

PLANS FOR FOURTH

Programme Will Be Outlined at Meeting Tomorrow.

COMMITTEES TO REPORT

Subordinate Bodies Reorganized by Elimination of Inactive Members. All Funds Are to Be Expended in a Businesslike Manner.

Two days of patriot jubilation are assured the people of Portland and their friends by the committee having in charge the details of the Fourth of July celebration this year. The exercises will begin on the Fourth and will continue throughout the following day. Another meeting of the general committee has been called to be held at the Council Chamber, at the City Hall, at 8 o'clock tomorrow night, when the many features of the two days' entertainment will be decided on.

Following the instructions of the last meeting of the general committee, General O. Summers, chairman of the committee, assisted by Sol Blumauer and H. H. Newhall, met and revised the different committees, replacing the inactive members with men who will lend their earnest support to the work, for the proper performance of which there remains none too much time, since the anniversary to be celebrated is but a month distant. This list of committees as revised, follows:

Officers—President, General Summers; vice-president, H. H. Newhall; treasurer, Lee M. Clark; assistant secretary, Frank D. Nicklin; general committee, General Summers, Dan McAllen, A. B. Steinbach, Louis Rosenblatt, H. H. Newhall, H. A. Cahill, S. A. Arata, E. M. Finer, Sol Blumauer, G. Griffin, W. H. Moore, W. J. Hoffman, W. M. Killingsworth, Lee M. Clark, George S. Lewis, General W. E. Finer, Sol Blumauer, H. W. Kerrigan, Colonel James Jackson, Colonel C. E. McDonald, J. D. Mann, Fred T. Merrill, Dr. E. C. Giltner, Dick McGarry, William McGarry, A. C. Lehmire, Colonel Henry E. Dorsch, Charles W. King, C. C. Bradley, D. Nicklin, G. A. Hoffman, Grant Phlegley, E. W. Rowe, Phil Metachan, Jr., Paul Westinger, Paul Baker, Alex. Metzer, Alex. Smith, E. C. Giltner, F. J. Cook, William Wallace, F. Covey, Rudy Becker, William F. Williams, R. C. Hart, L. B. Woodward, A. S. Brafield and George L. Baker.

Auditing committee—H. H. Newhall, Julius Meier, I. N. Fleischer, A. S. Brafield, Dan McAllen. Invitation—E. M. Brannick, Paul Westinger, Sol Blumauer, Tom Richardson, I. N. Fleischer, Colonel James Jackson, A. B. Steinbach, W. H. Moore. Advertising and printing—J. D. Mann, William Killingsworth, Louis Rosenblatt, George S. Lewis. Parade—Colonel James Jackson, General W. E. Finer, Colonel E. C. McDonald. Music—S. A. Arata, G. A. Hoffman, Dr. Emmet Drake, J. D. Lee, Colonel H. E. Dorsch. Literary—J. D. Lee, M. G. Griffin, William McGarry, William McMurray, C. W. King. Woodward, Alex. H. Smith, Phil Metachan, Jr., W. J. Hoffman. Decorations—Fred T. Merrill, F. J. Cook, William F. Lippman, William Wallace, F. Covey, Rudy Becker.

The reception committee consists of the members of all the other committees. It is desired by the members of the general committee that the chairman of each of the subordinate committees arrange for a meeting of his committee at once, so that a report can be made at the general meeting to be held tomorrow night, not only as to the features of the entertainment each committee has to offer, but also as to probable cost of each, so that the programme for the celebration can be mapped out.

The committees have been offered the use of the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for their meetings and Secretary Clark will recommend to the general committee that these offices be accepted as permanent headquarters.

The soliciting committees are requested to report progress at the meeting tomorrow night and final report at another meeting to be held Friday night. The committees regret the accident to H. W. Kerrigan, one of the enthusiastic members of the committee on sports. Because of an accident he sustained recently, Mr. Kerrigan will probably be unable to actively assist in this important feature of the exercises.

It has been decided by the committee in charge of the celebration to conduct the business pertaining to it in a business-like way. They propose to forestall all charges of any irregular or extravagant expenditure of the celebration funds. Before being audited, every bill must be certified to by the members of the committee by which the expense was contracted. It will then be sent to the auditing committee when a check will be issued.
