NO GENERAL MANAGER FOR CORVALLIS & EASTERN.

Successor Will Not Be Named for Guy W. Talbot, Who Resigned. Nevins in Control.

With the resignation of Guy W. Talbot as general manager of the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad Company, which was accepted Thursday, the positions of general manager and assistant to the general manager of that system have been abolished. This announcement was made yesterday in circulars issued by J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the Harriman interests here and president of the Corvallis & Eastern. This move closely following the nurchase of the Corvallis & following the purchase of the Corvallis & Eastern by the Harriman Interests is for the purpose of bringing the management of the line more closely under the Port-and the abolition of Mr. Talbot's office and Mr. Nevin's appointment as general superintendent is practically equivalent to Mr. Nevin's appointment as general manager. Mr. Nevins will have charge of the Albany offices, where he has been stationed for several months. Another step in harmonizing the Cor-vaills & Eastern with the remainder of the Harriman system in Oregon is the appointment of J. W. Newkirk as treas-urer of that road. Mr. Newkirk is connected with the First National Bank of Portland, which is the depository of the Harriman lines in this territory. The position of treasurer was also held by Mr. Talbot, who severed his connection with the Corvallis & Eastern to become vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Electric Railway, the new Salem line.
