

THE ANNUAL SALE OF WHITE AT THE OLDS, WORTMAN & KING STORE

Begins Wednesday Morning, May 29th, with Tremendous Reductions in all Departments that Carry White Goods. See This Evening and Wednesday Morning Papers

SWEEPING general reductions in price that reach into every section where white articles are sold. Daily Special Sales that will bring forth wonderful values on finest merchandise. 'Twill be the grandest sale of white ever known in Portland.

The Linen Aisle

Will be the storm center of interest during the June Sale of White. Here are the linens, the white dress materials, the dainty white materials for making pretty muslin wear, the white lawns and filmy fabrics that enter into the construction of the whitest and smartest of Summery gowns. The smart linen Suitings for the tailor-made girl who wants common-sense material for outing suits or skirts, for tennis and boating, for riding and all sorts of athletics.

And 'tis here the housewife is in her glory, too, for in this aisle we carry the sheetings, the pillow cases, the spreads, towels and all that mean so much to the careful housekeeper who takes pride in a well-kept supply of linens and bedding.

Muslinwear

This great sale throws open to you to buy from at will our entire stock of lingerie at much less than the regular price. 'Tis an event that women wait for, women who are very particular about the muslin underwear they buy, know that the lines carried by this store excel in quality and daintiness.

Come as early as possible this morning, for this aisle will be thronged from the moment the doors open to the last minute we are open for business.

Thousands of the richest and prettiest pieces of lingerie ever designed, now on sale at reduced prices.

WHAT'S BARGAINIZED AND WHERE TO FIND IT:

- Main Floor Embroideries, laces, white gloves, white hosiery, white shoes, handkerchiefs, white silks and dress goods, white wear for men, white knit underwear, and white stationery, as well as linens and white goods.
- Second Floor Women's muslin underwear, white dresses, white aprons, children's white dresses and underwear, white hats, white waists, white petticoats and white coats. White wash dresses and white wash skirts.
- Third Floor White chinaware, in many grades, hotel ware, silverware, nickelware, white enamel ware, white wooden ware, white glassware, hundreds of articles reduced.
- Fourth Floor White curtains and draperies, white blankets, white pillows, white metal beds, white lace curtains in many qualities, a sale so general that thousands may save on curtains alone.

Olds, Wortman & King's Annual Sale of White

GRIEF AT CANTON

Mrs. McKinley Held in Loving Remembrance.

MANY FLORAL PIECES SENT

City Council and Schools Adjourn Out of Respect to Dead—President and Cabinet Leave for the Funeral.

CANTON, O., May 27.—Although it is not intended that the funeral of Mrs. McKinley shall take on the form of a ceremony of state, yet the coming of the President and members of his Cabinet, the Vice-President, the Governor of Ohio, and many other people of note will make it such in a degree at least. Late this afternoon it was determined to change the arrangements for the funeral so as to allow the remains to be viewed by Canton friends at least. Late this afternoon it was determined to change the arrangements for the funeral so as to allow the remains to be viewed by Canton friends at least. Late this afternoon it was determined to change the arrangements for the funeral so as to allow the remains to be viewed by Canton friends at least.

DEATH LIKE SLEEPING CHILD

Dr. Hixey Relates Scene When Mrs. McKinley Passes Away.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Surgeon-General Hixey returned today from Canton, where he had been summoned by the illness of Mrs. McKinley. He gave the following account of the passing of Mrs. McKinley: "Mrs. McKinley recognized Secretary Cortelyou and myself on our arrival Friday morning, although she had been in a semi-comatose condition for 24 hours. Her face brightened and with one of those sweet smiles for which she was noted she spoke a few words of welcome and gratitude that we had come to her. After this, up to the last, she was aroused with difficulty, but seemed to recognize

MAYOR BUSSE WINS AGAIN

COURT DECIDES AGAINST OUSTED SCHOOL BOARD.

City Council Approves New Appointments and Executive Now Has Harmonious Supporters.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The Circuit Court today refused to interfere with Mayor Fred Busse in his efforts to secure a Board of Education of his own making. Eight members of the board who last week were removed by the Mayor went before Judge Windes today and asked for an injunction restraining Mr. Busse from ousting them or appointing new members in their places before their terms expire.

PROTECT WATER RIGHTS

Special Attorney to Prosecute Suits on Sunnyside Canal.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 27.—Ralph B. Williamson, of Portland, has been appointed assistant to the United States Attorney for the Eastern district of Washington, in cases needing immediate attention in connection with the operation of the Sunnyside irrigation project. Mr. Williamson is authorized to institute injunction proceedings to restrain unlawful taking of water from the Sunnyside canal or its lateral, when called upon to do so by the engineer in charge of the Sunnyside reclamation project.

Gets Big Italian Contract.

NEW YORK, May 27.—In the face of the keenest competition on the part of foremost Italian, German and other European concerns, another important contract has been allotted to American electrical interests by the Italian government. The contract valued at about $3,000,000, was obtained by the Westinghouse Company, and calls for the conversion from steam to electricity of the suburban state railway lines operating around Genoa.

KISER FOR SOUVENIR PHOTOS.

Northwest Scenery—Imperial Hotel.

JUNE WEDDINGS ARE MADE DOUBLY JOYOUS

If the presents are appreciated and well selected. We have made special preparation for this season, and our stock of useful and beautiful goods suitable for such occasions was never so complete. It embraces novelties and original designs in every line. We call your special attention to the magnificent line of Silverware in such assortment that we can thoroughly satisfy the most fastidious customer.

