

MOSCOW JUROR
SAID HONEST MAN

Tells Court There Isn't Enough Money in the State to Bribe Him.

SAYS HE WAS APPROACHED

When on His Way to Answer Subpoena, Ed Wiggin, a Lewiston Gambler, Engaged Him in a Talk—Got Sharp Answer.

MOSCOW, Ida., May 20.—(Special.)— Frank Leachman of Lewiston made the statement this afternoon, while being examined as to his fitness to serve as a juror in the pending North Idaho land fraud case, that he had been approached by Ed Wiggin of Lewiston, while en route to Moscow from Lewiston in obedience to a subpoena, who sought, as juror Leachman said, to bribe him to agree to believe to lay plans for an attempt to bribe him. The juror said that when he told Mr. Wiggin that there was not money enough in Idaho to bribe him, Mr. Wiggin said "Oh, I know that," and left the seat where the conversation took place and got off the train at Spaulding. Mr. Wiggin conducts the most fashionable gambling joint in Lewiston.

Mr. Leachman's statement was made just prior to the swearing in of the jury which is to try W. F. Kettinbach, George H. Ketter, president and cashier of the Lewiston National Bank, and William Dwyer of Clarkston, Wash., on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the Government out of timber lands.
Judge Dietrich then decided that he could not issue an order compelling Charles F. Estes, a detective in the service and accused of "fixing" jurors and witnesses, to answer grand jury questions if the answers tended to incriminate him, or even form a link in a chain of evidence which might later be used against him, citing the recent decision of Judge Gilbert at Portland in the Chapman contempt case of Boise, which Congress out of the Barber Lumber Company land fraud indictments. The judge added that to force Mr. Estes to answer the questions would be a violation of the fifth amendment to the Federal Constitution.

Judge Warns Mr. Estes.

He told the witness, however, that if he was still engaged in the alleged work of "fixing" witnesses and jurors he must desist. His honor took occasion at that juncture to say that he regretted the evident condition of affairs that must exist in this section of the state, judging from the Estes contempt matter and the statement of Mr.
Leachman.

Just before court adjourned Attorney Samuel Tannehill for the defense asked permission of the court and prosecution that the defense be permitted to interrogate some of the witnesses summoned to give some of the evidence which the defense might acquire from them certain points which it desired to use in the prosecution of its case.
District Attorney Buehler strenuously resisted the request, saying that he considered it an attempt upon the part of the defense to get the witnesses into the offices of attorneys for the defense and in-terrogate them and secure from them facts to which they intended to testify during the progress of the case. He said he never heard of such a request in his 25 years of legal practice. Attorney Tannehill denied he wanted to intimidate the witnesses.

Judge Dietrich also decided that James Turner, a juror, was disqualified from serving as a juror. He said it was the first time he had ever seen the offense being raised. Turner was indicted for taking liquor upon the Nez Perce Indian reservation, pleaded guilty, although he denied he was guilty. Sentence was suspended by Judge Beatty and the term of court for the case was closed upon motion of the District Attorney.

Juror Turner Disqualified.

The prosecution challenged the juror on the ground that he was disqualified because of his moral turpitude, growing out of his pleading guilty to a crime. The defense contended that he had never been convicted of a crime, as the word conviction is used in the statutes relative to a man's moral turpitude. Judge Dietrich in sustaining the challenge of the prosecution, said in part:

"The Supreme Court of the United States has held that a crime involving imprisonment in the penitentiary was a heinous crime. The record in the Turner case showed that he had been convicted of pleading guilty, as under the authorities a conviction must precede a judgment.
His plea of guilty made it possible for the court to impose a penitentiary sentence upon Turner. While the court feels that under the Idaho statutes it is difficult to determine exactly the status of Turner as to the statutes, the court feels that moral turpitude was included in the meaning of the term heinous crime." The taking of testimony will begin tomorrow morning.

PEOPLE BACK UP MAYOR

Police Matter, However, Is Referred to Council Committee.

