

DRAMATIC SCENE AT HAU'S TRIAL

Wife's Brother Tells How He Convinced Her Hau Was Guilty.

WHY SHE KILLED HERSELF

Many Witnesses Saw Disguised Man Near Mollitor Villa at Time of Murder - Experts Say He is Sane.

KARLSRUHE, July 19.—The third day of the trial of Karl Hau, who is accused of the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Mollitor, at Baden Baden last November, brought a climax of dramatic interest. Testimony was given by the sisters and brother of Hau's wife, who committed suicide since the incarceration of her husband, and the letters she wrote just before taking her life here.

Lieutenant Mollitor, who is stationed at Metz, swore he suspected Hau from the first. Describing his talks with the late Mrs. Hau, his sister, after his return from London, the lieutenant said it fell to him to explain to his sister all the circumstances of the case pointing to the guilt of her husband, and this recital finally convinced her that Karl was the murderer.

Wife Could Not Endure Shame.

Herr Dietz, counsel for Hau, read a letter which Mrs. Hau had written him from Paris regarding her last interview with her husband, which took place in Paris on June 7. Mrs. Hau wrote that this interview was rather unsatisfactory and exciting.

At this point Hau arose and asked permission of the court to make a statement. Speaking slowly and in a very low voice, the prisoner said his wife had told him at this interview that she intended to commit suicide because she was unable to hear all her family matters discussed before the public. He tried to persuade her to desist from this purpose, as it would create an impression that he was guilty. Hau made this statement without any emotion, and his composure was complete.

Seen Near Mollitor Villa.

The afternoon session was devoted to hearing various witnesses who saw a man with a false beard in Baden Baden, several of them near the Mollitor home and within an hour of the tragedy. Two of these witnesses declared they recognized Hau as the same man. Schultz, the gardener, testified that he saw the fatal shot fired at 6:02 P. M. After it was fired he saw the man with a full black beard sitting on the seat at 4:30 o'clock, where the other witnesses already had testified to seeing him, and that an hour later he saw the same man below the park going at a hasty pace in the direction of the Mollitor villa.

Baroness von Reitzenstein, living in a villa on the road taken by Frau Mollitor and Ogo Mollitor during the fatal walk, swore that she went out to the letterbox at 5:30 o'clock and saw a man with a black beard, whom she recognized as Hau. Running toward her villa she saw the well-known, but a different man, having an iron-gray beard and older and shorter in stature than Hau, was following them. This raises a new point in the case.

A servant girl employed by the Mollitors testified that she answered a telephone call and reported to Frau Mollitor that she saw the Mollitors, who were then exchanging words with the judge and Dr. Dietz, and the latter threatened to withdraw from the case. The court, while the Mollitors were in an endeavor to finish the case tomorrow night. Adjournment was taken at 1:30 o'clock tonight, with the courtroom still crowded to suffocation.

Hau Refuses to Explain.

At the night session Hau admitted that Baroness von Reitzenstein had been correct in saying she had recognized him near the Mollitor villa. The judge, with great deliberation, demanded an explanation of Hau's purpose in being there. Hau firmly refused to give this information, adding: "I realize the full consequence of the refusal."

Several specialists testified concerning a prolonged examination of Hau during his incarceration and his confession of his guilt. Dr. Dietz, counsel for Hau, sharply criticized the remarks of one of the experts as to the work of the prosecution. Sharp words were then exchanged between the judge and Dr. Dietz, and the latter threatened to withdraw from the case. The court, while the Mollitors were in an endeavor to finish the case tomorrow night. Adjournment was taken at 1:30 o'clock tonight, with the courtroom still crowded to suffocation.

STEPS FORTH A FREE MAN

William January Has Been Restored to Rights of Citizenship.

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Kas., July 19.—William January, alias Charles W. Anderson, for whose pardon a petition containing the signatures of 50,000 persons was presented to President Cleveland three months ago, was released from the Federal prison here today. Anderson will return to Kansas City where he will engage in business.

