Portland, 1; 3.

Trimmed four straight by our crew and with a no hit, no run game tucked away against them, the tourists from Los Angeles left our gates last evening Los Angeles left our gates list evening terribly aggrieved. Honestly you couldn't blame them. Here they waited three days for the weather, then when they got into action Portland simply went through 'em like a farmer going through his barn with a lantern.

To be denied four times holts a lot, capetally when you are leading the next.

especially when you are leading the pro-ession, but to be skinned like Long Bob Groom turned the trick, makes history, to first was as sure and deadly as a rifle bullet. The Flying Dutchman scored the winning run.

Captain Dillon sent in Burns to trim us, but Burns must have thought he was chucking cyster shells at a shanghal rooster, for it was his one wild heave that gave us the lone are in the hole. This came in the third. Schimpff walked and Bobby Groom, surprised the natives by hitting sefe to left. The wild heave over Bobby Eager's conning tower, sent Schimpff to third and Groom to second. Bassey drove out a long fly, but the Schimpff to third and Groom to second. Bassey drove out a long fly, but the Dutch had plenty of time to score before the ball got back to the diamond. This was all. Groom wifred five of the visitors and lack of control got him into trouble once or twice, but in spite of hitting Delmas on the think tank and passing three others, he had the moxie to pull through. When it came to the second engagement, Manager Mac discovered that Califf had taken an afternoon sleep, after warming up, and was as stiff as a truckwarming up, and was as stiff as a truck-horse. He cussed Califf in seven different horse. He clussed Califf in seven different kinds of ways and called for young Hart-man, his new slabster, who only arrived from Les Angeles last night. The newest importation is a southpaw and when he took the mound, he was greeted with generous applause. Charley was a bit stage-struck during the first part, but he squeezed through the game a winner, even if he was scratched and clawed. even if he was scratched and clawed some. He stood the gaff and the taunts of the old-timers on the visiting crew

Becomes Solid With Fans.

Hartman got off on the right foot with the fans, when he wiffed Carlisle, and even if he did clout Dillon twice on his brisket and biffed Jud Smith with one of brisket and biffed Jud Smith with one of his gentle twisters, he won and that's all anyone would ask. Moore started in to catch the newcomer, but Moore's pegging to second was yellow in the center and buff around the edges. McCredle yanked Donahus out of center, went to the middle velt himself and sent the new shortstop into right. With this comhortstop into right. With this com-ination, there was no beating us. Hartman got one too close to Dillon in the third inning. It just caressed his bosom, but he took a perch. The new southpaw had wiffed Carnes and Carlisle. making it two straight for the kid on Carlisle. Dillon stole second, but he would have been out a city block, but Moore's arm was weary. He scored on Brashear's single. In the fifth, with two down sgain. Hartman passed Crayath.

Donahue failed to morgue him at second, and when Delmas singled, Crayath scored. This made two, and the crowd

But the big thing was coming. In the seventh, McCredie biffed safe and Carnes thumped Carson in the back. Schimpff dumped a nice sacrifice down and advanced McCredie and Carson. On Hartman's out from Brashear to Dillin, McCredie scored. Great was the joy and the noise. began to feel sorry.

Thrills in the Eighth.

It was in the eighth where the put-ups got 47 varieties of thrills and their money's worth. Donahue and Casey were sorth in pickle when the happy moment arrived. Most singled over shot. Wilson was safe on Delmas luggie. Mctredie singled. Mott scored because the throw back got away from Hogan. Then the big surprise and electric thrill happened. Carson hit safe and Wilson rolled home. Schimpff couldn't help any, but it made no difference, the winning run was where

Guess this was fine for an initial performance All right, Hartman. A few more like this one and you'll have a home with us. Bassey's American Beauty snatch of Eager's short drive to left, saved trouble Eager's short drive to left, saved trouble in the ninth. The little outfielder picked the ball off the top of the grass. It was a real grandstand play. Had this clout got away, Eager, who took Dillon's place, would have scored on Brashear's two-bagger. Smith hit to Hartman and he three to Mott to catch Brashear at third. Everybody but the ump thought Mott had nailed Kitty, and Perrine came in for a scolding. It was all forgiven the next moment. For Mott took care of Cravath's fly and he was the pallbearer that helped bury Delmas. This was the end of the bargain-counter day, and the crowd hurried home for chicken and dessert, thoroughly happy. This week it will be Oakland and Portland in the final week of the series at home