ASTORIA, Or., May 20.—(Special.)— At the meeting of the council this evening, Mayor Wise reported that he suspended all the officers of the police force for failure to obey his instructions to close the dance halls. The matter was referred to the health and police committee and City Attorney, with instructions to investigate at once and the Mayor was requested to call a special meeting of the council as soon as the committee is ready to report.

Communications were received from the Women's Club, the Reading Club and a committee appointed at a meeting held on Sunday, endorsing the action of the Mayor and urging the Council to sustain him.

An ordinance was introduced granting to James Steel, of Portland, a 30-year franchise for a gas plant, and limiting the price to be charged consumers to 75 cents per thousand feet.
The ordinance was referred to a committee and will be voted upon at the next meeting.

Boy Loses Leg by Gun Wound.

LA GRANDE, Or., May 20.—McKage Mottot, aged 11, suffered amputation of a leg Saturday night because of an accidental shooting Saturday noon while he and a playmate were in the mountains fishing. The boys saw both were sitting on a rock when Mottot suddenly screamed: "I am shot." Investigation revealed that a bullet had entered his knee, fracturing the joint. His playmate hurried to a nearby cabin, where assistance was found. The boy was started to La Grande, where his parents live.

and after an eight-mile drive down the mountain, the doctors found it necessary to amputate the injured limb immediately at the knee.
The boy's story is not generally accepted. It is believed they carried a pistol unknown to their parents, and that while they fingered the weapon it went off.

FREIGHTED TO BOISE MINES

George Williams, Who Died at The Dalles Yesterday, Was Pioneer.

THE DALLES, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—George Williams, one of the earliest settlers of The Dalles, died at his home here today, after a prolonged illness. He had been a resident of this city since 1862, and was one of the first of the old-time packers who drove mule trains from California to this section of the Northwest, packing supplies into the mines and sparse settlements of Eastern Oregon and Idaho.
Mr. Williams was born in London, England, in 1820, and during his early years followed a seafaring life, visiting most of the countries of the world.
When 24 years of age he went to New York, and shortly thereafter to the plains in California in 1842, moving his pack train overland to The Dalles, loaded with supplies for the Boise mines.

For many years over the trail that preceded wagon roads his pack train was one of the famous pioneer freight transportation lines from The Dalles and Umatilla landing, then the head of Columbia River navigation to the mining camps of Grant, Baker and Union Counties and Idaho. He was one of the most conspicuous figures of the commercial pioneer settlements of these two states.

In 1873 Mr. Williams revisited London, where he married Miss Rebecca Arnold, returning immediately to The Dalles, where he engaged in business.
He was a member of the Volunteer Jackson Fire Company of this city.
Beside his widow, three of Mr. William's five children survive him, Mrs.
Emma Morris, of Portland; Grace and Robert, of this city.

COUNTY'S QUOTA 43 CENTS

Amount of Stevens' Revenue From the Forest Reserves.

OLYMPIA, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)— Stevens County today was notified that under a recent act of Congress, which gives to the state 10 per cent of the revenues from the forest reserves, that county will get 43 cents, which, under a new state law, may be expended under the direction of the County Commissioners for schools and roads.
The order, which is the largest amount of the Federal remittance pro rated today, according to the reserve acreage by State Treasurer Mills, goes to Wallula County, $458.92; Kittitas, $137.45, Yakima, $235.08; Okanogan, $216.27; Chelan, $134.82; Columbia, $176, and Asotin, $126.45.

HAS REQUIRED LIST NAMES

PALMER TO FILE REFERENDUM
PETITIONS THURSDAY.

Declares He Has Thousand Signatures to Spare in Fight Against University.

OREGON CITY, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Charles E. Spencer, of Beaver Creek, a member of the executive committee of the State Grange, passed through the city this afternoon en route to Salem, where he will look after the filling of the petitions inviting a referendum vote on the compulsory pass law and the armory appropriation bill.
The State Grange has obtained a sufficient number of signatures to exercise its referendum on these measures.
Eugene Palmer, of Albany, who is back of the movement to submit the University of Oregon appropriation bill to the people in town today, gathering up his petitions for filing at Salem before next Thursday. He states that he will have the required number of signatures well in hand to spare. He said:
"Personally I would have been very willing to give the state university $200-000 this year. If this amount is necessary for improvements, but am opposed to such a large continual appropriation, and I believe the people should rebuke the Legislature for not providing a method for raising revenue with which to pay the appropriation, other than a direct tax on the people. While I am entirely friendly to the cause of education, I believe that the state should have one board of regents for the University of Oregon, the State Agricultural College and the normal schools. Two normal schools, one in the southern and one in the northern portion of the state, would be quite sufficient."

