"Brains," said Dr. Jonas, "is what is required. The development of the service through the employment of men with good intellects as well as fixing a high standard of morals will do more to prevent wrecks than any other one thing.
I would go Dr. Osler one better, so far as concerns the railway service, and say that the minimum age at the time of employment should be 49 years."

General Superintendent Park presided at the meeting. The matter of preventing wrecks received a thorough airing.

SIMPLY HOBSON'S CHOICE

Government Compelled to Engage Foreign-Built Ships.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Despite its disinclination to do so, the Navy Department has been obliged to enter into a contract with a New York brokerage firm for the shipment of American coal from the Arlantic to the Pacific Coast in foreign bottoms. The amount of the shipments will aggregate between 15,000 and 25,000 tons each for the navy-yard at Mare Island

FORMER OREGON RAILROAD MAN IS POISONED.

J. R. Abbey, Once Superintendent of Oregon Pacific, Meets Strange Fate in California.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 17 .- (Spe cial) J. R. Abbey, formerly general su-perintendent of the Oregon Pacific Rail-road, died this morning at Puente, where he was employed as station agent. Last Thursday, while he was playing with a pot cat, the animal scratched him on the hand. Mr. Abbey did not pay any attention to the marks, which barely grazed the outer cuticle. In a short time his hand and arm began to swell and by Friday his condition had become serious, blood-poisoning having set in.

In 1895 Mr. Abbey resigned from the Oregon Pacific, after a wreck which resulted in the death of two passengers, at a point where Mr. Abbey had recommend-ed track repairs, which were not made on account of limited appropriations. Mr. Abbey leaves considerable prop-erty, and relatives are being searched for.
