

TAFT HAS INVADDED CANNON DOMAIN

Speaker Scorns Politics, but Holds Reception to Congressmen.

SURE TO CATCH ILLINOIS

Shaw's Boom in Iowa May Build Up Delegation for Cannon—Speaker Grows Sarcastic About Taft's Inspection.

CHICAGO, June 10.—(Special).—Chicago was puffed up today by the simultaneous presence of two Presidential candidates. Just as Secretary Taft was departing for Wisconsin, "Uncle Joe" Cannon left his farm work and "biked" hither, although he would not admit he was anxious about what that "Taft fellow" was doing. He was on his way to Aurora, Ill., to attend the dinner to Ambassador Bryce.

"I am going to this luncheon in honor of a distinguished scholar, statesman and diplomat," he said, "and why mar such an occasion with any talk or thought of politics? I've been down in Danville for some time taking it easy, chatting with my neighbors, doing chores around the house and running errands. Politics? Oh, there's nothing to say just now. It's a fine day, isn't it? It looks as if Summer were on the wing."

Holds Continuous Reception.

Friends of Mr. Cannon who came with him brought the news that the Speaker is making a campaign for Presidential honors which they believe is decidedly more effective than the speechmaking tours of his rivals. He is holding practically a continuous reception in Danville for members of Congress from all parts of the country, who call to pledge their support and leave to spread Cannon doctrine wherever they go. State Senator Edward Field, manager of the Cannon boom in Illinois, made this prediction:

"In my opinion the chances of Mr. Cannon's getting the Republican nomination for President are better now than ever, and improving every day. I regard it as certain he will have the Illinois delegation to the National convention solidly."

Taft's "Inspection Tour."

Mr. Taft will make speeches in Madison and Milwaukee, Wis., Rock Island, Ill., in Iowa, Minnesota, South Dakota and Kansas before returning to Washington, and much benefit to his Presidential boom is expected therefrom.

Mr. Cannon was told about Mr. Taft's passing through the city and commented with a grin on the Secretary's mission.

"Yes, Taft is on a trip of 'official inspection,'" he said. "Well, that's all right. He's Secretary of War, and of course the Army posts have to be inspected."

BROAD ENOUGH FOR ANYTHING

Governor Davidson Booms Taft Before Milwaukee People.

MILWAUKEE, June 10.—"Secretary of War Taft is broad enough to fill any position which the American people may call upon him to fill," was the keynote of an address of welcome by Governor James C. Davidson on behalf of the State of Wisconsin at the Hotel Pfister tonight, given in honor of the distinguished Secretary.

Mr. Taft delivered a lengthy address on the history of the Panama canal, and was frequently and enthusiastically applauded. Three hundred citizens of all shades of politics sat at the banquet board.

NEW YORK TO HAVE RECOUNT

Recanvass Bill Passes Assembly Over Mayor's Veto.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 10.—The Assembly tonight by a vote of 82 to 37 passed over the veto of Acting Mayor McGowan of New York, the bill providing for a judicial recount and recanvass of the ballots cast at the mayoral election of 1906 in New York City.

Haskell Gets Nomination.

GUTHRIE, Okla., June 10.—The Daily Leader at noon says: In the Democratic primaries C. N. Haskell, of Muskogee, I. T., for Governor, has received a majority of 14,000 over Lee C. Cruise, of Ardmore, and R. L. Owen, of Muskogee, and Roy V. Hoffman, of Chandler, have been nominated for United States Senators by majorities ranging from 5,000 to 8,000.

Tumult of Applause for Taft.

MADISON, Wis., June 10.—Secretary Taft addressed an audience of 8,000 in the gymnasium today. He was welcomed with tumults of applause. Included in the audience were the members of the State Supreme Court, a large body of students and many members of the Legislature.

JAPANESE PLOT UNMASKED

(Continued From First Page.) He comment or facts to the discussion of Japanese-American incidents. Viscount Aoki, the Japanese Ambassador, today, as usual, denied himself to newspaper men and proclaimed against any statement emanating from the embassy relative to the reported development of strength in the opposition party in Japan.

Ambassador Aoki is understood to take the view that there are no matters of difference between the United States and Japan which are not capable of adjustment if allowed to be considered on their merits. It is said to be this view that leads him to deprecate the publication in this country of the propaganda which is being used in Japan to influence votes in the Fall for members of the lower house of the Japanese legislative body.

