OREGON STUDENTS AT NOTRE DAME.—Six Oregon students who had been attending Notre Dame University, in Indiana, have returned to their homes to spend their vacations. They are Coe A. McKenna, Joseph N. Sinnott, John Brogan, Ignatius McNamee, Forest Smithson and Samuel Dolan. Their work reflected credit on Oregon. McKenna, of Portland, won renown as an artist and his work is pronounced most promising. Mr. McKenna is a member of the class of 1910 in the department of history and economy. McNamee, of Portland, is a member of the board of editors of the Scholastic, the college weekly. He is a member of the class of 1909. Simpson, of Portland, will graduate in 1909. He stands high in all his classes, and also is an athlete of promise. Brogan, of The Dalles, will graduate next year in law. Dolan, of Albany, is president of the class of 1910.

UNIVERSALISTS HAVE OUTING.—No happier party has enjoyed an outing this Summer than the company of Universalists who under the auspices of the Sunday school, spent Wednesday in the grove on the Lewis and Clark Fair Grounds. The first arrivals came from the church of the Good Tidings on East Eighth street at 10 o'clock. The day was suited for outdoor sports and the holiday makers soon acquired ravenous appetites. At noon it was a large and happy family that gathered around the dinner table. All voted it the best outing the Sunday school has enjoyed. The officers of the school are: Superintendent, Mrs. B. H. Miller, assistant, Miss L. Averill; secretary, Frank Davis; treasurer, Miss Crosby.

CAUGHT BY ELEVATOR.—Homer Earl, 16 years of age, was painfully, but not dangerously, injured in an accident in the freight elevator of the Sherlock building at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His wounds were dressed at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Earl was working for the Moyer Clothing Company. He had been warned, it is said, against the danger of playing with the elevator, and had also been told to keep out of it. He was caught by the moving platform on the fourth floor of the building. The boy lives with his parents at First and Mill streets.

ACCIDENT CREATES FOUNTAIN.—A fountain sprang into being yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Hancock street and the Sunderland road through the blowing out of the corporation tap, being made for connection of mains that will extend to Rossmere and Rose City Park. The pressure on the big main at this point is very heavy and a stream of water was thrown 50 feet into the air. The break was soon repaired.

PROMINENT CAPITALIST WEDS.—John H. Yeon, a well-known logger and capitalist, was married yesterday morning to Mrs. Elizabeth Welch, a daughter of John Mock, a pioneer, at the home of the bride's father, University Park. Archbishop Christie performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Yeon left yesterday afternoon for Seattle, and make the voyage to Alaska for their wedding tour.

CHAUTAUQUA SERVICE.—Direct to Gladstone Park, fare 25 cents round trip. Tickets must be purchased, on sale in Waiting-rooms, First and Alder streets and East Water street and Hawthorne avenue. Take Oregon City cars, leave Alder street, between First and Second streets, 7:35 A. M. and every 35 minutes to and including 9 P. M.

ALVIN S. HAWK, the printer, has secured ground-floor quarters in the new building at Second and Alder streets, where he is installing a modern printing plant, and will carry stationery and office supplies as soon as stock can be put in. Now ready to care for all printing orders at the new location, 144 Second street, corner Alder.

SPECIAL RATE TO CHAUTAUQUA.—Twenty-five cents round trip, take Oregon City cars, direct to Gladstone Park, every 35 minutes from 7:35 A. M., leave Alder street, between First and Second streets. Tickets must be purchased, on sale in waiting-rooms, First and Alder streets and East Water street and Hawthorne avenue.

FUNERAL OF MRS. C. E. LARFIELD.—The funeral of Mrs. C. E. Larfield, was held yesterday afternoon from the family home in Woodstock. Interment was in Riverview Cemetery. Many of the friends of the family were present. Mrs. Larfield died July 9. She was 49 years old.

PARK BOARD MEETS TODAY.—A regular session of the Park Board will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the City Hall. It will discuss among other things park music, and will make arrangements for a playground for children of Brooklyn.

REPAIR UNION-AVENUE BRIDGE.—The Union-avenue bridge across Sullivan's Gulch is being redecked. It is to be made safe for at least one year, when it will be replaced with a steel structure.

WELLS-BARTMESS.—Perleo Wells and Miss Maud May Bartmess were married at the parsonage of the Centenary Methodist Church, July 9, by Rev. William H. Heppe.

FREIGHT AND BAGGAGE DIRECT.—To Chautauqua, freight car leaves O. W. P. depot, East Water street and Hawthorne avenue, daily, except Sunday, at 10 A. M.

MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS COMPLETED.—The annual medical examinations, held by the State Board of Medical Examiners at the Oregon Dental College, were completed yesterday. It is not known at present how many of the applicants passed, as the papers have not yet been passed on. Of the 35 young men and women who entered the "exams," two dropped out during the tests. The State Board is determined to make a bitter fight against the irregular and unlawful practitioners, and to prosecute every licensed physician who breaks the law. In the past two weeks, two successful prosecutions have been carried out by the Board, and two more cases are now on the court dockets. G. E. French, who traveled with Fer-Don, and who possessed a certificate as a regular practicioner, was sought out by the Board, and his certificate revoked on the grounds of unprofessional and irregular conduct. Dr. S. T. Moore, an osteopath of La Grande, has been appointed one of the Board. Hereafter all osteopaths will be examined by the State Board.

