

ROSE FESTIVAL IS INCORPORATED

Leading Citizens of Portland Will Make Fiesta an Annual Event.

STOCK COMPANY FORMED

Men Who Conducted Recent Carnival Will Have Part in Its Management—Programme for June, 1908, is Now Arranged.

Portland is to devote a week of each year in the future to a great carnival of roses. Working in co-operation with those who conducted the recent fiesta with such marked success, a number of prominent and public-spirited business men have taken the matter in hand, with the result that articles of incorporation were forwarded yesterday to Salem to be filed with the Secretary of State.

The articles provide for an annual carnival to be held in June of each year and designate in general way the nature of the programme. The incorporators are: H. L. Pittcock, E. W. Rowe, E. F. Cannon, J. F. Carroll, George L. Hutchin, J. E. McFarland, E. B. McFarland, W. Wynne Johnson, C. N. Black, C. A. Whitmore and E. N. Brannick.

Article I designates the name as the Portland Rose Festival Association, and provides that the duration of the organization shall be perpetual. The following purposes are announced:

- 1.—For the purpose of giving an annual rose show and festival in the City of Portland, Or.
- 2.—To give exhibitions of roses, to have floral parades, festivals and carnivals of all kinds.
- 3.—To hold races, athletic and aquatic sports, games and amusements, in connection with said rose show and festival.
- 4.—To advertise the resources of Oregon by attracting tourists from all parts of the United States.
- 5.—To solicit and receive contributions for the purpose of holding the annual rose show, exhibitions and games.
- 6.—To do any and all other things necessary or proper for the carrying out of and the accomplishment of the above specified.

Capital Stock is $10,000.

The principal place of business of the corporation shall be at Portland, in the State of Oregon. The capital stock of the corporation shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000), divided into one thousand (1000) shares of the par value of ten dollars ($10).

H. L. Pittcock, E. W. Rowe, E. F. Cannon, J. F. Carroll and George L. Hutchin, or any of them, are hereby appointed to open up week books, receive subscriptions to the capital stock and organize the corporation.

Officers of the new corporation will be named at a meeting to be announced later. It is regarded as likely that the active officers will be much the same as directed the energies of this year's fiesta. All exercised sound and good judgment throughout and are regarded as thoroughly desirable and more than competent to handle the affairs of the infant enterprise.

Public interest in the subject of these annual rose carnivals is widespread and active. The following letter to the Fiesta Executive Committee from the Hazelwood Cream Company, winner of a $100 cash prize, shows the spirit of the business interests—a spirit that might come to pervade all business circles to good advantage:

Dear Sirs—Permit me to thank you for the award of the $100 prize on the floral decoration of the Cream Store, with which you have honored us. But we feel that the award is itself a prize sufficient, and therefore beg of you as a favor to the Hazelwood Company that you allow us to return the money part of it to you in the form of a fund to make the Rose Carnival of Portland a permanent institution.

We realize that the Carnival was not only a tremendous success, but we believe that it will be the means of laying the foundation of lasting good for Portland and as also the entire State of Oregon.

Prize Money is Returned.

We fully recognize the great good possible from a repetition of this Carnival, and to show our earnestness we are permitted to return our share of the winnings to you for the purpose as above stated. We feel sure if this affair is made an annual one it will be the means of inspiring our people to plant more roses and thus make Portland the unchallenged queen rose city of the world.

HAZELWOOD CREAM COMPANY.

George L. Hutchin, who served as manager of the Fiesta just past, has outlined a tentative programme for next year's festival. This programme will be presented at the first meeting of the Carnival Corporation. The outline provides carnival features for six days, beginning June 2, 1908, and is as follows:

First day, Monday, June 2, 1908—Arrival of Rex, King of the Fiesta, conveyed by gaily decorated launches and all available craft of the Willamette. Screaming whistles announce the approach of the Royal Barge bearing the proud monarch and his courtiers. Cannon boom their welcome as the Mayor and city dignitaries tender the King and Court the keys of the city, typifying freedom and hospitality. Grand cavalcade to palatial quarters. Electrical illumination and night. Exposition of roses all week at Regency building.

June 3—Athletic sports and pastimes on Multnomah field, 10 A. M. Contest of firefighters; volunteer home companies contest for cash and medals. Club baseball game, 2 P. M. At night the Hoo Hoo water races. Beautiful aquatic pageant, brilliantly illuminated. The entire water front and closing with evolutions. Build's lake. Chinese and Japanese lantern effects. Grand ball at the Armory by prominent social organizations.

