What Does Interview on Second Elective Term for Roosevelt Mean?

SETS THEM ALL GUESSING

Will Senator's Declaration Call Forth Another Disclaimer From White House or Will Silence Mean the President's Consent.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 20.—Senator Bourne's interview, published here this morning, aroused considerable comment among politicians and has set them all guessing. "What does his significance mean and none can find a satisfactory answer. Perplexity is expressed in the leading editorial of the Washington Herald today, which published the interview. The Herald says: "Senator Bourne is a confident of the President. During the last two months or so he has been at the White House more frequently, perhaps, than any other public man. He has conferred with the President for hours at a time. The two of them have walked together, and it is reasonable to assume that whatever the news he has furnished the President has been given to the President in confidence. It is not the slightest official evidence that Senator Bourne is inclined to recede from the attitude he has so often outlined; on the contrary, there have been many intimations that his resolution not to be a candidate is final and unchangeable. "Senator Bourne, close friend of the President as he is, must know this. Why, then, does he persist in urging that the President should declare that he will not be re-elected? It is a puzzle to a pretty one, and one that is causing politicians much concern. Not long ago it was announced by Bourne that he would not be a candidate for the White House that a reiteration of the President's purpose to keep out of the running would soon be forthcoming. Will Senator Bourne's second interview have the effect of hastening this development? And if there is no addition to the numerous statements on the subject already made, will the President, will the public be justified in concluding that Mr. Roosevelt will be regarded as a possible successor of himself after 1912? "This latter question is one in which the people of the United States have a large interest. Indeed, we think we do not go too far when we say that they have a right to an authoritative answer. Certainly the political situation would be greatly simplified if it should appear that the President believed his duty to be in the direction of another term, his former positive declaration in the premises to the contrary notwithstanding."

WAR ON FEDERAL OFFICERS Disgruntled Southern Republicans Take Revenge for Losing Jobs.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 20.—Chairman Blodgett of the State Republican League, which was formed to fight the present administration, today issued an address to Republicans of the South in which he takes the administration severely to task for the appointment to offices of Democrats and like-minded Republicans. He urged that no Federal official be appointed a delegate to the next Republican national convention. The chairman says: "Let us make this a fight to the knife, to wit: that no Federal officer, regardless of his party affiliations, shall be elected delegate from this State to the next national convention on which this league is founded are bound to win. All the money, efforts and influence which can be brought to bear by the officeholders cannot stem the tide or prevent a complete solution in Republican politics in the South."

EDDY CASE IS PUT OFF Illness of Judge Delays Proceedings in Christian Science Case.

CONCORD, N. H., May 20.—The hearing in the Eddy case, which was postponed today, was adjourned to tomorrow, owing to the indisposition of Judge Robert N. Chamberlain, the presiding Justice. Judge Chamberlain has granted already a motion made by counsel of the original complainants, asking for 15 days after his decision on the proceedings to file supplemental bills and pleadings, and it is known that whichever way his decision is made the matter will be appealed to the Supreme Court. In expectation that the case would be opened today, a great crowd assembled at the Court house. The majority were women, and nearly all of the spectators were followers of the Christian Science faith. In view of the announcement by physicians that Judge Chamberlain should have several days' rest, it seemed evident that the case in court must be postponed for at least a week. Arrangements were made tonight for a conference of counsel to agree on a date for adjournment of the hearing.

TRIAL ENDANGERS LIFE Burnham Asks Delay, but Directors Want His Resignation.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The trial of Frederick A. Burnham, president of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, on charges of grand larceny and forgery growing out of alleged frauds and abuses in the management of the institution, was temporarily postponed when the case was called today. Affidavits of four doctors were submitted to show that Burnham is seriously ill and that it would endanger his life to compel him to attend the trial at this time. The court appointed a physician to go to Burnham's home and make a report upon the defendant's condition. The Herald says that Burnham has been asked by the board of directors to present his resignation not later than Wednesday of this week. In the event of his failure to resign, steps will be taken to declare his office vacant, and also to elect Archibald C. Haynes to his place. The directors said his continuance at the head of the company was an injury to its business and an endorsement of the methods which led to the indictments.

