BUILD CITY JAIL ON MARKET BLOCK

Council May Take Steps to Forfeit Franchise Held by Market Concern.

COMPANY WILL FIGHT MOVE, utes were brought.

Terms of Franchise Violated, Councilmen Say, and They Regard the Site an Ideal One for the New Municipal Building.

but is now occupied by the Per Market Association as a public market.

Councilman Bolding started an agitation at the meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon to select the market block as the location for the new municipal building, and the plan found much favor. Several other Councilmen agreed with him and promised their assistance to his plan.

Although the People's Market Association has a 25-year franchise for use of the property, it is said that the terms of the franchise, which provide that the block shall be used for no other purpose than for a public market, have been violated, for which the franchise may be forfeited. City Attorney McNary is of this opinion and a report from the judiciary committee of the Council was made to this effect yesterday afternoon. It has been the general belief that this property could be used for no other purpose than a public market, but it is said that an investigation has been made that an investigation has been made which has revealed the fact that the parties who originally donated the property to the city for market purposes only inter made out a quit-claim deed, which gave the city the authority to utilize the lock for any purpose it saw fit. Councilman Belding proposed to the council that the franchise of the People's Council that the franchise of the People's Market Association be revoked and the block utilized as a site for the central police station and municipal court building. He thought it an ideal location for such a building, as it was guite centrally situated and within a short time would be surrounded with hard surface pavenients. Nearness to the City Hall was another argument he made in favor of

In order that there may be no doubt as to the city's right to utilize this property as a site for the proposed municipal building, City Attorney McNary was in-structed to make a careful investigator into the records and report to the Coun-cil at the next meeting, when definite action may be taken

Attorney Frank Motter and George W. Waterbury, representing the People's Market Association, were present at the Council meeting to offer objections against any action being taken to rescind their franchise, but were given no opportunity franchise, but were given no opportunity to speak.

Mr. Motter said he would fight any attempt to revoke the franchise, as he thought the city had no right to do so. He acknowledged that the company had been yielating the terms of its franchise, but declared the city had not kept its word with the company.

"The company which now holds this franchise is not the company which secured it," said he. "I understand that the Council promissed to enact certain ordinances which would compel all peddlers and gardeners to patronize this association, but it failed to do so. The city has been collecting rent on this ground from us, knowing we were not living up to the terms of our franchise, and I am of the opinion that this franchise cannot be revoked. We are willing to make other arrangements with the Council and will give them an opportunity of erecting a building to be used as a site for a poice station and municipal courtroom on ground which is unoccupied."

Proposals for all other property as sites for the proposed municipal building were rejected and the certified checks of the bidders were returned. Further action of the Council will depend upon the opinion of the City Attorney regarding the right of the Council to use the market block for other than market purposes.

Mr. Deardorff was a well-known pioneer of 1850 and an Indian War veteran. He belonged to a distinguished family after whom the Deardorff Valley, in Clackamas County, near Mount Scott, was named. Both men were employed by the Olson Transfer Company, and the morning of May 23, are said to have engaged in a night, during which Knott was knocked down by McVittle. The latter declares, however, that he did not inflict the wounds that caused death, and his story is borne out by William Givens, employed in the same barn, who states that Knott started the trouble and continued it until McVitte slapped him. Givens declares that Knott got up and went to work, and that he was apparently all right, but later developed alarming symptons.

Catholics Manage Theater.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Chicago has a fhe-ster, the management of which is en-tirely in the hands of Catholic priests. At a total expenditure of $500,000, the College Theater, at Sheffield and Web-ster avenues, on the north side of the city, was opened last night to the pub-lic for the first time. In appearance, both exterior and interior, the theater is one of the handsomest in the city. The first attraction of the new playhouse was the

NO NOTICE OF ELECTION

Will Ask City Attorney for Opinion on Subject-All Measures Ratified by People Affected by the Auditor's Omission.

That the $5,000,000 bond charter amendments, adopted by the electors of Fortland last Monday, are void, or that if valid, the doubt will impair their selling price to such an extent as to cause the city heavy loss, is the opinion of Mayor Lane. He announced yesterday that he would ask the decision of City Attorney McNary as to whether the measures have election for a second adoption of the few days in Portland, amendments, if the city is to sell the J. Mr. McNary already has said that in his opinion the bonds would hold valid, though the doubt would probably diminish their seiling price.

The flaw comes from neglect of the City

The flaw comes from neglect of the City Auditor to give ten days' notice by publication of the Monday election. It is the general opinion that the election of city officers will hold valid, even if the amendments should not. The six other charter amendments and the three ordinances, which were adopted by the voters, are in the same category as the bond amendments. The six provide for improvement of streets by districts; raise the remonstrance for defeating street im-At 10:30 3 clock this morning. The law requires Auditor Devlin, in the presence of Mayor Lane, to canvass the vote on the amendments and the ordinances, within five days after the election. The law says further: The Mayor shall, within 30 days from the time of such election, proclaim the adoption of each measure or amendment, which shall

Many Persons Regain Health and Happiness Through the Treatment of Fer-Don's Medical Experts. CAME FROM MISSOURI And Finds Relief From Deafness

Through the Use of Fer-Don's Preparations. A LIBERAL OFFER.

The first evenings of Fer-Don's stay in East Portland, at Williams avenue and Kuett street, proved conclusively that he will entertain even larger audiences than when on Wasnington street. More than 2000 people greeted him both Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and found pleasure and recreation in the very excellent band concerts, and were made to marvel by the unique demonstrations by which the great Fer-Don proves the value of his remedies. Nothing like it has ever before been seen in Portland, and the deaf, the lame and the paralytic come for miles to test for themselves the power of this man's peculiar preparations. And they come not in vain, for the remedies which Fer-Don is introducing, while he does not claim them to be cure-ails, certainly do the work for which they were intended. Frank Hay, who lives at Carthage, Missouri, who is visiting in the city, has been restored his hearing by the Fer-Don remedies. Deaf for is years he now can hear the ticking of a watch or a whisper.

S. B. Reddick, 346 Knott street, deaf for 20 years, after one application of Fer-Don's remedy, was made to hear a whisper.

The wonderful power of the Magio

Fer-Don's remedy, was made to hear a whisper.

The wonderful power of the Magic Relief was shown in the case of F. M. Austin, 591 Rodney avenue, who has for months suffered from rheumatism in the right arm, and lately has not been able to use his right hand on account of this affliction. The preparation was applied to the arm and hand, and almost instantly the pain departed and Mr. Austin was able to use the hand with ease.

Without doubt the noblest work that man can do is to bring happiness into the hearts of others. This is the kind of work the great Fer-Don is seeking to do in Portland and his success is beyond question. Many persons who had long ago lost the hope of ever again regaining health have been cured of diseases pronounced by others incurable, when treated by the scientific methods of the Fer-Don medical experts.

methods of the Fer-Don medical experts:

Fer-Don has made an extremely liberal offer to the people in regard to these special treatments. He has instructed his physicians to make a charge only sufficient to cover the cost of medicines to make a complete cure. This offer is already being taken advantage of by many sufferers who are being treated for cancers, tumors, rheumatism and all chronic diseases. As no special time has been set for the termination of this offer whereby the sick can be cured for the price of the medicine alone, it would seem good policy for all needing treatment to call at the offices at 352½ Washington street as soon as possible.
