The resolutions commend the appointment of a committee in each presbytery to promote the movement for Sunday observance; urge ministers to discourage funerals on Sunday; disapprove of sports. excursions and other secular uses of Sunday; urge the omission of Monday recitations in colleges and seminaries so as to enable students to observe Sunday; favoring a Saturday half-holiday for all workers and condemning Sunday news-papers. It was stated that there are more than six million persons now employed on Sunday in the United States.

Union of Reformed Churches.

Assembly was opened today by the new moderator, Dr. erts. Governor Harris welcomed 1090 commissioners. The report of the special committee on church union and co-operation was then submitted. The portion awaited with the portion awaited with the most terest was that in regard to articles of agreement adopted the last general assembly. To put the articles into effect it is necessary for the assembly to elect 32 represen-tatives to the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian system. This council was to consist of four representatives, minis-ters or ruling elders from each constituent church and for each 100,000 com-municants, then four representatives for each 300,000 additional communi-cants or fraction thereof. The last assembly referred to this committee the work of providing a plan for the elec-tion of representatives of the Prasbyterian Church in the United States. The committee today submitted the follow-

"The first two members of the delega-tion to be the moderator for the time being and the stated clerk, the other members to be divided into three classes, consisting of five ministers and five ruling elders each, one class to be elected by this assembly for one year, one for two years and one for three years, and the election thereafter to be annual, one class of 10 members each. The report recom-mended that the assembly appoint a com-mittee to nominate the 30 delegates by

"As to relations with the Reformed Church in the United States, at a joint meeting of a committee of the Reformed meeting of a committee of the Reformed Church and the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at Charleston, resolutions were adopted recommending to both assemblies appointment of committees to further consider the question of closer relations. The committee therefore recommend that the matter be recommitted to the committee on cooperation and union."

Delegates to Church Council.

As to the plan of consolidation of the Christian churches of America, the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America being entitled to 30 representatives in the Federal Council, the commit tee recommended that the 24 members of the committee on co-operation and union be made representatives and in addition the following: Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, Rev. D. Stewart Lodge, Rev. William L. McEwan and Hon, Dr. Robert N. Wilson, Hon. John M. Gaut and S. S. Bromwell.

Concerning certain overtures from the Presbyterians of Bellingham, Olympia, Puget Sound and Spokane regarding organization with the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system, the committee recommends that the Assembly adont a resolution expressing willingers. adopt a resolution expressing willingness to enter into such relations of co-opera-tion, federation or organic union as may be mutually acceptable.

Winding Up Cumberland Church.

Upon the proposition for reconcentration and consolidation of the boards and per-manent committees of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and of the Cumberland Church, the committee recom-mended that the assembly adopt resolutions directing each of the incorporated boards to proceed as promptly as possible to transfer all its property and accounts to the appropriate boards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and to legal dissolution until otherwise di-rected by competent legal counsel, and that in the meantime each of these boards be considered as holding boards only, unless otherwise specifically decided by the

The committee recommended that the amended charter of the Cumberland Uni-versity be recognized as the law defining the relations of the theological depart-ment of the university to the general as-smbly; that the trustees shall require all theological professors to adopt the con-fession of faith of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America before assuming their offices.

Admires American Women.

The General's opinion of American women is a high one. While he was on the way up the Hudson to West Point on the yacht Privateer he said to the vessel's owner, R. A. C. Smith, that he greatly admired the Smith, that he greatly admired the women of this country. They were lovely, gracious, graceful and dainty—and he liked the brunettes best. Thereupon Mr. Smith produced two American beauties dressed in tapestry. One was of a blonde and the other of brunette type. Kuroki was given the latter picture because of his preference for dark-haired American femininity.

EXTENDING CAR SERVICE

United Railroads Increases Service. Strikers Organize Boycott.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—The street railway situation is practically unchanged. The United Railroads is gradually ex-tending its operations. Only a few cases of interference on the part of strike sympathizers were reported today and most of these were in the Mission district. The sympathizers with union labor are generally refusing to ride on the cars and are either walking or patronizing busses. Mass meetings are being held throughout the city under the auspices of the Car-men's Union for the purpose of encouraging a boycott against the United Rail-roads and its patrons.

No cars are being run after 7 o'clock.

The first work car manned by nonunion-ists was sent out this morning, equipped with a repair outfit.
W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, said tonight:
"The situation is perfectly satisfactory.

The meeting of the men Thursday night showed them to be thoroughly united and unanimous. The reports showed that there had been but two desertions. They were men who no doubt had been sent into the union by the company. "The whole situation is satisfactory to Union Men Denounce Federal Judge's Treatment of Machinist.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 17.—Labor day, including a parade with 600 union men in line and a mass meeting, took place in this city tonight to protest against the recent action of Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, who, it is charged, ordered the sale of the property of a union machinist, said to be the savings of a lifetime, to pay the costs of contempt proceedings against the Machinists' Union. The property was sold at auction for about $1400 and the court costs amounted to $1000.

It has been contended by the friends of Judge Anderson that, the Machinists' Union having refused to pay the costs, there was nothing to do but to levy on the property of an individual member of the union, which was done.

Edwards, Clerk of Democratic Committee, Fights Attache of Peruvian Legation in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 17 .- Charles A Edwards, clerk to the minority com-mittee of the House of Representatives and secretary of the Democratic Congressional committee, was arrested to-day on a warrant charging him with assault with a dangerous weapon. He was released on a bond of $2000 until next Monday, when he will appear for preliminary examination.

It is alleged that Edwards, about midnight last Wednesday, assaulted Alejandro Garland, an attache of the Peruvian Legation, in front of the fashionable De Soto apartment-house at the corner of Sixth street and Massachusetts avenue, N. W. Garland, ac-companied by a Mrs. Louise Scott, reached the apartment-house shortly after midnight. Edwards had been near there for some time. The men became involved in an altercation, which resulted in a fight. It is charged that Edwards stabbed Gariand. Subsequently the wounded man was taken to the residence of a physician. Infor-mation as to his condition is closely guarded. It was understood that Garland did not care to prosecute Edwards, but after an investigation of the case by the police authorities, Benjamin Actie, the janitor of the De Soto apartment-house, made a complaint against him. Today Edwards and Mrs. Scott met at the Capitol and became involved in a controversy. Finally they were taken to the office of the Capitol Postoffice, where they were detained until the Metropolitan police authorities could be communicated with. Meantime the warrant for Edwards' arrest had been sworn out. Edwards was released on bail. The woman was not detained, although she was subpensed to appear as a witness at the preliminary exam-

PRESCRIPTION FOR RHEUMA-TISM AND KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Eastern Publication Tells of Remedy Which Gives Prompt Relief at Little Cost.

A large Eastern publication tells its readers of a number of simple and safe prescriptions that can be made at home. The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles receives the greatest praise, vik.: Fluid Extract Dandellon, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilia, three ounces. These simple vegetable ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is further stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affilictions, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings in just a short while.

A well-known local druggist states that the Compound Kargon in it does the work. It is the drug which acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses the spongelike organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, which is the cause of rheumatism.