CITY OWNS PROPERTY.—A letter was received by the City Auditor yesterday from City Attorney John P. Kavanaugh in which he states that in spite of the fact that the ground at the foot of Stark street is occupied by private interests it is the property of the city, and that if it chooses it may build and maintain a public dock there. In 1852 the City Attorney states the street was surveyed, and in 1867 a ferry was established and operated by the city. The request for the opinion of the City Attorney on this subject was made by the ways and means committee at a recent session, and it is probable that the city will construct a dock for public use on this property now that the question of ownership has been settled.

NEW VARIETY OF CHERRIES.—An exhibit of the Giant cherry, a new variety originated by Julius Kallich, a nurseryman of Woodlawn, is now displayed in the window of a Washington-street candy store. These cherries are very large, most of them measuring 3¾ inches in circumference. There is only one tree of the variety now bearing. The Giant cherry is a cross between the Bing and the Lambert, and has all the good qualities of both. It is good for canning, and can be kept for a week after picking. It has a good flavor, and is considered one of the best varieties of cherry.

MAY PIERCE IN TROUBLE AGAIN.—May Pierce, 18 years of age, was placed under arrest last night by Probation Officer Hawley, of the Juvenile Court, and was lodged in the City Jail on a vagrancy charge because she was found on the street in the company of five sailors from the cruiser Charleston, now in the harbor. She is the young woman who fled from Santa Rosa, Cal., a year ago, after her lover had murdered her father. She was held here at the time by Officer Hawley, and was lodged in the Home of the Good Shepherd, but was recently released.

KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO.—J. Mair, 60 years of age, living at 231 Tenth street, sustained a sprained ankle late Wednesday afternoon when he was knocked down by an automobile driven by Dr. Herbert W. Hegele. Mair walked across Park street, near Morrison, where the accident occurred, but suddenly whirled and walked into the machine, evidently failing to note its approach. Dr. Hegele took the victim home after he had been patched up at Barber's pharmacy, and has since been treating the patient.

SLOT MACHINE CONFISCATED.—Sheriff Stevens sent Deputy Sheriffs Jones and Kelly to St. Johns yesterday to make an investigation of the reports he has received that slot machines were again in use in the saloons there. All the saloon men of St. Johns were notified that not only must they desist from running the machines, but that the devices must not be kept on the premises. All machines found in the saloons after this will be confiscated. The deputies found only one machine, and it was carted away.

CATHOLIC TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—An institute for the Catholic teachers of the state will be conducted at the City Hall from July 22 to 29. Professor Haaren, L. L. D., superintendent of the first and ninth school districts of the Burrough of Manhatten in New York City, will lead out in pedagogical work. Professor Haaren has 25 schools under his charge, with about 40,000 children. Seven teaching orders of sisters will be represented at the institute, which will be open to all teachers, Catholic or other.

PROTECTS PEDESTRIANS' HEADS.—Fire Chief Campbell is planning to make a canvass of the city with the object of ascertaining how many people are using the fire escapes on which to stand flower pots, thereby endangering the lives of pedestrians. He will see that all obstructions on fire escapes are cleared away. He will also urge that property-owners paint the escapes as a protection against rust.

PURE FOOD LABORATORY.—The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from Senator Bourne under date of July 5, in which he says that the work of equipping the laboratory for the inspection of food products will be undertaken as soon as possible. Rooms in the Worcester block were recently selected as quarters for this laboratory.

DIAMOND RING STOLEN.—W. E. Farley was arrested yesterday by police detectives on a charge of stealing a ring valued at $500 from a washstand in a local lodging-house. The complaint was signed by S. J. Fore, who swears that the ring was stolen while he was washing his hands. He says he left the ring in his room and that it was taken while he was out.

SALOONS PAYING LICENSE FEES.—License fees amounting to $87,600 have been paid in by saloons in the present quarter. The income from grocery stores, restaurants and druggists amounts to $2875. Portland now has 428 saloons, and two have lost their licenses on account of non-payment of fees. These are J. P. Bird, 514 Savier street and O. B. Schuss, 94 Sixth street.

FORTY-ONE WOULD-BE POLICEMEN.—Secretary McPherson of the Civil Service Commission, and Drs. Fred J. Zeigler and J. L. Wooden, examined 41 applicants yesterday for positions on the city's police force. This is an exceptionally large class, and from it 18 vacancies in the force of patrolmen will be filled immediately.

FATHER O'HARA RETURNS.—Father E. V. O'Hara, of the Cathedral, has returned from a trip to his home in Minnesota, and to the East. He was present at the laying of the corner stone of the Cathedral in St. Paul, and before his return visited Notre Dame, Ind., New York, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

HURT IN RUNAWAY.—Henry Beardon, 60 years of age, was thrown from his buggy at Nineteenth and Division streets yesterday afternoon and was severely injured. The horse became frightened and ran away. Beardon was removed to the Good Samaritan Hospital.