City Election in Corvallis.

CORVALLIS, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—The city election passed off quietly here today with the selection of the following officials: Treasurer, Grant Elgin; Police Judge, J. G. Brodine; Sergeant—First ward, I. D. Brodine; Second ward, Charles Eckart; Third ward, A. B. Cardley, James Harber, I. F. Rowley; Mayor, George Lilly; Chief of Police, John Wells. The only contest centered on Police Judge, Wells winning out by five majority in a total of 267 votes. All charter amendments carried.

FORAKER CONFUSES POLICE Accuses Witness of Telling Different Stories Than Before.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Three members of the Brownsville, Tex., police force were questioned today in the investigation being conducted by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs. All testified concerning the incidents attending the Brownsville affray and all became somewhat confused under cross-examination by Senator Foraker when he called attention to discrepancies between their stories today and those told on the stand on a previous occasion. Policeman Victoriano Fernandez testified that he heard the shooting, and as he ran downtown from his home he was summoned to the Tillman saloon, where he found the bartender lying dead. He gave it as his opinion that the man had been killed by negro soldiers. He said he had seen no soldiers that night, as most of the shooting was over before he got down town. Senator Foraker called attention to the

STATE CONVENTION OF FORESTERS OPENS TODAY AT RAINIER

More than 100 members of the order, delegates from courts throughout the state, will leave this morning for Rainier to attend the annual state convention of the Foresters of America. The convention will be called to order this afternoon, when the annual election of officers will be held. Adjourning will not be had until Thursday. Prominent among the members of the order who will attend the convention are A. Brauer, of this city, grand secretary, and A. L. Brown, of Salem, grand sub-chief ranger. Mr. Brown will probably be promoted to the office of grand chief ranger at today's election. Rainier has made arrangements to give the grand court officers and delegates a grand reception tonight. An excursion down the Columbia is another entertaining feature that has been provided for the visitors. The Foresters of America is strictly a benevolent and fraternal organization and during the 115 years of its existence has taken high rank among such organizations. It has had an especially prosperous life in this state, and during the last year its gain in membership has been first among the courts of the United States on a percentage basis.

Confessed Embezzler Jailed.

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—Caleb V. Bartlett, the cashier of the Madison Coal Company, who was arrested Saturday following his confession of a shortage of about $2,500 and secreted in a hotel by a private detective pending investigation, was again arrested by a city detective today and placed in jail. He will be held pending the issuance of an information charging embezzlement.

J. H. FISK DIES IN NAPLES Prominent Pioneer of Oregon Passes Away While Abroad.

NAPLES, May 20.—J. H. Fisk, a resident of Portland, Or., died here today of tumor of the stomach. J. H. Fisk was a prominent Oregon pioneer and widely known assayer. He had been ill with liver complaint for several weeks, and was in care of a specialist in the International Hotel. Last Sunday his son, Bertrand E. Fisk, of Portland, received a telegram telling of the critical condition of his father, and he left for New York Sunday morning, intending to proceed to Naples, but at Baker City word reached him of the death, and he will return to the disposition of the body have been made.

RICH MAN STEALS BOTTLES Wyoming Sport Fined $10 on Petit Larceny Charge.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 20.—A man with $10,000 in money, mortgages and certificates and checks in his possession, who gave his name as Louis Hager, of Wyoming, and elsewhere in the Northwest, was arrested at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for stealing four empty beer bottles from the front of a saloon. He pleaded guilty this morning to petit larceny and was fined $10. Hager gave drinking as his excuse, and said he got his fortune by beating the roulette wheel in Wyoming.

