

SHOW CONSPIRACY OF PINKERTONS

Defense Will Try to Prove Mineowners Wanted to Destroy Federation.

ORCHARD CHAMPION LIAR

Darrow to Prove He Was Not Connected With Certain Crimes Confessed, and That He Has a Mania for Being Bad Man.

BOISE, Idaho, June 30.—The alleged conspiracy of the Pinkerton National Detective Agency, under retainer from the Mineowners' Association and the Citizens' Alliance of Idaho, to destroy the Western Federation of Miners, will be taken up tomorrow morning, when the trial of William D. Haywood is resumed at 10 o'clock. The defense sets up this as the counter conspiracy of which Harry Orchard, it is charged, was simply an agent. The chief witness is one Morris Friedman, formerly a stenographer for the Pinkertons at the headquarters of the Western division in Denver. It is alleged that Friedman, as an agent of the Pinkertons and the Western Federation, secured the position in the Pinkerton employ for the purpose of spying on the Pinkertons. Some of the daily reports of the "operators," employed by the agency to join the Western Federation, attend meetings of the local unions and, if possible, secure their own admission to offices in these unions, Friedman has testified, were given to him to copy. He made a copy for himself, and now produces a number of them, which he says were marked for identification as evidence, but which have not been read in court. In fact, Clarence Darrow, a more positive light is thrown upon the position taken by the attorneys who are endeavoring to clear Haywood and the other officials of the Western Federation of Miners from the charge of conspiracy to murder. It is clearly indicated that it is proposed to show that a conspiracy to exterminate the Western Federation was organized by the highest officials of the Federation on the charge of murder.

Pinkertons Helped With Story.

It is charged that when Orchard was arrested on the charge of the murder of ex-Governor Steunenberg, he was induced by the Pinkertons to make a confession implicating Harry Orchard, Pettibone, Steve Adams, Jack Simpkins and a number of other officers and members of the Western Federation to such an extent that the charges could be secured against them in Idaho. In furtherance of the mineowners' conspiracy, it is charged that further incriminating evidence was manufactured by the Pinkertons, in support of Orchard's confession, so that Haywood, the secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation, Moyer, the president of the organization, and Pettibone, a former member of the executive board, might be convicted of a capital crime and executed, while many other officers and members of the Federation were placed in jeopardy of trial on a similar charge of conspiracy.

A review of the evidence introduced in the course of the last five days brings the inevitable conclusion that counsel for the defense will endeavor to prove to the satisfaction of the jury that the Pinkerton agency and the Mineowners' Association, with the knowledge and approval of the Governor of Idaho, the ex-Governor of Colorado, the Adjutant-General of Colorado and other influential people, conspired to secure the death by hanging of William D. Haywood, Charles H. Moyer and George A. Pettibone, and that incidentally the mineowners are indirectly responsible for the killing of 14 men in the Independence depot.

Orchard Lying About His Crimes.

The evidence so far introduced by the defense goes to prove that Orchard, knowing the blowing up of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan concentrator in 1899; of the explosion in the Victor mine; of the blowing up of the Independence depot; of the killing of Gregory and of the explosion at Bradley's residence in San Francisco, accused himself of having committed the crimes and the knowledge of the explosion at the Bunker Hill and Sullivan concentrator was blown up; that the facts connected with the explosion tend to the conclusion that the explosion was accidental; that while Orchard and Gregory were present when the Independence depot was destroyed, Steve Adams was in fact the man who was employed by the Mineowners' Association to blow up a piece of useless property, but that a blunder resulted in loss of life; that Lyle Gregory was murdered by persons connected with the United Mine Workers and not at the instance of the Western Federation; and that Orchard possessed a mania for boasting of the commission of great crimes, was lying when he said he had any connection with the bomb at Bradley's house.

Evidence has also been introduced to show that both Orchard and Simpkins had personal motives for killing former Governor Steunenberg, and that Simpkins' motive was the stronger of the two, in that he was subjected to unjust punishment and torture at the hands of Negro troops called in by Steunenberg in 1898.

Further evidence as to the explosion at the Bradley house is yet to come. Depositions from Mr. Bradley will be introduced. They were made recently in San Francisco. Bradley swears that the explosion was due to an accumulation of escaping gas and that the owner of the house secured a judgment for damages against the gas company before a jury, and further that an appeal to the Superior Court resulted in the confirmation of the finding of the jury in the lower court.

No Attempt to Shield Simpkins.

