All the schools of the city closed yesterday, in accordance with a recent decision of the School Board. The time previously set was June 28, but it was thought needless to keep the pupils at their desks for another week, nearly all the schools being caught up with the year's work. The coming of the Rose Flesta also carried weight with the board in making its decision, as it was thought the examinations would be practically over by June 29 if the schools closed on the first, thus giving the children a better opportunity to participate in the parade. The Fall term will commence September 16.

Friends and Relatives of Graduates Fill Uptown Theater to the Very Doors_Brief Programme Is Rendered.

The commencement exercises of the Portland High School were held last evening in the Heilig Theater in the presence of an audience that filled the house almost to the doors. The graduating class, numbering 118, was the largest ever sent out from the High School and was the 57th to leave that institution.

The brief programme was opened with a violin solo "Romanze." by Rubenstein, rendered by William Wallace Graham. Madam d'Auria's vocal solo "Villanelle," was warmly received. In his address to the class, John P. Kavanaugh reminded them of the task that lay before them in the choice of a vocation and to use the greatest care in making that choice. Mr. greatest care in making that choice. Mr Kavanaugh's remarks were received with applause.

William Wallace Graham's second violin solo, "Serenade" (Franz D'Ardia), won favor with the audience and was repeated. Herman Wittenberg, chairman of the Board of Education, presented the di-plomas to the class.

A second vocal solo, Tosti's "The Maids of Cadiz," sung by Madam d'Auria, oncluded the programme.

The entire stage was occupied by the members of the graduating class and those who took part in the programme. The flowers for the graduates were unususully beautiful and filled the or-chestra and front of the stage. The banner won by the Portland High School in the recent field meet hung above the stage. At the conclusion of the exercises an informal reception was held in the High School building by the graduates.
