AGITATOR PLACED IN JAIL

Uses Knife on Strikebreaker Gathering Nonunion Men at Yakima.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., May 17.-(Special.)—As a result of a successful effort made here to supply men to take the place of striking longshoremen in Seattle, the union sent three agitators here; one of whom is in the city jall tonight, charged with assault with a deadly weapon on Harry Walker, an employment agent. The delegate, who gives the name of Jenkins, tried to get shipped with strikebreakers tonight, but the agent had received warning as to Jenkins' mission and declined Jenkins, who then abused Walker, and, getting worsted in a fist fight that followed, drew a knife and cut Walker on the head. The men brasent intervened. Walker is not se-riously hurt. Fifty strikebreakers will leave here tonight for Seattle,

Mayor of Spokane today, control of mun cipal affairs virtually passed to the Booster Club. Mr. Moore is chairman of the City Beautiful Committee, a subsidiary organization of the club, and he named as his Chief of Police, Ren H. Rice, sceretary of the Booster Club and former newspaper man. He nominated for police commissioner Gordon C, Corbaley, vice-president of the Booster Club, but the Council turned down the appointment. He contemplated the appointment of two additional commissioners from the board of directors of the Booster Club, but was deterred by the attitude of the refractory Councilmen. The Council consists of six Democrats and four Republicans, four of the former being hold-overs. One of the Democrats, N. S. Prait, joined the reform forces before the election and supported Moore. Six votes are necessary to con-firm Mayor Moore's appointments and the Democrats are thus in position to block him. Through the resignation of Corporation Counsel James Geraghiy and Chief of Police LeRoy Waller, Mayor Moore was enabled to secure the con-tirmation of L. R. Hamblen and R. H. Rice as their successors without opposi-tion, but he could go no further. Mayor Daggett's farewell message de-

MONTESANO, Wash., May 17.-(Spe-tial.)-Mrs. Frances Blaney Caldwell,

General Passenger Agent

WM. MCMURRAY,

Do you realize that Uncle Sam pays a number of scientific meat experts big salaries just to keep their eyes on the animals being slaughtered for your use, to see that no imperfect or diseased meat can come onto your table?

Do you know that Harry Wood buys only Government-inspected meats, killed in Oregon within a few miles of Portland and brought to the city in well-protected, sanitary cars?

Have you observed that his shop is clean, fresh and sanitary, entirely closed from the dust, at the same time light and airy?

Have you discovered that he sells you this perfectly safe, appetizing meat at a price that is actually lower than you must pay elsewhere for impure, job-lot meat slaughtered and sold without Government inspection?

Note below the hard cash in dollars and cents you save when you buy of Harry Wood, to say nothing of the gain in every other particular:
