ELECTRICIAN SHOCKED.-L. H. Gray, an electrician, in the employ of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, received a severe shock of 500 volts of electricity, while at work last night, and for a while was rendered unconscious. When he regained his senses, he found that he was unable to see, and he was in total darkness. After a few minutes, however, he was able to make out a few objects, but everything appeared yellow. He was taken to the office of Dr. Hicks C. Pantton, who found that with proper treatment Gray would recover. A heavy shock of electricity often effects persons in this manner, and the yellow vision is attributed to the intense heat generated by the shock. Gray was taken to his home and is resting easy.

Horseman, eight years ago. She was a devoted wife and followed her vocation as teacher of elocution in Portland. She was married June 21, 1882, to Bryant Anton Olson. She was a faithful worker in the First Congregational Church, and also an esteemed member of the Rebekah Lodge.

Minnie Baird is the woman alleged to have been worked overtime. No ball was fixed yesterday, but the sum will be set this morning. The accused were not locked up, however. Baird's room floor was first of an unknown origin burned the roof of the cottage at 466 East Alder street at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The house is occupied by Mrs. Katherine Camaris, who is at the beach, and no one was at home when the fire broke out. The Fire Department responded to a call and extinguished the flames. Two boxes of clothing turned in, by mistake, making considerable confusion.

CITY LEFT IN LURCH.-Claiming that it merely loaned the electric light globes and wiring to the city for the lighting of the Plaza blocks, the Portland General Electric Company has removed them. SAYS HE WAS HIT BY DR. A. C. PANTON

Dr. Kelly, Partner of "Great Fer-Don," Complains to Police.

LIVELY ROW IN OFFICE

Former Associate of Traveling Quack Asserts That He Was Assaulted Without Provocation - His Story Is Flatly Denied.

Dr. A. C. Pantton, formerly president of the Oregon State Board of Medical Examiners and chief surgeon for the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, was placed under arrest in his office in the Mackay building at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Sergeant of Police Robson. He was booked at headquarters on a charge of assault and battery on a woman.

WHERE TO DINE. All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant; fine private apartments for parties. 500 Wash., near 6th.

Dr. Pantton Tells Story.

"Dr. Kelly came to my office and said he wanted to know about his case," said Dr. Pantton. "As the members of the Medical Examining Board have nothing to do with prosecutions in such cases, I told him I knew nothing about his case. He seemed to feel a grievance against me, and began to abuse me, and asked me questions which caused me to remark that, although having nothing to do with prosecutions, I was averse to all 'quacks' and that I believed any physician should know what kind of a man any so-called physician is who advertised, as the 'Great Fer-Don' did."

"Dr. Kelly thereupon said that if he had me on the street, he would 'fix' me. His attitude was very menacing and his language very insulting. I told him he need not wait to see me on the street and, thinking he meant violence then and there, I slapped him. He fell against the corner of the safe and cut his scalp. The safe door swung shut and his fingers were caught in it and jammed. Those were his only injuries. At no time was he locked up and held against his will, as he alleges he was."

Fred Wise, Dr. Pantton's assistant, who was present during the trouble in the office, corroborates the statement of Dr. Pantton in every respect.

Dr. Kelly declares that he was attacked without provocation or warning and that his life was threatened the moment he introduced himself to Dr. Pantton.

Accompanied by his wife, Dr. Kelly, who says he is a victim of tuberculosis, called upon Frank D. Hennesey, clerk of the Municipal Court, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and, stating his side of the case, demanded a warrant for his assailant's arrest. It was issued and placed in the hands of the police for service. Dr. Pantton gave a check for $100 and was released pending the Monday session of court.

Dr. Kelly's Statement. Dr. Kelly, whose statements were corroborated by his wife, said that he went to Dr. Pantton's office to ask how his own case stood with the medical board. Through his association with the "Great Fer-Don," Dr. Kelly's license stood in danger of revocation and he wished to know about it. He said he was with the "quack" but 30 days, and quit him as soon as he learned he was a "faker."

Arriving at Dr. Pantton's office, Dr. Kelly said he introduced himself to Dr. Pantton at the latter's private office door. Dr. Pantton, according to Kelly and his wife, slammed the door shut and locked it, exclaiming at the same time that he "had a notion to murder" Dr. Kelly. "If I had a rope I would hang you to the ceiling," Dr. Kelly quotes Dr. Pantton as saying. "You are not fit to live. I've a notion to kill you right here," and other words and threats of a similar nature, which are incorporated in the complaint filed by Dr. Kelly.

"Dr. Pantton locked both doors to his private room and refused to let me out," said Dr. Kelly. "An assistant to Dr. Pantton was in the room, but took no part. The moment I entered and told Dr. Pantton my name he locked the door and then whirled and struck me a terrific blow on the head and continued to beat me, so that the blood ran all over me. He acted as though he would murder me."

Mrs. Kelly declared that she tried to break in through the doors to the private room and assist her husband, but could not get in. She said she tried to call the police, but could find none. Dr. Kelly declares he will file a damage suit in addition to the assault and battery charge.

It is the intention of the church to hold a formal reception in the near future.
