

COMPLETE JURY WITH NEW VENIRE

Sheriff Has Fifty More Men Ready for Service in Haywood Case.

ORCHARD'S EVIDENCE SOON

State Will First Prove Murder, Then Call Assassin—Both Sides Confident in the Jury—Defense Tries to Head Off Debs.

BOISE, Idaho, May 22.—(Special.)—Sheriff Hodgson has secured 50 of the 60 foremen needed to fill out the venire ordered by Judge Wood for the Haywood case. These men are from the country. The remaining number will be secured in town tomorrow and the entire list will be ready when court meets in the afternoon. James H. Hawley, attorney for the state, predicted today that by the last of next week the state would be ready to introduce Harry Orchard as a witness. He said that he thought the jury would be finally selected by the end of this week. If so, he said, it would not take over three days for the state to introduce its evidence on the commission of the crime and the method by which it was committed.

Both Sides Think Jurors Fair.

As far as the selection of a jury has gone, both sides express the opinion that a fair and impartial jury will be the result. One of the attorneys for the prosecution stated today that the state would be willing to go to trial now as soon as a jury could be found to be put in the chair vacated Tuesday, when Orrie Cole was excused because of ill health.

In speaking of general conditions, Clarence S. Darrow stated that it was his opinion that a fair and impartial jury could and would be selected to try the case. He said he was satisfied that the people of Ada County were not so much biased and prejudiced against the defendant as had been indicated at the start. He believed that the large majority of the citizens really were anxious that Harrywood and his co-defendants be given every opportunity for a fair trial.

Some Men Over-Conscientious.

"I am satisfied," said Mr. Darrow, "that we examined a considerable number of jurors who were disqualified, but who would have been perfectly fair, had they been selected to sit in the case. Quite a number of them expressed me as seemingly loath to sit in the trial, for the reason they were afraid they could not render a verdict strictly in accord with the law and the evidence. They seemed to fear they would be unintentionally biased. These jurors showed their honesty. They knew they were prejudiced to a certain extent, but still showed their desire that the defendant be given a fair show."

Advise Debs to Stay Away.

A report was circulated today that some one had received word that Edward Debs would appear in the early evening train. When asked for his opinion in the matter, Fred Miller, the Spokane attorney for the defense, said it was his opinion that the appearance of Debs for the defense that he would not come. He said the trial was one in which officers of the Western Federation of Miners were accused of a murder, and that the Socialist had no reason for taking up the matter as an issue.

This case has no connection with Socialists in any respect. It is the Socialist who have insisted on making it an issue have done much more harm to the defense than good. We have in a great measure headed off many of the Socialist publications, from circulating in this part of the country and we have endeavored to silence them, but not entirely with success. If Debs should come here, it is almost certain it would be impossible to hold him down. We hope he won't come. He can do the defense no good and might do a great deal of harm at this time.

Witness Whips a Printer.

A nasty fist fight occurred here last night, which the street gossips have sought to magnify into an incident bearing upon the murder case. The witness, Meldrum, an ex-Deputy Sheriff at Telluride, Colorado, who has been called here as a witness for the state, came into collision with F. Williams, a printer. Both take their meals at the same place. Meldrum assumed the name of Willis when he came here, and has been keeping out of sight as much as possible. Williams suspected he was not what he represented himself, and made inquiry at the house where he rooms. Last night, when they met at the boarding-house, Williams questioned him about his business and Meldrum said he was a newspaper man. Williams gave him the lie, and a fight lasting five or ten minutes ensued, in which the printer was badly battered up. The matter has been smoothed over, Williams refraining from having Meldrum arrested, on the advice of the union leaders. These did not desire to have the case ventilated, because it might be interpreted as evidence that the unions were meddling in the murder case.

Switchmen Call It Kidnaping.

DETROIT, May 22.—The biennial convention of the Switchmen's Union of North America adopted a resolution protesting against the alleged kidnaping of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, and requesting President Roosevelt to use all legitimate means in his power to secure a reversal of the recent decision "legalizing" the kidnaping. The resolutions were adopted unanimously by the delegates, who represent every state in the Union. The resolution declares that the law relative to the protection and liberty of all American citizens in procuring defense were denied these brothers by the Governor of Colorado and Idaho, and that their removal to the scene of the Steenberg murder constituted a "pure and simple case of kidnaping."

Copies were forwarded to the Governor of Idaho and Colorado and to Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone.

A resolution was also adopted today urging every member of the organization to become prominent in politics, and to work for men who favor measures beneficial to himself, regardless of party.