June 4—Thousands of human roosebuds escorting Queen Sibylla's coronal chariot. Waving garlands and performing graceful evolutions to the rhythm of bands, 10 A. M. Reunion of Pioneers. Conclave of fraternal societies and veterans. Automobile races, 2 P. M. Reception by every business house in Portland to guests of Rose City. At night, grand pageant by the Knights of Elks. Many brilliantly illuminated cars with thousands of vermillion lights show the gorgeous floats of mammoth size illustrating allegorical and mythological themes.

Fight Battle of Confeetti.

Grand levee by King and Queen at Multnomah field while their loyal subjects escort themselves en masse and enjoy a carnival of fun by the Merry Krew. International cakewalk on elevated pavilion. Battle of confetti. All for fun and fun for all.

June 5—Grand parade of the auto-cars in gorgeous floral decoration. In the afternoon aquatic sports and pastimes; boat racing, baseball, Club meet and golf; pageant by Hunt Club. At night, grand ball, given by Rex and Queen Sibylla to their loving subjects and faithful followers.

June 6—Floral pageant, floats, chariots, carriages and smart equipages drawn by gaily caparisoned horses, escorted by grand cavalcade. Battle of roses on Park Plaza as the volunteers of the Club meet and take part in the engagement. Review by King and Queen from grandstand. At night, grand illuminated parade. "The Spirit of the Golden West," dazzling in splendor, gorgeously equipped and transcendent in its ravishing beauty, a magnificent picture in a blaze of pyrotechnics.

June 7—King and Queen give farewell re-

ROSE SOCIETY'S ELECTION

E. B. McFarland Is Chosen President for the Coming Year.

The Portland Rose Society met last night at the Board of Trade rooms and elected officers for the following year: E. B. McFarland, called the meeting to order. E. B. McFarland, the retiring secretary, was chosen president by unanimous vote. Mrs. Benton Killin was elected first vice-president; Mrs. John Minto, second vice-president; Mrs. Herbert Holman, secretary; Mrs. Rose Hoyt, auditor; Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. George H. Lamberson, Mrs. W. Wynne Johnson, W. S. Sibson and F. V. Holman, members of executive committee.

It was suggested by Mr. Sibson that effort be made to secure membership from the personnel of the various clubs and organizations affiliating with the new Rose Festival Association. Plans were discussed for making the rose exhibit of next year a notable one. All suggestions will be considered by the executive committee at its meeting in October.

While the rose carnival was not formally discussed, it is known that the members of the society are active in support of the idea. An adjournment was taken subject to the call of the president.

QUITS CRIMINAL CAREER

Joe Bell, Once Top-Notcher in Burglary, Working in Portland.

After trying his luck at "second-story" burglaries for a good many years, and having succeeded in getting himself confined in three penitentiaries for terms aggregating 13 years, Joe Bell, aged 55, has turned up in Portland, and is making an honest living piling and splitting wood.

Bell was once a pretty well-known criminal, and had hardly entered a city now without being "spotted" by the detective. Then came a trip to police headquarters and an interview with the Joe Bell.

Chief. That is what happened to "Joe" yesterday. He was walking on the street when he was seen by Acting Detective Price, who took him down to see the "old man."

After a talk with Chief Getzmaier, Bell was released. He is to report twice a week at headquarters and give an account of himself. He was overjoyed when released, and promised to continue to earn an honest living. That is all that he wants now, he says.

"I've got all the prison life I care for," said Bell, alias Baldy, alias Shorty, to Chief Getzmaier, "and I promise you I'll be good if you'll let me go. I'll make my living honestly now, by carrying and splitting wood and working hard. No more crime for me, for I'm nearing the end of the journey, and I've found that it don't pay to be crooked. Joe Bell's an honest workman now."

Bell was virtually reared in crime. He "got off on the wrong foot" early in life and at the age of 14 years entered an English penitentiary for "second-story" burglary and served five years. When he got out, he came to this country and engaged in crime. He was "landed" twice for burglary, and served a term of five years in San Quentin and another of nine years in Folsom penitentiaries. He is a little, bald-headed old man now, and declares he has but one desire—to be honest and really to earn his living by hard work.

HEARD IN THE ROTUNDAS

"A STRANGE feature of most Western lakes is that they seem to be bottomless," said Al G. Florence, a traveling salesman, at the Oregon Hotel, last night. "This is especially noticeable in Washington state. If you ask a native living on the shores of Sulphur Lake, and various others, he will always say that there is no bottom to the lake.