January was convicted 11 years ago of robbing an Oklahoma postoffice, and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. He escaped two years later and went to Kansas City, assumed the name of Anderson and married. In April, this year, an ex-convict who had known January in the penitentiary, notified the warden of the man's whereabouts and he was re-arrested and taken back to Leavenworth. Owing to the exemplary life Anderson had led in Kansas, his neighbors started a movement for his release. The newspapers took up the case with the result that a petition which is said to have contained the largest number of signatures ever appended to an appeal for a pardon was forwarded to Washington. President Roosevelt reviewed the case and upon request of Attorney-General Bonaparte, granted a pardon effective at the expiration of three months from the time of his arrest. January will seek restoration to citizenship and will ask for the name of Anderson legalized.

DAUGHTER THANKS PRESIDENT

Tot Sends Grateful Message to Roosevelt Over Release.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 19.—Charles W. Anderson reached Kansas City this morning a few hours after his release from the penitentiary at Leavenworth and went directly to his home, where a family reunion was held. Later when a newspaper man called, he found the little group radiant with happiness. With his 4-year-old child on his knee, Anderson talked of himself. "I have no plans for the future," he said, "save that I will remain here." "My wife and the baby are so glad to see me back and I like getting acquainted again," said he to the reporter. Asked about the report that he would engage in the pool-hall business, Anderson said it was without foundation. "I would not," he said, "be so ungrateful to the many who signed for me." During the day the following message, signed by Anderson's little girl, was forwarded to Washington. "Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States—Papa has come home to stay with Mamma and me. I'm so glad, and Papa says he is, too. He says he will be a good Papa now. "LUCILE ANDERSON."

LUMBER RATES ADVANCED

Washington Millmen Declare It Means Ruination to Business.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 19.—(Special.)—Official announcement of the increase in lumber and shingle rates between the Pacific Coast and Chicago, St. Paul, Kansas City, Omaha and St. Louis was given out yesterday by the Transcontinental Freight Bureau, the organization of lines west of St. Paul and Minneapolis. It is for private circulation, giving the rates to be in effect after October 1. Secretary Victor H. Beckman, of the Pacific Coast Lumber Manufacturers' Association, when shown a telegram announcing the new rates, said: "If the railroads make the advance on lumber and shingles to the East, they will force a close-down of the mills and logging camps of Washington, affecting 50,000 men and putting out of business an annual payroll of not less than $85,000,000. The rates to Eastern centers on lumber and shingles will be as follows: "St. Paul and Minneapolis, lumber, 50 cents, shingles, 40 cents per 100, as against 40 and 30 cents, as now; Chicago, lumber, 60 cents, shingles, 70 cents per 100; St. Louis, the same, and Omaha and Kansas City, lumber 55 and shingles 65 cents per 100."

All Banks Separate Institutions.

SALLEM, Or., July 19.—(Special.)—In response to a question from State Bank Examiner, James Steel, an opinion has been rendered by Attorney General Crawford in which he holds that each and every branch office that is maintained by any bank in the state, where a banking business is conducted, is a separate and distinct bank, under the new bank regulation act, and each such bank must render a separate report or statement to the State Bank Examiner. In the same opinion it is held that each of these branch offices must be maintained by a sufficient amount of capital stock to meet the requirements of the provisions of the state act, or $25,000.

OIL IS GUSHING IN UTAH

Well Produces 500 Barrels Daily. Excitement Is Great.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 19.—A special to the News from St. George, Washington county, says that an area from 15 to 20 miles in extent is being located by oil seekers, 15,000 acres having been taken up in five days. The excitement is due to the opening of an oil well on July 14 which is now throwing out 500 barrels a day. The oil is black, of the consistency of machine oil, and contains a large percentage of asphaltum. Oil began flowing at the depth of 60 feet. Effort to stop the stream and push the drills to greater depth have been unavailing, because of the pressure from below.

San Francisco Firm Pays Fine.