Price's Complaint Dismissed.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The complaint of Theodore H. Price, of this city, against the New York Cotton Exchange, in which he asks the court to enjoin the exchange from making alleged improper classification of the various grades of cotton, was dismissed today by C. E. Rushmore, the judge.

Counsel for Mr. Price asked permission to file an amended complaint. A hearing on the question will be given on Friday.

SAYS WARD IS IMPOSTOR

Son of Lew Wallace Refutes His Claims.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 22.—Henry Wallace, of this city, son of General Lew Wallace, said today: "The name of James Barton Ward is wholly unknown to me. His claim to be a half-brother of my father is wholly absurd. The half-brother and half-sisters of my father have all been well known in this city. His claim to have written any part of 'Ben Hur' is unworthy of refutation. Similar claims have been made by other persons, among these was a preacher out in Missouri. I believe he was put out of the ministry for making this mendacious claim. We do not care to take time to deny claims of imbeciles and crazy persons."

James Barton Ward, who says he is a brother of Julia Ward Howe and half-brother of the late General Lew Wallace, called on "Ben Hur" today. He was admitted to the county poor farm yesterday. Ward says he is a graduate of Columbia, Heidelberg and Trinity, co-worker with General Fremont in his expedition; formerly First Secretary to Ambassador Martin Van Buren at St. James, and First Secretary to the Ambassador at Constantinople, Abdul Aziz, and of Li Hung Chang. Ward claims to have written "Ben Hur" from its opening scene to the adoration of the Magi until the crucifixion of the Messiah they worshipped on the desert by the burning of incense and the presentation of precious gifts.

WARNS CHICAGO POLICE

Chief Cautions Them Against All Kinds of Graft.

CHICAGO, May 22.—Chief of Police George M. Shippy stood up before the 100 men transferred last night to the Twenty-second-street station and laid down the law to them respecting police work and graft. The latter is said to have been much cultivated in that district in the past and the former much neglected. "I wish to tell you direct from the Mayor," said the Chief, "that we have no enemies in the department to punish and no friends to reward. All we do want is that you do real efficient police work, and you will get along well with the present administration. 'The time is past when the policeman is the master. He is the servant of the public, and the sooner he realizes it the better.'"

This and more in the same line, and a clear warning against accepting graft and favors constituted the subject matter of the speech which closed with the policy of the administration and the methods to be employed in meeting the vice conditions in the South Side, a subject that has engaged the attention of reformers. Before he delivered his talk, Chief Shippy placed a father of nine children, in the person of Captain Edward McCann, in command of 100 other policemen, fathers, at the station.

MORGAN BUYS MORE ART

Gets Hoesentchel Collection in Paris for $1,000,000.

NEW YORK, May 22.—Announcement is made here today that J. Pierpont Morgan has purchased in Paris for more than $1,000,000 the great Hoesentchel collection of carvings, statuary and furniture, consisting of the greatest and most valuable objects of the applied arts and crafts in the world. Concerning the negotiations and sale of it the greatest secrecy, it is said, has been maintained for months, owing to a belief that if it became definitely known that it was sold to an American an effort would be made by the authorities abroad to prevent its leaving France.

Many of its carvings, panels and paintings were taken in times of violence from churches, cathedrals and palaces, and others are of such importance that there was good ground for the apprehension that they might be in some way detained, although France has as yet no such drastic prohibition on the exportation of art works as that which obtains in Italy.

News has been received that the last consignment of the splendid collection was on its way to the United States, and that there was no longer any cause for fear of official interference. Mr. Morgan has not yet decided what disposition he may make of the entire collection, but it is asserted that he has already given a part of it to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, where he is resident.

Live Wires Injure 11 Men.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., May 22.—By the collapse of about 200 feet of a newly erected steel trestle, which supported the bar line which conveys the electrical current from the power-house to the electrolytic plant at the Boston & Montana Smelter, 11 men were killed, three one, Ole Olsson, probably fatally, and five others were killed yesterday. As the trestle fell and twisted, the electric wires became short circuited and a sheet of flame. Several of the men were severely burned.

Rates on Petroleum Too High.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Freight rates on petroleum and its products from Ohio and Pennsylvania to St. Paul, Omaha, Sioux City and Sioux Falls constituted the subject of a hearing today before the Interstate Commerce Commission. The complaint is that the tariffs in force are excessive and unreasonable.

THE DAY'S DEATH RECORD

Joseph H. Berry, Detroit. DETROIT, Mich., May 22.—Joseph H. Berry, one of the city's leading capitalists and a well-known furnish manufacturer, died early today at his residence at Grosse Pointe. He was 65 years of age and had been seven weeks suffering from a complication of diseases.

Father of House of Commons.