WOUND PROBABLY FATAL.—Ralph Carsner, a resident of Kalama, Wash., shot himself through the lungs with a rifle by accident Wednesday afternoon, and is now at St. Vincent's Hospital in a critical condition. It is thought he cannot live. He is 19 years of age.

THERE are a few big things in dramatic literature which year by year grow richer and more potent to shape the trend toward the higher and better part of life. They have survived the probationary period of examination and criticism and are accepted as the treasured gifts of the immortals.

One of these is "Ingomar," beautiful romance of early world barbarism bowing its arrogance before the sweet refinement of a civilized maiden's virtue and beauty. The old play has been performed wherever dramatic art is known. It has long been a favorite with ambitious actors and has come to be recognized as a test of the player's quality.

Last night it was beautifully performed at the Marquam by Nance O'Neil and her company and the audience in no uncertain manner declared its appreciation.

It is almost a startling transition for any star to change over night from a Sardou queen of tragedy to the gentle daughter of the old Greek armorer. It serves as few instances might to prove Miss O'Neil's versatility. Her Parthenia is all that is delicate, womanly and appealing. She is by turns the suppliant lover suing her rough lord for the smile which women give their souls to win, and the next holding the savage to his better instincts by the force of her girlish purity. Miss O'Neil's characterization has light and shade, delicacy and power in an unusual degree, and I should call her Parthenia one of her most interesting and convincing roles.

Last night's performance partook of the nature of a joint starring venture for Franklyn Underwood as Ingomar shared equally the honors of the evening. It was a revelation of his ability which amounted to almost a sensational surprise. Few leading men who visit Portland during the course of a season are tendered such spontaneous applause for their work. A number of outbursts of enthusiasm stopped him in the midst of his lines and delayed the action of the play materially. It may be safely said that Mr. Underwood by his performance last night established himself as an unmistakable favorite.

In so far as they had opportunity the remaining members of the cast did themselves credit. The production is a handsome one and in the main historically correct.

"Ingomar" will be repeated during the remainder of the week, with a Saturday matinee.

ATTACKS DR. J. H. COLEMAN

Ward's Lawyer Says He Has Mismanaged Estate.

TROY, N. Y., July 11.—The hearing in the complaint urging objections to the accounting of Rev. Dr. John H. Coleman, of Salem, Or., as testamentary guardian of Myra W. Loomis, formerly Myra W. Hughes, a minor, again came before the Surrogate, Tuesday of this week and was again adjourned until July 25. The case involves a legacy of $72,000 left in trust to Myra W. Hughes by her foster mother, the late Lucy W. Hughes, who had adopted Miss Loomis.

Thomas S. Fagan filed the objections for Mrs. Loomis which assert that the estate has not been properly handled, that it has been depleted by "unreasonable charges" in connection with the administering of its affairs and otherwise decreased by "unwise investments." The objector says that, although the estate was in cash, but three and one-half per cent. has been realized on its investment. On account of this low rate of interest, it is claimed the estate was insufficient for the maintenance of the ward, thus causing a depletion of the principal.

In objecting to additional compensation for the trustee, the objector alleges that Dr. Coleman has been able to conduct Willamette University without allowing that work to interfere with his duties as trustee. Among the objections filed are: "That the principal fund in the hands of the guardian according to his account filed April 22, last, is $83,057.39, which is subject to expenses and other fees of this accounting, is incorrect, and it is alleged that a much larger sum should have been in Dr. Coleman's hands at the April accounting. It is alleged that the original fund has been depleted more than $8000, and that more than $1100 charged as commissions and charges for attorney in the years 1902, 1903, 1904 and 1905 are improper. That a sum of nearly $800 car fare and other traveling expenses in trips from Oregon are improper and belong to Dr. Coleman personally and are not necessary to the proper administration of the estate. Also that other commissions amounting to approximately $900 have been illegally retained."

SALEM, Or., July 11.—President Coleman, of the Willamette University, when apprised of the nature and contents of the dispatch from New York concerning the manner of conducting the estate of his ward, Mrs. Loomis, intimated that the controversy is directly due to the influence of some lawyer, and inasmuch as the management of the estate has been thus far conducted in harmony with the law and the advice of eminent counsel, he had no feelings of apprehension or anxiety as to the ultimate outcome or that the charges will be substantiated in the slightest degree.

Dr. Coleman has a complete itemized account of his management of the estate, every item of which, he says, can be completely verified and which he has rendered to the proper authorities.

Herrin Visits Near Ashland.

ASHLAND, Or., July 11.—William F. Herrin, the $70,000-a-year chief counsel for the Southern Pacific Company, passed through Ashland, having come over the Siskiyous from his Summer home in the Sacramento Canyon, with his wife, two daughters and son, to call on his father, John S. Herrin, one of the pioneers of this county, a stockman, who resides a few miles north of this city. Attorney Herrin grew to manhood in Jackson County.
