BRASS BUTTONS DISAPPEAR

After Touring Chicago in Big Automobile, Visiting Lincoln Park and Zoo, They Invade the Statestreet Department Stores.

CHICAGO, June 5-(Special.)-The 17 bright-eyed and keen-witted Oregon girls who are touring the country departed tonight for Minneapolis, where they will be formally greeted at the Stock Ex change tomorrow, Governor making the welcoming speech. Johnso

In return for their criticism of Chi-cago's unlovely skyline and forbidding streets the Oregonians today appliesoms salve to Chicago's wounded feel lings by assuring us that our women wer more human than those of New York, and that the men here were more po-lite and behaved more like the men of their own state than any specimens they had seen in the East.

Visit Lincoln Park.

It was a busy day. The party char-ered a "rubber-neck" automobile and tered a "rubber-neck" automobile and toured Lincoln Park, the Zoo, and parad-ed through the great shopping center. Shortly thereafter they hastened back on foot to the shopping center and "pried themselves loose" from considerable money in exchange for dry goods. They wheedled policemen to snip souvenir wheedled policemen to snip souvenir buttons from their uniforms; declined to pay any attention whatever to our lake shipping, as they are familiar with great ocean boats, but commented rather sharply upon the rough streets.

South Water street, the great market center, interested them very much, but they declined a visit to the stockyards.

The mansion of Mrs. Potter Palmer evoked mild praise, but Chicago's chief claim to their pleasant remembrance is the politeness of the men, who gave them seats in the cars and did not blow cigarette smoke in their faces, as the New

DYNAMITE FOR CAR STRIKERS

Seized in Express Office on Reaching

San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 5. — Seven aticks of dynamite shipped from San Matee by the Wells-Farzo Company to Glynn brothers, striking carmen, who live at 1005 Tennessee street, were seized by the police and Secretary J. H. Handlon, of the United Railroads, and moved to police headquarters in an automobile. Handlon, who notified the police that the dynamite was being shipped, says that the Wells-Fargo Company has been co-operating with the United Railroads in being on the lookout for explosives coming into San Francisco. The dynamite was discovered in the office of the express company by reason of the fact that the nitroglycerine had begun to soak through the newspapers in which it was wrapped. The matter is being investigated by the police.

Romance Begun in Portland Comes to End in Eastern City.

TRAVELING MAN IS CAUGHT

Miss Parsons Goes East and Finds Man She Loves Is Husband of Another-Says She Could Horsewhip Him.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 5.—A romance of a Portland lewelry establishment has come to a sudden end here, and Miss Georgia Parsons threatens to horsewhip her flance, Charles A. Buhorsewing her fiance, Charles A. Buchanan, a jeweler, whom she learns is the lawful husband of another woman.

Miss Parsons, a rather trim young woman, tripped into the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court and asked to see the papers in the divorce case of Mrs. Charles A. Buchanan. The clerk showed them and after looking them over, told her that the suit had

"He has deceived you, dear," said the older woman, "I believed in him until I learned he was to live in Salt Lake City; he has made you believe he was divorced. I would not free him; I will never ask or get a divorce now, just for spite."

Now She Could Whip Him. "I did love him; he was kind to me; he seemed so honest," said Miss Par-sons, "but now—now—I hate him; I could horsewhip him."

The two women wept sympathetic-October 26, 1904, Buchanan drew his pay from his employers and quit St. Louis, leaving his wife and daughter to shift for themselves, Mrs. Buchanan believed an accident had befallen him. A few days later she asked the police to find him. ater she asked the police to find him. Buchanan, it has been since learned, went to Portland.
