SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—(Special.)—Oscar Jones had another good day on the slab, so the best the Beavers got was four hits and not a chance for a run. Jones did not seem to be there with a thing save the historical glove, yet he had every one of the visitors on his staff and, try as they would, they could not get a man further than second base. Groom was also in grand form, but was unfortunate enough to allow the Seals to bunch three of their hits in the fifth and seventh innings, netting two runs and breaking up the game for keeps. TWO TRI-CITY LEAGUE GAMES

Frakes and Apostles and Trunks and Brews to Cross Bats.

Two Tri-City League games are on the board for tomorrow and undoubtedly will be liberally patronized by the Portland fans. The North Pacific Brewing Company's team will meet the Portland Trunk Company nine at the Vaughn street grounds, while at St. Johns those star aggregations, Hal Pomeroy's Frakes team and Charlie Moore's Apostles, will cross bats in a contest that will prove doubly interesting for the reason that the leadership in the league depends on the outcome of this game.

All four clubs have been strengthened and both contests promise to be hard struggles. For the St. Johns game the Frakes are reinforced by the return of Joe Fay to the position of shortstop, and the acquisition of Harvey Newell at second base. St. Johns has secured Kirby Drennen, the former Portland center fielder, who will play one of the outer gardens, and also Chaplin, who is a catcher and outfielder.

The backers of both St. Johns and Frakes teams are wagering their coin liberally on the outcome of this game.

Seattle 2, Vancouver 3. SEATTLE, Wash., July 12.—(Special.)—Allen's wide and wild pitch to catch Hurley and a wild pitch a moment later tossed off today's game to Vancouver. The cellar champions cannot beat any other team in the league, but they have taken two of the four games this week and have built up all the reputation they have off Seattle. Dunn kept the hits well scattered and Seattle's uphill fight for the game ended one run short. In the first inning Hurley beat on a bunt and Allen threw the ball to the right field fence to catch him. A moment later Martineke had two strikes, when Allen threw so wide that Stanley could not have stopped the ball with a net. Martineke swung at it and walked down to first. A moment later both men were chased over by hits by Hall and Scofield. Bull Croll scored Vancouver's third run that clinched the game on a double and out and Ross scored. Score: R.H.E. Seattle 2 10 1; Vancouver 3 7 3. Batteries—Allen and Stanley; Dunne and Renicker. Umpire—Howitt.

Tacoma 1, Butte 2. TACOMA, Wash., July 12.—(Special.)—In a game most devoid of feature played on either side, the Bandits today defeated the Tigers, the contest lasting ten innings. While few errors were charged to either team, those made by Tacoma came at times when they proved most costly. The entire contest lacked spirit, and at all times the Tigers were outplayed by the visitors. For the Tigers Lynch played first sack, left vacant by the release of Rodgers, and made a fair showing. Several times the Tigers got men to base and it appeared that there was a chance to get a man across, but the hope was dashed. Score: R.H.E. Tacoma 1 10 0; Butte 2 8 3. Batteries—Doyle and Shea; Van Zandt and Wilkins.

Aberdeen 4, Spokane 3. ABERDEEN, Wash., July 12.—(Special.)—Spokane lost to Aberdeen again today. Quinn, whom Quinn got from Butte, pitching. It was another 10-inning contest and it was not Aberdeen's game until the last inning. The score was 4 to 3, and the winning run was forced in when Killilly hit Mahon with a pitched ball. Higginbotham was in the box for Aberdeen, but was touched up for ten safe hits. Killilly did not get a strike-out, but was not reached by many long hits. Killilly pitched a good game, but luck was entirely against him. President Jones is here investigating the case of Carney, the outfielder who assaulted Umpire Klopff. Score: R.H.E. Aberdeen 4 7 1; Spokane 3 10 0. Batteries—Higginbotham and Spencer; Killilly and Swindells.

BONES AND SPIRIT BROKEN

Praises Man He Robbed and His Captor—Attributes Crime to Insane Impulse—His Long Wanderings Are Traced.

DENVER, Colo., July 12.—(Special.)—Broken in spirit and suffering intensely from the injuries he sustained in his daring leap from a train yesterday, John F. Thompson in jail recounted his adventures from the time he left Portland with the stolen plunder from the safe of William Winter until his arrest in Liverpool, England. His beadlelike gray eyes frequently filled with tears and his voice choked with sobs as he related the narrative. Evidently uppermost in his mind was the desire to reach Portland and stand trial.

"I don't like all this notoriety," said Thompson. "I am not a confirmed criminal, as the newspapers would have people believe. I stole once, and only once, and with the help and grace of God I'll never do the like again. I don't know what made me do it. It must have been an insane impulse. I was doing well then and had scores of friends. It seemed like every one was my friend."

"A finer man than 'Billy' Winter, with the exception of Mr. Day, does not live. He paid me well, trusted me implicitly and I did him dirt. I am willing to suffer the consequences and they can't come too soon to suit me now. I had no intention of stealing the money and diamonds when I went to the train to see Winter off. It was not until I returned to the saloon, opened the safe and examined its contents that I made up my mind to skip with the plunder. I stayed in hiding in Portland for several weeks after taking the stuff, then I went to a little suburb, where I boarded a train for Salt Lake."

Thompson then went to Texas, Oklahoma, Canada, New York, Liverpool, Edinburgh and back to Liverpool, where he sent a postcard to a hotel in this city, ordering mail to be sent to his captor in Chicago. Mr. Day left with his prisoner securely shackled for Portland today.

HOQUIAM PUTS ON THE LID

CLOSED TOMORROW FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY.

Crowd Attends Council Meeting and Is Disappointed Deafness of No Sensation.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 12.—(Special.)—Saturday at midday the lid was put on in this city and Hoquiam will be a closed town for the first time in its history, all business unless specified by law being closed.

Since the news was given to this city from the outside dailies there has been much conjecture as to whether the City Attorney would carry out his plan, and tonight there is hardly a person in the city who doubts his sincerity.

At a meeting of the City Council tonight the matter was not brought up, as anticipated, and when this body adjourned the large roomful of spectators wondered what was coming next.
