on the leading options ranged all the way from 'sc lower to 1% higher than the previous close. Within a very short time, however, it became evident that the climat of the sensational advance had been reached and that, temporarily at least, prices would tend to seek a lower level. This was made way from he lower to 1's higher previous close. Within a very short time, however, it became evident that the climax of the sensational advance had been reached and that, temporarily at least, prices would tend to seek a lower level. This was made plain by a decline of 1 to 3 cents within the first half hour of trading due to a deluge of profit-taking orders that fooded the pit. Overnight many commission-houses had sent messages to all their customers advising them to 'get from under' and the ease with which prices slumped off during the first few minutes clearly indicated that country speculators had quits generally heeded the warning. Liquidation was exceedingly heavy all day, but despite this liberal selling, prices several times made fair rallies because of the urgency of the demand from those speculators who still believe that the country's crop will be insufficient to satisfy home consumption and also provide for the probable requirements of European nations. Much of today's selling was based on a decline of over 1 penny in the price of wheat at Liverpool but the larger part came for those who thought that the market had been overbought. Cold weather still prevailed in the Spring wheat territory, but rain and snow in Nebraska and Kansas gave inspiration to sellers. An advance of fixe in the price of wheat on the Minneapolis curb was partly responsible for the higher prices here at the opening. The market made a sharp advance during the last few minutes, which was due to some extent to a report that a heavy show storm was raging in the Northwest. The market closed strong with all the loss regained.

Home Bonds Home Stock

From the double standpoint of safety and income, I strongly advise the purchase of HOME TELEPHONE BONDS. Around present prices, $87.50 to $90.00, these bonds net 6 per cent to investors.

If you want to speculate and double your money within eighteen months and secure a permanent dividend-payer, buy the HOME TELEPHONE STOCK; it will sell around $80.00 within the time mentioned. Watch the new Home Telephone Directory grow and these securities advance.