Wait Devlin's Report. At the State Department it was said that there were no developments in the situation, and, in fact, some surprise was expressed that any should be expected in the near future. The report of District Attorney Devlin, of San Francisco, upon the mobbing of the Japanese restaurant and baths is expected to reach this city within a day or two, but the conclusions have already been anticipated by telegraphic advices and brief preliminary mail advices, so that what the State Department looks for when the report is at hand is a mass of detailed testimony taken by Mr. Devlin as to the facts connected with the incident. Certainly it is not expected that the department's policy in this matter will be changed in any respect as the result of receipt of the complete report.

It is pointed out also, to correct what the officials regard as the impression to the effect that the Japanese have made much more of this San Francisco trouble than was warranted by the facts, that actually the conduct of the Japanese government in the matter has been extremely modest. It is true that what is regarded as the opposition press in Japan has indulged in some rather extreme language and has clamored without cause for action by their own government that would surely lead to grave consequences.

Follows Precedent. As for the Japanese government itself, and in this it is believed to represent the majority of the Japanese people, it is said at the State Department that it has pursued such a course as is followed by every self-respecting civilized nation in dealing with cases of attacks upon their citizens in a foreign country. These cases occur frequently, and it is said to be the rule, where they exceed the ability of the police powers, for the diplomatic representative of the nation whose subjects are affected to courteously draw the attention of the general government to the situation, in order to guard against any extension of the disorder.

May Postpone New Treaty.

One result of the extreme newspaper agitation in San Francisco will, it is believed, be the indefinite postponement of the plan to initiate negotiations this Summer looking to the conclusion of a treaty between America and Japan that should definitely regulate the immigration of Japanese into the United States, and it is suggested by one of the officials that probably this result is exactly what was sought to be accomplished by the opposition agitators in Japan and on the Pacific Coast.

KUROKI SAYS WILL BE NO WAR

Japanese General Scoffs at Bellicose Talk of Both Nations.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10.—(Special).—General Baron Kuroki, who represented the Japanese Emperor at the Jamestown Exposition, declared here shortly before sailing on the Kaga Maru tonight for home, that no danger of war exists between America and Japan.

"The friendship that has existed for 20 years cannot be broken by such an incident as that at San Francisco," he said. "There will be no war between Japan and America in my lifetime or in your lifetime. There may be momentary hurries and some excitement engendered, but nothing serious will come of it. The sentiment of friendship between the two countries is too deeply seated among the people to allow a small matter to provoke an open rupture."

General Kuroki today gave a banquet to a number of Seattle officials and Army officers who entertained him here. Speaking to Army men, he let drop the explanation that his campaign in Manchuria had been evolved by the War Office at Tokio three years earlier.

HE DENIES WHOLE STORY

Takahashi Says Japanese of America Support Salonji.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10.—A dispatch from Washington is to the effect that the Japanese of the Pacific Coast and the Progressives, a political party in Japan, have formed a conspiracy to overthrow the present Japanese Ministry. Part of the plan is said to be to bring about anti-American demonstrations in Japan and force Minister Hayashi, if possible, to demand indemnity for the Japanese of the San Francisco disturbances.

Charles T. Takahashi, vice-president of the Oriental Trading Company, of this city, who went to Washington as representative of the Japanese of the Pacific Coast, to confer with Ambassador Aoki on the proposed mutual exclusion treaty, said regarding the dispatch from Washington reporting the alleged conspiracy to overthrow the present administration of Japan:

"The writer of the Washington dispatch begins with an amusing political blunder and ends with falsehood. He seems to have interpreted a suggestion as a complaint. The Progressives in Japan and the Japanese of the Pacific Northwest have nothing in common. The Progressive party is badly demoralized. Its leader, Count Okuma, recently resigned its leadership. The party is without a leader."

"It is untrue that Yamaoka went to Japan to confer with the administration of the Japanese of the Pacific Northwest, and to be the representative of Okuma on this Coast. He has always fought Okuma's party and supported Premier Salonji. He was the editor of Salonji's personal organ. An alliance between the Progressives and the Japanese of the Pacific Northwest is impossible. The latter are in favor of the present administration in Japan and wish Viscount Aoki returned as Ambassador to the United States. We feel that he is the best informed man of the Japanese question in the United States who is now in the service of our government. I personally feel that it would be a severe blow to our interests if Viscount Aoki recalled. In conclusion, I want to make clear the following facts in relation to a conspiracy contained in the Washington dispatch: 'First, there is no conspiracy; second, there could not possibly be an alliance between the Japanese of the Pacific Northwest and the Progressive party in Japan, for the reason that our sympathies and support in the West have always been to the present Liberal party, which is composed of the old Constitutional and Government parties, and which has the following of Salonji, Koura, former Premier, the man who carried the country safely through the war with Russia, and the Marquis Ito. Third, Mr. Yamaoka does not represent the Japanese of the Pacific Northwest, but is a member of the Japanese of the Pacific Northwest and is opposed to Ambassador Aoki, nor have they accused him of treachery to Japanese interests."