"It was a good story of Sulphur Lake, which gives one an idea of how deep the lake really is. It is told of two new arrivals from New York state, who were noted swimmers and divers.

"One of them, 'Sulphur Lake,' they asked a native of the surrounding section.

"'It has no bottom,' was the reply.

"One of the new arrivals then asserted that he was going to dive and find the bottom, as he did not believe it extra deep.

"He dived from a boat and never came up. For two weeks a search was made for his remains, and his brother was heartbroken.

"At the end of two weeks he received the following telegram from his brother, who sent it from Sydney, Australia:

"'Bill, send my clothes at once by express. I have just come out at this point and have nothing but a bathing suit.'"

"If I had the making of any laws I would make it a $25,000 penalty for any person carrying a revolver," said E. A. Mouras, salesman for a big New York book concern, at the Portland Hotel, last night. "I was in New York state in a penitentiary, and it should be the same in every other state.

"One seldom picks up a newspaper that has not several accounts of shooting. I've frayed most of the guns being in the hands of 'boose-fighters or dope fiends.' If the penalty were made so heavy that carrying of guns could no longer be done with practical impunity, the murder record of the United States would be small.

"I have been all over the United States, and have been in some ticklish places, but I have never found it necessary even to consider carrying a gun."

FIGHT OVER ESTATE

Creditors of William M. Ayers File Petitions.

CLAIMS ARE CONFLICTING

Contest in Courts Appears to Hinge on Dispute as to Legality of Dead Bookmaker's Marriage.

Petitions are accumulating in the county court asking that an administrator be appointed as early as possible for the estate of William M. Ayers, who was killed by a streetcar in Seattle last Monday.

The estate is valued at about $100,000, though one petition places it at $40,000. Three petitions have been filed by creditors, two of them asking different administrators.

Henry T. Anderson filed the first petition, asking that he be appointed administrator because he had known Ayers since boyhood. He also avers that he has knowledge of the legal heirs of the estate and their whereabouts.

W. J. Van Schuyver & Company, Ashley & Rumelin and P. L. Willis presented a petition asking that C. E. Rumelin be appointed administrator. Later in the afternoon William Frazier filed a petition also asking Mr. Rumelin's appointment as administrator.

The amounts sought by the petitioners are: Ashley & Rumelin, $2227; P. L. Willis, $496; W. J. Van Schuyver & Company, $298; William Frazier, $240.

The haste used in presenting the petitions by the creditors indicates that complications in the settlement of the estate are about to arise, as the deceased died intestate and little is known of his relatives. No date has been set as yet for hearing.

The entire matter seems to hang on the relations that existed between Ayers and the woman who for many years he had held out to be his wife. Several of the creditors of the dead bookmaker assert that Ayers and his supposed wife were never legally married.

The funeral of Ayers was held from Holman's undertaking parlors at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Interment was at Riverside Cemetery. The pallbearers were Nat Solomon, Jack Coffman, Joseph Resing, Clum Senofski, Al Gilbert and Louis Zimmerman. A number of handsome floral pieces were placed on the coffin.

RECEIVER FOR RACE TRACK

Stockholders in Multnomah Fair Association Charge Fraud.

Action has begun in the Circuit Court asking that a receiver be appointed for the Multnomah Fair Association on the ground that the president, A. E. Diamond, has justly with the books of the corporation. Eight men accuse the association of fraud and have filed papers in the suit against President Diamond, Vice-President Sanford Hirsch and L. H. Adams, secretary and treasurer.

The plaintiffs are: E. W. Spencer, E. House, P. Sechtem, William Frazier, Ellis McLean, Theodore Kruse, John Clark and Harry Easton.

In the complaint it is asserted that while 1000 shares of stock were authorized, only 502 shares were subscribed. The rest were held in trust for the benefit of the organization, and it is alleged that Diamond, unknown except to the two other officers, subscribed for the stock.

It is alleged that Diamond altered the books in such a manner that he credited himself with paying for the stock with promissory notes. After trying for three months to obtain an inspection of the books, E. W. Spencer alleges that on having access to them he saw the trace of notes, vouchers and other papers of the corporation.

It is asked that Diamond be compelled to explain all his transactions in the company under oath. The receiver is asked to prevent the sale of the lands of the association for $50,000 and divide the funds among the stockholders.

WILSON BLAMES ROSE RUFF

Says Woman is at Bottom of His Matrimonial Woes.

