MUCH WOOD IS OFFERED

FEDERATED TRADES COUNCIL RECEIVES MANY BIDS.

That Most of Tenders Are of Standing Timber Is Regretted by Trust's Antagonists.

Scarcely had the advertisement calling for bids for slabwood and cordwood been published in the Portland daily papers by the committee representing the Federated Trades Council, which proposes to break the local wood trust, when the committee began to receive applications for supplying it with fuel. Most of the bids are for wood on a stumpage basis but a number of proposals have been received from the lower Columbia for slabwood on board barges.

The committee recognizes that bids proposing to furnish cordwood on a stumpage basis cannot be accepted to relieve the fuel situation in this city this year, but all offers of this kind and bids received prior to September 1, will be considered and, failing to make arrangements for obtaining a supply of wood immediately, the committee from the labor organizations may decide to arrange for the cutting of cordwood this winter in order to insure a supply for next year.

FIVE WIVES GET DECREES

TELL WOES TO JUDGE FRAZER IN DIVORCE COURT.

Charges Made Against Husbands Include Drunkenness, Desertion, Cruelty and Nonsupport.

Five matrimonial knots were untied yesterday by Judge Frazer of the Circuit Court. The complaints were all filed by wives and the charges made included brutality, drunkenness, desertion and nonsupport.

Myrtle L. Gibson and W. C. Gibson were married March 3, 1906. Mrs. Gibson testified that her husband was guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment to her, at one time twisting her back in such a rough manner that she did not recover for weeks. She said it was a common thing for him to come home at 2 o'clock in the morning drunk. Gibson was formerly employed as a salesman. Mrs. Gibson was granted $50 alimony.

Martha Olson said her husband Lars Olson, to whom she was married in 1899, was also guilty of cruelty and drunkenness. Some time ago, she said, he pawned all their furniture, leaving her penniless. She does not know his whereabouts at present but thinks he is in Spokane. The divorce was granted.

ELKS MOURN DEAD OFFICER.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—The body of John D. O'Shea, chairman of the board of trustees of the Order of Elks, who died of paralysis last night, was taken today to his late home at Lynn, Mass. The grand lodge held memorial services in honor of the deceased today.

ERROR IN THE PROCEEDINGS

Slingerland Habeas Corpus Case Must Be Recommended.

At the hearing of the habeas corpus proceedings brought by W. A. Slingerland to recover possession of his 11-year-old adopted daughter, Edna, in Judge Frazer's court yesterday morning, it was found that the application for this writ had not been properly served, and that the proceedings would have to be recommenced.

SICK CHILD DENIED ICE

GREEDY OCTOPUS LETS THE LITTLE ONE SUFFER.

Seattle Mother Tries in Vain to Cool the Fevered Brow of Her Infant.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 19.—(Special.)—Because she did not have $5 with which to buy tickets for the purchase of ice, a woman, a stranger in the city, was denied ice by a local member of the Seattle ice trust today with which to cool the fevered brow of her infant. The attending physician had ordered ice liberally applied to the sick child's head and when the woman hailed an iceman and asked for a dime's worth of ice, she was told she could only buy through the medium of a book of tickets costing $5. She only had $1 on being left here, awaiting the coming of her husband, and she had to deny herself the purchase. Then she went to a grocer and later to a meat market and there met with a refusal of ice, as they told her that they would be blacklisted if they either sold or gave away any. The woman, who occupies a cheap lodging-house on Seventh avenue, refused to give her name. The several commercial bodies have been notified and, unofficially, they declare a prosecution of the ice combine will be made.

ITS NET VALUE IS $148,415

Estate of Frank C. Baker Now Ready for Distribution.

The estate of Frank C. Baker is now ready for distribution, all preliminaries to the final settlement having been arranged for by Margaret Baker, executrix. The appraised value, as shown in an order issued by Judge Webster, is $157,541. The total indebtedness and expense of administration is $9,126, leaving the net value of the property and the value upon which the inheritance tax is payable at $148,415. The court finds that Margaret Baker is entitled to a life estate under the will, and that Frances Mary Baker, daughter of Mr. Baker, is entitled to the reversionary interest on the remainder of the estate after the death of Mrs. Baker. The total amount of inheritance tax is fixed at $43,450.

WILL DECIDE CASES TODAY.

Judge Sears will today decide the cases of E. W. Spencer and others against the Multnomah Fair Association for a recovery; Nick Costa against Francisco Acosta, demurrer to the complaint; and the motion of E. S. J. McAllister against the American Hospital Association to inspect the books.