A. & C. Feldenheimer.
Jewelers, Opticians and Diamond Importers.
Corner of Third and Washington Sts. Portland, Or.

Abandons Two Montana Posts.

ST. PAUL, May 27.—An order today from the War Department announces the abandonment of Forts Assiniboine and Keogh, Montana. The former is garrisoned by the headquarters staff, band and troops A, B, C and D, Second Cavalry, which will proceed by railroad to Des Moines, Ia. Assiniboine is by far the largest fort in the United States in point of area, comprising 220,000 acres. Fort Keogh, the other abandoned post, is located several miles from Miles City, Mont. In area it is next to Fort Assiniboine in size, comprising 57,600 acres. Its two troops of the Sixth Cavalry are ordered to the Philippines.

Exports of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.

KISER FOR SCENIC PHOTOS.

Imperial Hotel—Also Kodak Developing.

OREGON GIRLS AT CAPITAL

Bates Taking Farmers' Daughters to See Jamestown Fair.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 27.—Another party of Oregon belles is now visiting Washington on the way to the Jamestown Exposition. Philip S. Bates, of Portland, is spending two days in Washington with a party of girls from all sections of Oregon, who are ## reclamation act, amounting to over $100,000 annually.

visiting the East as guests of the "Pacific Northwest, chaperoned by Mrs. C. E. Redfield. The party includes the following young ladies, all daughters of Oregon farmers: Misses Fanny Speelman, Helen Swain, Edyth Robinson, Stella Campbell, Ellen Harrison, Alda Metcalf, Daisy Betterley, Dollie Herty, Audrey Woolrey, Gladys V. Shaw, Grace McCoskey, Lamine Smith and Maude Langley.

Export of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.

KISER FOR SCENIC PHOTOS.

Imperial Hotel—Also Kodak Developing.

OREGON GIRLS AT CAPITAL

Bates Taking Farmers' Daughters to See Jamestown Fair.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 27.—Another party of Oregon belles is now visiting Washington on the way to the Jamestown Exposition. Philip S. Bates, of Portland, is spending two days in Washington with a party of girls from all sections of Oregon, who are reclamation act, amounting to over $100,000 annually.

Export of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.

KISER FOR SCENIC PHOTOS.

Imperial Hotel—Also Kodak Developing.

OREGON GIRLS AT CAPITAL

Bates Taking Farmers' Daughters to See Jamestown Fair.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 27.—Another party of Oregon belles is now visiting Washington on the way to the Jamestown Exposition. Philip S. Bates, of Portland, is spending two days in Washington with a party of girls from all sections of Oregon, who are

reclamation act, amounting to over $100,000 annually.

visiting the East as guests of the "Pacific Northwest, chaperoned by Mrs. C. E. Redfield. The party includes the following young ladies, all daughters of Oregon farmers: Misses Fanny Speelman, Helen Swain, Edyth Robinson, Stella Campbell, Ellen Harrison, Alda Metcalf, Daisy Betterley, Dollie Herty, Audrey Woolrey, Gladys V. Shaw, Grace McCoskey, Lamine Smith and Maude Langley.

Export of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.

Export of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.

KISER FOR SCENIC PHOTOS.

Imperial Hotel—Also Kodak Developing.

OREGON GIRLS AT CAPITAL

Bates Taking Farmers' Daughters to See Jamestown Fair.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 27.—Another party of Oregon belles is now visiting Washington on the way to the Jamestown Exposition. Philip S. Bates, of Portland, is spending two days in Washington with a party of girls from all sections of Oregon, who are

reclamation act, amounting to over $100,000 annually.

visiting the East as guests of the "Pacific Northwest, chaperoned by Mrs. C. E. Redfield. The party includes the following young ladies, all daughters of Oregon farmers: Misses Fanny Speelman, Helen Swain, Edyth Robinson, Stella Campbell, Ellen Harrison, Alda Metcalf, Daisy Betterley, Dollie Herty, Audrey Woolrey, Gladys V. Shaw, Grace McCoskey, Lamine Smith and Maude Langley.

Export of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.

Export of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.

KISER FOR SCENIC PHOTOS.

Imperial Hotel—Also Kodak Developing.

OREGON GIRLS AT CAPITAL

Bates Taking Farmers' Daughters to See Jamestown Fair.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 27.—Another party of Oregon belles is now visiting Washington on the way to the Jamestown Exposition. Philip S. Bates, of Portland, is spending two days in Washington with a party of girls from all sections of Oregon, who are

reclamation act, amounting to over $100,000 annually.

visiting the East as guests of the "Pacific Northwest, chaperoned by Mrs. C. E. Redfield. The party includes the following young ladies, all daughters of Oregon farmers: Misses Fanny Speelman, Helen Swain, Edyth Robinson, Stella Campbell, Ellen Harrison, Alda Metcalf, Daisy Betterley, Dollie Herty, Audrey Woolrey, Gladys V. Shaw, Grace McCoskey, Lamine Smith and Maude Langley.

Export of Iron and Steel.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 months ending with April, 1907, was about $150,000,000.

Killed in Street Quarrel.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—George W. Dunham, an ex-convict, shot and killed Thomas D. Coppock, a young lather, on the sidewalk outside of a saloon on Tenth and Franklin streets at 1 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a number of men who were attracted to the spot by the quarrel. Four shots were fired, three of them entering the abdomen and arm of the victim, who died a few hours afterward. The murderer, brandishing a revolver, cleared a way through the crowd and made off at a run. He has not been captured. Both men were drinking and quarreled.