Declaring that Rose M. Ruff is the cause of his domestic troubles, Emory Wilson has filed answer in the Circuit court to charges made by Mrs. Wilson, through which the latter seeks to secure title to a lot in North Irvington, held by the husband and wife.

He charges that Rose M. Ruff seeks to impoverish him, and that she is the instigator in the suit for his property. Wilson declares that she means to secure his money, take his children and leave the state, and that she is completely in the power of the Ruff woman.

Mrs. Wilson was granted a divorce from her husband last April after testifying that he had made false charges against her. She was then given the custody of their two children.

Wilson asks full ownership in the contested lot, asserting that it was bought with his own money.

Hillsdale Man Bankrupt.

Charles H. Lohkamp, of Hillsdale, Multnomah County, yesterday filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court. He sets forth liabilities of $274.72, and assets of $65.50.

Charged With Mail Robbery.

WHY NOT CURE IT?

DO YOU HAVE RHEUMATISM EVERY YEAR?

If You Do You Are Doctoring the Symptoms Only—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cure the Disease.

There are almost as many ways of treating rheumatism as there are doctors. Most of these treatments are directed at the symptoms and are considered successful if they relieve the pain and stiffness. But the blood has not been purified and the rheumatism is sure to return, especially after a season of exposure to cold and dampness. The patient goes through this experience year after year and begins to think that permanent relief is impossible.

The only way to treat rheumatism is through the blood. This is the method of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—they not only cleanse the blood of the impurities which cause the disease but build up and restore the broken-down system.

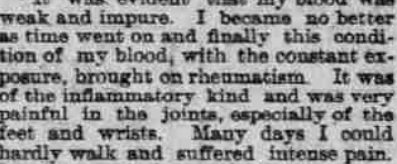

Mr. John Biley of Cazenovia, N. Y., says: "In my work as a blacksmith, I am exposed a great deal to change of temperature. Some time ago I noticed that my health was breaking down. The symptoms were general physical weakness, loss of appetite and nervousness.

"It was evident that my blood was weak and impure. I became no better as time went on and finally this condition of my blood, with the constant exposure, brought on rheumatism. It was of the inflammatory kind and was very painful in the joints, especially of the feet and wrists. Many days I could hardly walk and suffered intense pain. I took to my bed several times for a day or so and once for six weeks.

"A fellow blacksmith advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and as I had gained no help from other treatments I decided to give them a trial. Within a reasonable time I noticed that I was getting better and in a few weeks I was cured. That the cure is permanent is shown by my not having lost a day at my trade since then. I can truthfully say that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills put me on my feet again."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured anemia, after-effects of the grip and fever, general debility and sick headache, dizziness, nervous prostration, even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

A DEAR OLD LADY came 50 miles to ask us to give her more time on the life phase of her trial. We'll do it; and we hope she will win! Contest closes now July 2d. See page 6.

ROOSEVELT CLUB ELECTS

East Side Political Society Completes Permanent Organization.

Permanent organization of the Eleventh Ward Roosevelt Republican Club was effected last night at Oddfellows Hall, on Grand avenue and East First streets, by the adoption of a constitution and by-laws and the election of officers. The constitution declares that the object of the club is to secure the re-nomination and election of President Roosevelt and also election of members of both houses of Congress in harmony with his policies. All voters favorable to the re-election of President Roosevelt are eligible to membership. The constitution and by-laws were adopted after extended discussion. Following officers were elected: President, H. H. Newhall; vice-president, W. E. Dickinson; secretary-treasurer, H. E. Williamson.