"They believe him to be the man best equipped to handle the situation."

CLAIM INDEPENDENT ACTION

American Japanese Association Disclaims Home Alliance.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The Japanese Association of America, emphatically denies the cable from Tokyo, which indicates that the Japanese of the Pacific Coast have entered into an alliance with the "Progressives" to overthrow the present ministry of Japan.

A representative of the association said today: "The Japanese Association of America has no alliance with the Progressives in Japan, neither does it desire the overthrow of the present ministry. The purpose of Mr. O. Noda's visit to Washington was to see the Japanese Ambassador, Viscount Aoki, with regard to the recent attempted anti-Japanese movement here and to present the real situation and condition of affairs before him, and to further plans for the best ways and means for removing anti-Japanese sentiment."

WILL CONTINUE AT PEACE Taft Has Abiding Faith We Shall Not Fight Japan.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 10.—Secretary of War Taft, in an interview tonight, said there will be no war with Japan. He has faith that the United States and Japan will continue their way along most peacefully together. The Secretary said:

"War with Japan? Don't you believe it. Never mind the news that keeps coming. You can quote me emphatically as saying that I have an abiding faith that the United States and Japan will continue their way along most peacefully together. You are rest assured of that. Never mind the scarehead dispatches."

"The complaint of Mrs. Ayres against officials at West Point and the report that she has included me personally in the affair? On this subject I have nothing whatever to say beyond the statement that the proper department of the government has taken the matter up."

It is understood here he will arrive shortly."

TRAIN STOLEN BY TRAMP

MOUNTS CAB WHEN CREW STOPS FOR LUNCH.

Bellingham Man Takes Engine and Cars Out of Town and Back Again—Ejects Joke.

BELLINGHAM, June 10.—The Great Northern Seattle-Bellingham local train was at 10 o'clock last night stolen from the depot, where it was left for a few minutes while the crew went to lunch, by Barkley McCutcheon, a town tough, who threw open the throttle, starting the engine north at a terrific pace. The bell was ringing and the whistle blowing madly.

The train crew rushed for a speeder and followed until it was discovered that the pursuing crew were able to get off the track. McCutcheon later stopped the train, bringing it to an abrupt stop and causing a friction that nearly ignited the iron.

McCutcheon, who is 22 years old, was very much pleased with his experience, and under the excitement of the numerous narrow escapes was very nervous. He was taken to the city jail and locked up.

REPORTS WENT TO HOLMES

Agent Says Figures Were Tampered With After Leaving Him.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(Special).—The trial today of Edwin S. Holmes, Jr., in the "Cotton Leak" case, Bartholomew C. White, special cotton crop agent for the Department of Agriculture, identified a number of reports made by him in 1902, 1904 and 1905. In some of these, he said, changes were made in his figures without his authority. The reports were sometimes made to his office and in others handed in to Mr. Hyde, then Chief Statistician, or Mr. Holmes, Secretary Wilson was then examined.

"I never had the least suspicion concerning Mr. Holmes until this case came up," said Mr. Wilson. All possible precautions were taken, he said, to keep the reports secret. A number of clerks of Washington hotels were called to testify as to the presence of Frederick Peckham and Moses Haas in this city on various dates in 1902 and 1904.

SAVES A SCORE OF LIVES

Young Sergeant Boesch Hero in Eruption of Norfolk Hotel.

NORFOLK, Va., June 10.—The famous Princess Anne Hotel at Virginia Beach was destroyed by fire which had its origin early today in the kitchen. There were 110 persons, guests and employes, in the hotel. All are thought to have escaped with the exception of a negro chambermaid and John Eaton, the white steward.

That a score or more of persons were not lost is attributed to the heroism of Carl Boesch, a young sergeant, with the Richmond Light Artillery Blues who, rushing from room to room, awakened the sleeping occupants until he fell from exhaustion. The loss upon the building is $185,000, with only $33,000 insurance.
