DEPUTY COUNTY CLERK TO WED.— Though Deputy County Clerk Carl Delmer Christiansen has drawn up many marriage licenses in his tenure of service under County Clerk Fields he felt as embarrassed as many another bridegroom yesterday when Chief Deputy Fred Prasp lesued to him a permit to wed Miss Bonito Fiorence Raiston. Carl attempted to obtain the license unknown to his fellow deputies or to the young women stenographers numbering a dozen who occupy the southern end of the office. Whether it was mental telepathy or "some one had blundered" it is difficult to say but in a trice the blushing bridegroom was surrounded by a bevy of the pretty women clerks fianked by as many deputies.
He was congratulated by the men and saluted by the giris. Mr. Christiansen will lead Miss Raiston to the altar tomorrow noon in Oregon City. Later a morrow moon in Oregon City. Later a reception will be tendered the couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller in the city by the falls.

Competing Roads Contest Rights on Tillamook Coast.

Circuit Judge G. H. Burnett, of Marion County, at the law offices of Snow & Mc-Camant, will this morning resume the hearing of the injunction suit of the Pacific Railway & Navigation Company against the Astoria & Columbia River against the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company. This is an applica-tion of the Pacific Railway & Navigation Company for an injunction restraining the Hill line from establishing a survey around Garibaldi Point, on Tillamook Bay, the plaintiff company declaring I completed a survey over the disputed territory, which is the most feasible gate ritory, which is the most feasible gateway between the Nehalem Valley and the Thiamook country, before the Astoria & Columbia surveyors began.

The hearing was begun in this city several weeks ago, and at the request of the Pacific Railway & Navigation Company was deferred until its supervising engineer. Mr. Davis, had recovered from an illness. Mr. Davis will be the principal witness at today's hearing, and by his testimony the company hopes to establish its rights by proving priority of surveys.

Suit of Van Zandt vs. Harris. Before Circuit Judge J. Gantenbein yesterday was begun the hearing of the suit of Frances Van Zandt against William H. Harris, wherein the plaintiff seeks judgment for $5800, alleging breach of contract in neglecting to comply with an agreement for the erection and lease of an apartment house at Twenty-second and Everett streets. Harris in a cross-complaint accuses Mrs. Van Zandt of violating the contract and prays to be awarded judgment for $200. A jury was drawn to hear the case. It was contract of the case.

GIVES CIGARS TO JURYMEN

Charge Made That Defendant "Set 'Em Up" While Case Was On.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10 .- Judge Lawlor today caused an inquiry to be made into the charge of Mrs. M. E. Hurst that luring the trial of E. W. Emmons, whom she accuses of swindling her on a mining deal, he had been endeavoring to influ-ence the jury by presenting certain of the jurors with cigars and engaging them in conversation.

Mrs. Hurst repeated these statements after Judge Lawlor had directed the jury to withdraw from the courtroom. Mrs. Abbie McDaniel, her friend and witness for her, declared she had seen Emmons give cigars to three of the jurymen. Emmons was called to the stand and declared that the story was not true.

Judge Lawlor declared that he was inclined to believe Mrs. Hurst's statement, but reserved his decision as to what he will do in the matter.

Brigands Have World's Union.

ROME, June 10 .- An international association of brigands has been unearthed in Sicily by the police. Two of the lead-ers are in custody. From documents selzed it discovered it was a local band with branches in America. The associa-tion worked in Italy and its accomplices in America disposed of the plunder. The police hope with the aid of the correc-pondence seized to arrest some of the accomplices in America.