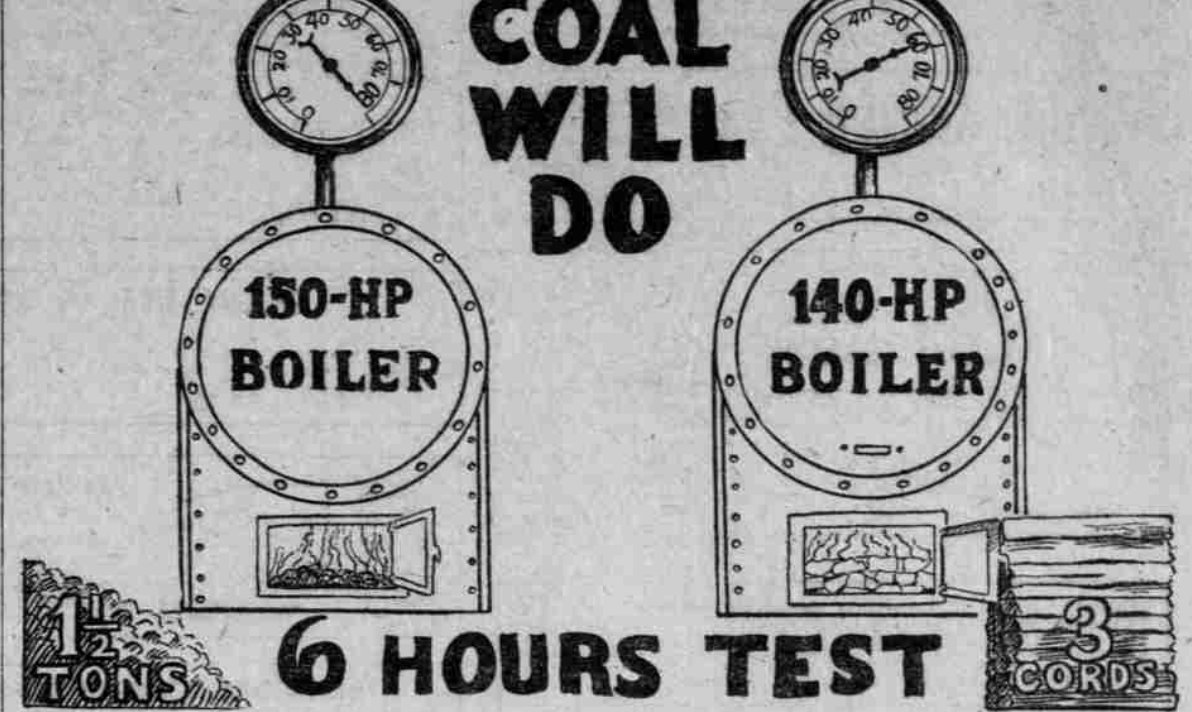

The following resolutions expressing the sentiment of the club were adopted: Whereas, Important National reforms have been inaugurated by President Roosevelt for the control of the railroads and public service corporations, for the proper regulation and restraint of the trusts and for the general well-being of this whole country; and Whereas, These sweeping reform measures for the regulation of these great interests and for the participation of public service are still pending and are only now under way, and requiring a firm hand to carry out; therefore, be it Resolved, That while the Republican party has many able and patriotic men capable of leading the party to victory, still we believe that the success of these reforms depends largely on the re-election of President Roosevelt, and believing that if there be a general demand for his re-nomination through the country, that he will accept.

Resolved, That this club goes on record as heartily favoring his re-nomination, and we invite the cooperation of other clubs in making the call to the President as sweeping and general as possible, and we will be constrained to accept the nomination.

WHAT CONSUMERS COAL WILL DO

THE above illustration vividly shows the results of an ACTUAL STEAM TEST made at the STAR BREWERY at Vancouver, Washington, last Wednesday. It disproves every accusation that has been made to the effect that this coal will not burn. IT WILL BURN! IT BURNS FAR BETTER THAN DRY FIR WOOD, TO SAY NOTHING ABOUT "GREEN FIR SLABS." ONE AND A HALF TONS OF COAL were used in this test as against THREE CORDS OF FIR WOOD. The coal was used in connection with a boiler producing ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY HORSEPOWER, while the wood was used with a ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY HORSEPOWER BOILER. The coal was burned in a WOOD GRATE, another tremendous disadvantage. Every minute, during a TEST LASTING SIX HOURS, the steam-gauge showed that the COAL PRODUCED AN AVERAGE OF FIFTEEN POUNDS MORE STEAM PRESSURE THAN THE WOOD, EVEN UNDER THE DISADVANTAGES. Many times during the test the difference IN FAVOR OF THE COAL was shown to be TWENTY POUNDS, as indicated by the gauges shown above.

Sacks of Coal We Gave Away Are Giving Excellent Results to Everybody

Within a few days we will begin the publication of letters from people who took advantage of our free offer of a sack of coal. They are beginning to come in, and we have not yet received a letter that does not commend the coal. Nearly everybody tells us that the coal is the best they have ever used since they came to Portland. We are also in receipt of scores of orders from these people to reserve for them a sufficient supply of this coal for their Winter use. Consumers Coal is one of the best investments on the market today, and will not be purchasable very much longer. Monday the directors will meet to decide whether to withdraw the stock altogether. This may be your last opportunity to take advantage of our free excursions. Get your tickets early. Number limited.
