Lowess Albina Fill Completed.—The big fill in Lower Albina across Montgom-ery Slough has been completed, it remain-ing only to level the surface and perhaps put down plank for the roadway. This embankment is nearly 400 feet long and connects Larrabee with Goldsmith street and Albina avenue. A considerable por-tion of the material was obtained from the Foster block on the north side of the slough, about 20,000 cubic yards of dirt having been procured from that source. Some material was obtained from the high banks along Goldsmith street and Mississippi avenue. About 75,000 cubic yards of material was used in this em-bankment. FOUNTAIN FOR BROOKLYN.—The Park bankment. FOUNTAIN FOR BROOKLYN.-The Park Commission will erect a fountain and make a park out of the triangular lot at the corner of Milwaukie and Powell streets, in Brooklyn. An order has been made to proceed with the work. The fountain will be one of a number donated by a public-spirited citizen. Concrete curding will be placed around the lot, and a waiting station erected, it being a point where many people leave and board the streetcars. That part of the large tract at this corner north of the creek will not be parked until the sewer has been built through it. About one acre can be used for park purposes out of this

The meat investigation in Chicago isst year brought to light the fact that while the working methods and horrible adulterating of meat by the big pack-ers was one of the crimes of the age, there were a few independent packers whose plants were as sanitary as your home kitchen, and the meats put up in those plants were unapproachable. Built's abattoir, his market and sausage kitchen, stand in the same re-lation to the Portland public as did the cleanliness of those independent plants to Chicago. Every building bas passed with the Smith Meat Company, and every part of each building bas passed the scruppidous investigation of the U.S. Government officials with flying colors.