Mr. Palmer expressed a friendly feeling for the State Agricultural College by saying that the University had duplicated some of the courses of Corvallis. He was asked if he believed the defeat of the University appropriation bill would result in increased support of public schools, and he replied in the affirmative, but did not state why. He favors raising the standard of the public schools over the state to include the ninth and tenth grades, that are now included in high school courses.

PETITIONS ARE DEFECTIVE

Calls for Referendum Do Not Meet Exact Requirements of the Law.

SALEM, Or., May 20.—(Special.)— Thomas Polson was in Salem today with two complete referendum petitions ready for filing on behalf of the State Grange. One demands the referendum on the compulsory pass law, and the other on the $100,000 armory appropriation bill. The petitions have plentiful signatures, but are defective in that they do not contain the warning clause warning voters against illegal signing. All the referendum petitions are defective in this respect.
The Attorney-General has held that it is not a fatal defect, however, and the Secretary of State office will not reject petitions on this account. The Multnomah County Sheriff's bill referendum petition has been filed withstanding that defect, and it will be left for those interested to fight the matter out in the courts.
Mr. Polson and Jacob Voorhees will go over the compulsory pass and armory petitions tomorrow, and then refer them for filing. These are the only referendum petitions backed by the grange.

Shad for Oregon Waters.

OREGON CITY, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Superintendent O'Malley, of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, has returned from an official visit of inspection of the Government hatcheries on the Upper Columbia. He said today that the bureau would continue operations with shad in June and will take eggs between Oregon City and the mouth of the Clackamas, in the Willamette River. A shad hatchery will be operated at Willamette Falls.

NEW ERA AFTER MAY 31

Variety Theaters Must Go Out of Business and "Box Trade" In Restaurants Is Tabooed.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—

Consternation reigned among local saloonmen, divekeepers and variety theater owners tonight when uniformed patrolmen served upon them a general order signed by Chief of Police Rice that in effect puts variety theaters and the "municipal cribs" out of business and compels saloonkeepers and restaurant-owners to abandon their "box trade" in drinks.
The order, which was personally drawn by Mayor Moore, is effective May 31, and prohibits box rustling in any form, compels variety theaters to discontinue the use of women in selling liquor, prohibits the sale of liquor in the "cribs," demands that restaurant-owners and saloonmen tear the curtains and door off their boxes and sign a pledge that they will not serve drinks to women.

SUICIDE CAREFULLY PLANNED

J. A. Moore, Long Creek Merchant, Kills Himself Because Going Blind.

LONG CREEK, Or., May 20.—(Special.)— J. A. Moore, a prominent Long Creek merchant, committed suicide Sunday noon in the basement of his residence by sending a bullet through his brain.
The cause of his despondency was the loss of an eye three years ago and the belief that the other was falling. The suicide was deliberate and no surprise to his friends. His plans were all made long ago. He requested only simple burial rites.
Moore was a successful merchant and widely known. He had been in business at this place for about ten years.
He leaves a wife and three children.
The funeral was held Monday afternoon.

COUNTY WILL CRUISE TIMBER

Columbia Proposes to Get at Exact Valuation of the Lands.

ST. HELENS, Or., May 20.—(Special.)— County Court today let the contract for cruising all the timberland of Columbia County to M. G. Neeson, for five and seven eighths cents per acre for every quarter section cruising over 100,000 feet, the work to be completed by August 15.
There were two bids for $60 per section. F. A. Elliott, formerly a timber cruiser for the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, put in a proposition to do the work for one per cent of the difference between the present valuation and the valuation that would be fixed by his cruise. In order for him to realize the same amount as bid by those who figured the job at $60 per section, he would have to show an average increase of valuation amounting to $5,000 per section.