LONDON, May 22.—George Henry Finch, known as the "Father of the House of Commons," having represented Rutland in the House for forty years, died today.

Censures Election Methods.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 22.—The Court of Appeals today announced its decision in the contested city and county election cases from Louisville and Jefferson Counties, upholding the contention of the fusionists, and declaring them void, thus reversing the decision of the Jefferson Circuit Court. The court rules that Governor Beckham has the power to fill the vacancies

Captured After Duel With Posse.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 22.—Barriacted in a boxcar in the outskirts of the city, Tony Miller, who shot and killed his former wife last night, today exchanged shots with his pursuers. Shots were exchanged until Miller had empted his revolver. He received a bullet in his leg and was captured. He had returned to the city, he said, to kill the man who was with his wife last night when she killed her.

REVERSE MAY AND DECEMBER UNION

Miss Irwin Discusses Her Approaching Wedding With Business Manager.

LITTLE OFF IN FIGURING

Debut in 1878 at 11 Years and Now Only 45, She Claims to Feel Only 20.—Richest Actress on the Stage.

NEW YORK, May 22.—"Jolly" May Irwin, the actress, admitted today in a characteristic interview that she is to marry her business manager, Kurt Eisfeldt. She gave also an official statement of her age and that of her fiancé. Miss Irwin is 45 years old, honest.

Mr. Eisfeldt is 35. "I suppose I may as well confess," said Miss Irwin in her apartment on West Forty-third street. "Yes, it's true," she continued, "I'm going to be married to Mr. Eisfeldt. The marriage will take place on Sunday, just next Sunday, at my home in the Thousand Islands. The ceremony will be performed by the Episcopal clergyman there. Dear me, I've forgotten his name, but he'll do it anyhow."

"But, say, a morning newspaper said today that I am 58 years old, and that Mr. Eisfeldt is only 25. That's cruel. Do I look 58 years old, for goodness sake? As a matter of fact, I'm only 45 years old. You needn't smile, it's true; that is exactly my age. As for Mr. Eisfeldt, I wish he was only 28, but he is 35 years old."

Slips on Figures.

"You made your debut in 1878, did you not, Miss Irwin?" "Yes, I did." "And how old were you then?" "It was just 11."

The plump actress declared prominently: "Now I feel only 20. You know I am put out about that age question. I really want it settled." "I met Mr. Eisfeldt two years ago, when Henry W. Savage introduced us at the Bijou theater," continued Miss Irwin.

"I engaged him as my business manager, and he has been with me in that capacity ever since. He will continue as my business manager I hope. That's all the romance there is to it. The wedding will be very quiet. Only two boys, Walter and Harry, will be present. We will have no honeymoon."

Miss Irwin is said to be the wealthiest woman on the stage, her fortune being estimated at from $75,000 to $1,000,000, for she has had a remarkably successful career. She is the lessee of the Bijou theater and owner of Nos. 142 and 144 West Twenty-eighth street, a house and lot at Lexington avenue and Fifty-fourth street, a house and lot at 154 West Forty-fifth street, a house and lot in Whitney, Ontario, her birthplace; several islands in the St. Lawrence River beside Irwin Island, on which she has a beautiful summer home, and other real estate.

Great Laugh Maker.

Miss Irwin has more laughs to her credit than any other person on the stage today. Her humor is infectious. She bubbles over with fun. Her personality on and off the stage is the same. She radiates good humor, wholesomeness and common sense. She has been one of the hardest workers in the theatrical business and has reaped a commensurate reward. She is thoroughly domestic and loves home and home comforts.

Miss Irwin's first husband died when she was a young actress, leaving her with two boys, then little more than babies. She has had them in her thoughts throughout her years of hard work and they now are promising young men.

Miss Irwin's three rules of business have been: "Work hard; look after things yourself; be saving."

HUGHES HAS WON VICTORY

(Continued From First Page.) choice is Taft, but his second choice is Hughes. And whether Taft or Fairbanks or somebody else is named for President, Hughes will be taken care of. "If he does not land first or second place on the ticket, he will positively be renominated for Governor, for all factions realize that Hughes possesses a vote-getting strength that no other man has at the present. He has all the good qualities of Roosevelt, with the conservatism of Cleveland, and we will not let him retire to private life at present."

Dare Not Turn Down Hughes.

"A turn-down for Hughes next year would mean the shipwreck of the Republican party in this state, and we all know it." The man who made the above statement is a Republican Congressman from New York City, who has frequently posed as the President's spokesman, and he had a good deal to do in bringing about the nomination of Mr. Hughes. Consequently the story that Mr. Hughes and Mr. Roosevelt are at odds would seem to be decidedly without foundation.
