PRESETTERY HOLDS SHORT SESSION.—
The Portland Presbytery held a short session yesterday afternoon in Hawthorne Park Presbyterian Church to make arrangements for the official installation of Rev. E. Nelson Allen as pastor of this church. Rev. J. W. Welch was elected moderator pro tem. Secretary C.
W. Hayes read the call of Mr. Allen, which was dated January, 1908. It was explained that the call was issued according to the forms of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which has since been PRESETTERY HOLDS SHORT SESSION .byterian Church, which has since been absorbed by the mother Presbyterian, and there had been no installation of pastors required. The call was piaced in the hands of Mr. Allen, which he accepted. Rev. A. J. Montgomery, R. R. Steele and Rev. Allen then as a committee reported the following installation programme; Rev. W. S. Holt, moderator; installation programmes are well as the second of the committee of the co sermon, Rev. William H. Foulkes; charge to the pastor, Rev. A. J. Montgomery; charge to congregation, Rev. B. E. S. Ely; installation prayer, Rev. W. R. Bishop. Presbytery then adjourned and the instal-lation services were held last night according to the programme arranged by

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BULLETIN .- A CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BULLETIN.—A very attractive publication is the July number of the Chamber of Commerce Builetin which has just been issued. The cover design is printed in three colors and forms a fitting design for the objects of the publication. Descriptions of Union and Harney Counties appear, as also a number of very interesting and instructive articles upon the Oriental countries—Japan, China and Manchuria. The leading article of the issue is "Japan's Imports," by T. Alba, Japanese Consular Agent in Portiand. This contribution shows much research and painstaking accuracy, espe-Portland. This contribution shows much research and painstaking accuracy, especially so far as the statistics quoted are concerned. "China's New Schools," by United States Consul Anderson, of Amoy; "Admission to Manchuria," by United States Consul General Sammons of New-chwang; and "Banking in China," by Special Agent Clark, are among the subjects ably treated in this issue. The regular statistics also appear revised to date. NEW REBEKAH LODGE.—Rose City Rebekah Lodge No. 170, I. O. O. F., has been instituted at Woodlawn, the work having been done by Mrs. Lizzie Himbercourt, of Acme Lodge, as special deputy. The staff from Acme Rebekah Lodge con-ferred the degrees on Il candidates, There were il charter members and il initiates, making a membership of 42 to start with. T. M. C. A. BOY A TRAMP.—One of the "wisest" youngsters ever brought to police headquarters is Richard Lloyd, 15 years of age, hailing from Des Moines, Ia. He was found on the street by Policeman Thorpe late yesterday afternoon and taken to the station because he has no home here and no relatives. The lad "beat" his way to Portland alone. His parents are dead, he says. Boyd is so bright and intelligent, and so attractive and interesting that he made friends at once with every one at headquarters, and as he is a neat, tidy boy, willing to work and wishing to study, the police will see that he gets a good job. The Y. M. C. A. officials have also taken to him, as he was a member of that organization in Iowa.

WORKMEN BURY NATIVE SON.—The

LECTURES ON SATAN'S OVERTHROW.—

LECTURES ON SATAN'S OVERTHROW.—
Rev. C. T. Russell, of Allegheny, Pa., delivered a lecture last evening in the First Christian Church on "The Overthrow of Satan's Empire." Mr. Russell declared that Satan's Empire shall be overthrown when man is redeemed from the errors of human judgment and has a clearer perception of God and his purposes. The speaker illustrated this argument with many extracts from the scriptures. A large audience heard the lecture,

FIGHT AGAIN THREATENED

Chicago Commission Men May Again

CHICAGO, July 9.-Flat and unanicommission men in Chicago yesterday tore wide open again the breach between the packers and the representa-tives of the cattle raisers here.

At a meeting held at the Saddle and Sirioin Club, with the largest attendance of recent years, the members of the Livestock Exchange tore the of the Livestock Exchange tore the report of the arbitration committe to tatters and adopted an ultimatum which will be presented to the packers today. The terms of the ultimatum, the text of which was kept secret by order of Joseph Adams, who presided at the meeting, are in direct opposition to the tentative agreement reached Friday by the heads of the big packing houses and representatives of the Livestock Exchanges of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha.

Livestock Exchanges of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaba.

The position of the commission men, as indicated by their action yesterday, is that the big packing houses shall not handle any of the tagged heifers and cows which are subject to post morrem examination. This class of cattle, if the commission men win their point, will go to the independent concerns.

roil or from causing one to be made for the purpose of extending the tax there, on. Continuing, the complaint asserts the cost of making the copy of the roll would be not less than $500, and the work is unnecessary as the law filed in the office of the Secretary of State on February 25, last, provides that the taxes shall be extended upon the original roll. District Attorney Hedges, representing the county, filed a demurrer to the complaint and Judge McBride will be requested to render a pro forma decision pisint and Judge McBride will be requested to render a pro forma decision in the case so that an appeal can be taken to the Supreme Court immediately. The suit is a friendly one, brought at the request of the County Court for the purpose of testing the legality of the new tax law, and especially to ascertain when the law, if valid, becomes effective, in order that there may be no danger of the 1907 tax roll being invalidated.

Cans His Own Cherry Crop.

MMINNVILLE, Or., July 2.—(Special.)
—M. E. Hendrick, of this place, will finish canning about five tons of Royal Ann cherries at his farm on the river this week. No commercial cannery being within reach, Mr. Hendrick erected a private canning establishment, and will closely follow his cherry crop with blackberries and peaches in season. The increased acreage of small fruits adjacent to M'Minnville will intensify the problem of taking care of the product.

Persons suffering from sick headache, dizziness, nauses, constipation, pain in the side, are saked to try one vial of Carter's Little Liver Pills.