forming a second backbone for the entire streetcar system. It is more than possible that we shall seek the advice and experience that would be gained by the municipal railroads, Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland. Where the city control of the streetcar systems today its citizens would not be compelled to walk by reason of a car that would be officials be face to face with prosecution for bribery and corruption. It would render poorer service than that given by the United Railroads to the city of San Francisco since the fire of a year ago. Had Mayor Schmitz and his corrupt supervisors spent less time in grafting upon everything and everybody doing business with the city, the road today would be a municipal accomplishment. By absolute dishonesty they have shown themselves to be woefully inefficient. Although more than a year has elapsed since the fire, the Hall has not been restored, municipal departments are inadequately housed in different parts of the city at high rentals to favored landlords, and the streets are impassable. The spirit of the people of San Francisco, however, is undaunted. The determination to straighten out affairs and restore the city to its former greatness is undimmed and even now, while suffering from the late calamity and in the midst of industrial strife, the people are hopeful and courageous and have every confidence in the ultimate future of the city.

Douma Professes Joy That the Conspiracy Failed.

BUT RADICALS STAY AWAY

Stolypin Says Plot Aimed at Lives of Czar, Grand Duke Nicholas and Himself—Defends Raid on Deputy's House.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 20.—Previous to the opening of the session of the lower house of Parliament today, a resolution expressing the great joy of the House at Emperor Nicholas' escape from death at the hands of those who plotted his assassination and the deepest indignation

REVENGE FOR ASSASSINATION Terrorists Kill Odessa Police and Anti-Jewish Riot Follows.

ODESSA, May 20.—Following the assassination of three police officials here today, serious rioting occurred, and at 3 o'clock in the evening the Black Hundreds were turning wild through the streets, mercilessly beating people, particularly Jews, more than a hundred of whom were seriously injured. The police, apparently, remained passive, making no arrests, and the Black Hundreds continued their work of revenge unchecked. The tragedy which led to the rioting was opened by an attack upon the Superintendent of Police and a number of other officers were in the Central Police Bureau this morning, two men, and a girl entered the building, deposited an infernal machine in the office and went away. The machine exploded almost immediately, killing the Chief of Police, and seriously injuring seven other persons. The police pursued, wounded and captured the two terrorists, but the girl who was with them escaped. The leader of the terrorists was sub-

WATCH FOR RADICAL LEADER Russian Police Identify Chief Among London Congress Delegates.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 20.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Nikolai Lenin, leader of the majority faction now attending the Social Democratic Congress in London, upon the charge of high treason. He will be taken into custody if he returns to Russia. The warrant is against Vladimir Ullianoff, alias Lenin, and it is said that the police have identified him as a noted radical leader of the early nineties and a brother of the Ullianoff family, who with four comrades all armed with bombs, was arrested in 1887 while lying in wait for the carriage of Emperor Alexander II and who was condemned to death and executed. Vladimir took up the mission of the brother and has been hunted by the St. Petersburg police. He succeeded in evading capture until last week when he was arrested and sent to Siberia for organizing the first political strike in Russia, which was the precursor of the great general strike which broke out in St. Petersburg from Emperor Nicholas in 1886. Vladimir escaped in 1901, disappeared, reappeared in St. Petersburg under the name of Lenin, after the publication of the amnesty decree of 1905 and immediately resumed his old ascendancy in the Social Democratic party.

How Plot Was Discovered.

After an introductory speech by Count Bobrinsky, president of the Constitutional Conservative party and a marshal of the nobility, the premier opened his address by saying that the accounts of the plot as published in certain foreign newspapers were extremely exaggerated. Continuing, Mr. Stolypin said: "In February the Department of Public Order and Security at St. Petersburg obtained information that a criminal society had been formed in this city with the direct object of executing a series of Terrorist outrages. A prolonged and difficult investigation resulted in the discovery of a number of members of the society and others intimately associated with them. Reports were made of the residences of the conspirators, and the society constantly changed, the utmost secrecy being observed. But all their movements, private codes and passwords were discovered in reports which they sent by post. Aimed at Czar, Stolypin and Nicholas