The defense has not attempted to deny the presence of Jack Simpkins in Caldwell in company with Orchard, shortly before the murder of Steunenberg, and the evidence as to the treatment of Simpkins by the authorities while he was in the bull pen indicated that the defense does not intend to clear Simpkins of participation in that crime as an accessory before the fact.

It has been repeatedly stated, as a matter of current report, that counsel for the defense know of the whereabouts of Simpkins, who has been a fugitive since Steunenberg's murder. It is now flatly stated as coming from outside sources

VAGRANTS TO BE PURGED FROM TOWN

Chicago Begins New Era of Good Order and Decent Behavior.

LAW STRICTLY ENFORCED

Mayor Busse and Police Department Undertake Herculean Task of Purifying What Stead Called Wickedest City in World.

CHICAGO, June 30.—(Special.)—Chicago enters upon a new era of decency at 12 o'clock tonight, when the new vagrancy law, the biggest stick ever wielded against the criminal element of the city, becomes effective. The police department will immediately begin the task of making "clean-up" of the vice-ridden districts of the city.

The rockpile looms up ahead for those who have prospered through the "white slave" traffic. The chain-gang stands ready to be recruited from the ranks of the "sure thing" gamblers and the pickpockets. Fine and imprisonment are the lot of the thousands of the Municipal Court Judges for administration to the petty thieves and the common loafers.

Farewell to the "great smashers" and the idlers along "the loop" thoroughfares, who have made it all but dangerous for women to make a tour of the shopping district unaccompanied by male escorts. This is another of the benefits which makes its advent with the official incarnation of the new law.

In the last analysis the new "vag" law is the sharpest and most business-like weapon which the Police Department has had in its hands for a quarter of a century in attaining its ends. The Police Department, with the backing of Mayor Busse and the city administration, realizes the scope of the power given by the new law and the shipper already has taken measures in directing rigid and absolute enforcement of its provisions.

Mayor Busse has declared there shall be no quarter for any of the thugs, dealers in girls and women and neighborhood "gangs" who fall within the purview of the new law as it is to be executed by the police. The scrub brush and a strong brand of deodorizer will be applied with all the vigor which the police department has in cleaning the sore spots of Chicago.

Organized crime in Chicago sent a powerful lobby to Springfield to offset the efforts of the Mayor and his allies. By strenuous effort the bill became a law. As strenuously and as vigorously as was the bill advocated before the general assembly will its terms be enforced now.

PREACHER ENGLIS KILLED

Jumps From Train Through Fear of Accident and Falls Under Wheels.

ASHLAND, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—While the second section of the Northbound passenger train No. 14 was passing over a switch at Clawson, a few miles south of here, at 8 o'clock tonight, the rear of the car left the rails. A passenger named Englis, feeling the car hitting the ties, jumped to the ground from a window. Scarcely had he reached the ground, however, before the car trucks swung around and the wheels badly mutilated his body, causing instant death. Mr. Englis had been preaching in the town before the car struck and was engaged in revival services in Ashland. His widow and family reside in Portland.

WORKMAN KILLED AT WILSONVILLE

OREGON CITY, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—A telephone message was received in this city from Wilsonville this evening depicting a man who had fallen off the bridge, now in construction at that place, and was instantly killed. It is said that the man was an employe of the bridge and that while working on the bridge he was struck by a moving car. The accident. What his name is cannot be learned at this time. Coroner Holman left on receipt of the message for the scene of the accident and will probably arrive with the body early in the morning.

AT THE HOTELS.

The Portland—C. P. McIntire and wife, P. Baum, New York; W. S. Martin, San Francisco; B. G. Kentner, a well-known plover, who died Friday morning, took place today, and was very largely attended. The deceased, who was 73 years of age and a veteran of the early Indian wars in this valley, was a prominent Oddfellow of the state.

Meets Death While On Duty.—ASHLAND, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—Ed Inglow, a young man about 23 years of age and a native of Ashland, met a frightful death in the railroad yards in this city at an early hour this morning. He was on the night force of car inspectors, and was working under a freight car on a siding without having his light displayed, when a switch-engine at work jumped into the car and the wheels crushed him in a terrible manner. He lived only a short time after the accident. A wife and two small children are left by him.

KELLY WILLING TO RETURN

Motorman of Wrecked Train Will Not Fight Extradition.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—Paul Kelly, the former New York motorman, who was arrested here last night, said tonight that he was willing to return to New York and would waive extradition.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Paul Kelly, who was arrested in San Francisco yesterday, was the motorman of the elevated express train which ran the rough hours one morning in September, 1905, was wrecked on the curve at Fifty-third street and Ninth avenue. The second and third cars plunged into the water and six persons were killed and many injured.