Give St. Johns another. The Astoria salmon canners came around to that burg yesterday afternoon and went home with a load. Not "booke," for the little burg had the lid on, but it was a long string of horse collars that the Astorians carted back to the city by the sea. Before the matinee was over, three of the Apostles had completed a round trip of the sacks, and made the score stand 3 to 9. It all happened this way. Charlie Moore—may his tribe increase—was on the firing line, his brother Otto behind the cushion, and one McKay on second base. Those three Apostles are the ones who fixed things for the Astoria lads. Five dinky little bingles are all that are credited to the Salmon Canners. Charley certainly had the sign on those boys. He kept the hits scattered and never allowed the Astorians to become dangerous. Astoria led off with two hits, but these bingles did little harm. The Salmon canners made a hit, in the second, third and fourth innings, and after that couldn't locate the tall ex-Coast Lesguer. In the fourth inning, three hits and a base on balls were responsible for two runs. St. Johns made two more in the sixth, but couldn't force anyone across the rubber. In the seventh they fell on runs. St. Johns made two more in the sixth, but couldn't force anyone across the rubber. In the seventh they fell on Hoover for three bingles, and chased one run across the pan. There was a good-sized chowd present, and throughout the whole game things were lively.

WOODBURN TAKES TOP PLACE

Defeats Brewers Two Games With Some Sensational Playing.

WOODBURN, Or., June 16.-(Special.)-The Woodburn team stepped to the head in the standing of the Tri-City League clubs when it defeated the N. P. Browers teday both games in a double-header, the first by a score of 8 to 8; the sec-ond by 3 to 0. The home team won easily notwithstanding putting the sphere over the fence with three men on bases and making a home run. Poland for Wood-burn in the second game pitched equally as well as Concannon in the first. Shortsensational one-handed catch in the sec-ond game, and brought the grandstand to its feet. Both Fender and Robinson pitched good ball for the visitors. The

TRUNKMAKERS WIN GOOD GAME

The Dalles Loses by a Score of 5 to 2-Small Crowd.

THE DALLES, Or., June 18.—(Special.)— The Dalles lost to the Trunkmakers by a score of 5 to 2 in a good game. It was not the pitching of Taylor, but the sup-port, that won the game for the Trunkmakers. The Columbias were robbed of three hits. Taylor got seven strike-outs and Tailiferro il. The attendance was very poor, owing to the fact the band gave a concert at 4:30. The next game will be Sunday, June 23, with C. C. Cline Devoe team, of Portland. There will be several changes in the line-up in the next game. Earl Hill, of Eugene, played an errorless game on first and is very strong with the stick. Porter and Ray Lemly will be here this week and will strengthen the team materially. It was an ideal day

WEISER, Idaho June 16.—(Special.)— The Weiser and Nampa baseball clubs, of the Idaho State League, played here to-day. Weiser shut out Nampa by the score day. Weiser shut our Nampa by the score of 4 to 0. This makes seven straight victories won by the Weiser club in which their opponents have not made a single rum. Johnson, the boy wonder, struck out ten men and allowed but ten hits. He made a three-bagger, bringing in three of the four runs. The clubs of the Idaho State League are composed of amateurs, but several of them have ex-league play-The Nampa club, which played here today, has for the backstop Hudson, who pitched last year for the St. Louis League

The opening game of the season of th Lane County Amateur Baseball Leaguewas pulled off on the local grounds today between the Coburg and Springfield teams the score resulting 7 to 2 in favor of Springfield. The opposing team is com-posed of big, husky lads, and in the future will be known as the Giants, while the local boys will travel in the future under the name of the Springfield Blues. With the exception of the sixth inning the game was one of the best exhibitions of baseball ever played on the local diamond. Coleman, the star shortstop for Coburg, who usually wins great favor for his sensational plays, was badly out for his sensational plays, was badly out of form and threw the game away on errors in the sixth inning. Aside from the one inning both teams played excel-lent ball. Sid Smith, manager of the Blues, has some of the fastest ameteur Blues, has some of the fastest ameteur players in the state signed for the sea-son, and is confident of winning every game that he now has scheduled. The league consists of Springfield, Eugene and Coburg, but odd dates will be filled by Portland, Salem and other fast teams, giving Springfield an opportunity to wit-ness a good game nearly every Sunday on her own grounds. Manager Smith deher own grounds. Manager Smith deserves great credit for his success in the selection of his players and will have the financial support of several hundred fans, Score by Innings:

In such cases as come to me be-fore complications develop.

Contracted Disorders

Every case of con-tracted disorder I treat is thoroughly cured. My patients have no relapses. When I pronounce a case cured there is not a particle of infection or inflamma-tion remaining, and there is not the slightest danger that the disease will re-turn. No contracted disorder is so trivial as to warrant uncertreatment, and I especially solicit those cases that other doctors have been unable to cure.

Varicocele

I use neither knife, ligatures nor caustic in my treatment for Varicocele. I posi-tively cure this disorder in one week by an absolutely pain-less method and without detaining the patient from business.