Hulse, Bradford & Company, of San Francisco, who were included in the recent furniture trust indictment that was returned in the United States Circuit Court in this city, appeared before Judge Wolverton yesterday and pleaded guilty. The firm was assessed a fine of $25,000 which was paid. Only a few of the firms that were included in the original indictment have failed to appear and plead to the information. These have been granted until August 1, to make an appearance. Failing to do so before that time the Government will take steps to require their formal appearance in court.

SHAVE GRAZING FEE

No Increase to Be Made on National Forests.

FAVOR SMALL STOCKMAN

Rumor That Rates Would Be Raised Are Contradicted—Full Price Is Charged for Timber—No Charge for Water.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 19.—The Forest Service announces that no general increase will be made in the fees charged for grazing livestock on the National forests during the present administration. Rumors that a general increase was contemplated have caused some uneasiness among Western stockmen using the National forest ranges, according to advices received here. The present fees, says the Forest Service, is generally recognized as moderate. In point of fact it is much lower than that which private owners of grazing land similar to that in some of the National forests are charging. Most stockmen are willing to accept the present situation, provided they can be assured that conditions are not going to be subject to a radical change.

Will Not Charge Market Price.

The Government does not believe in charging stockmen what it considers the full market value of the grazing privilege—that is, in letting the range to the highest bidder and trying to make as much as possible out of the land. To do so would be to place the range in the hands of wealthy speculators, the cashiers of small owners. In other words, the Government is not in the position of a landlord who seeks to realize the largest possible return from his holdings. While there is no reason why those who profit individually by making use of the National forests should not help meet the expenses of their protection, the forests are not run as revenue producers but as sources of public benefit through rightly regulated use.

Much misdirected criticism has arisen from the failure of many people to understand this. Some Western papers, for instance, have reprinted from the Congressional Record the estimate of the Forester of the capitalized value of the National forests, totaling some $1,000,000,000. The estimate of each of the general items meant that the Government proposed to turn these resources to account by a system of charges. It can be stated authoritatively that no such thing was ever thought of. In their capacity to supply water for irrigation, for instance, the forests are immensely valuable, and the capitalized value of the use should be considered by the Government as trustee for the public in estimating how much it is worth to spend in order to protect the grazing capacity of the forests. But no return from the users of water for irrigation was contemplated, nor could any charge be made under existing laws.

Full Price for Timber.

Grazing stands half way between irrigation and lumbering in the matter of the propriety of the charge. When timber from the National forests is sold, it is sold at the market price. Timber, as Mr. Pinchot said at the Denver convention, is a "transportable commodity," forage on the range is not. To put up at auction the privilege of grazing would open those who have settled in a region and those who have a permanent interest in a particular range to what would often be a ruinous competition from nomads of the range and sheepmen. Stability of the industry and the protection of the small settler who helps develop the country along permanent lines is of the first importance. To secure these ends the ordinary market price, but low, and the choice of those allowed to use the range is made along lines which recognize residents and past users as having the first right. In fee will be made in the ordinary way, but some adjustment in the interest of fairness will result in certain local changes. On some of the new National forests a lower rate than ordinary was fixed for the present season on account of the crowded condition and consequent inferiority of the range. A slight increase in fee will be made in the ordinary way, but some improvement in condition and better service is given. This will be simply to equalize charges on the basis of the present rate and along the lines of fairness. No increase will be made in the standard prices fixed this year for the different states.

At the Theaters

What the Press Agents Say.

"FIRES OF ST. JOHN" MATINEE

Nance O'Neil Will Repeat Her Great Success Today and Tomorrow.

There will be three more performances of Nance O'Neil's beautiful drama, "The Fires of St. John," given by Nance O'Neil and her company at the Marquam. This has been the most successful of the new plays of the present O'Neil engagement, and every theatergoer who has attended the performance is most enthusiastic in praise of both the play and the stars' work in the difficult role of Marie. McKee Rankin, the famous character actor, Franka, Underwood, Norval McGregor, and other members of the great supporting company, give admirable performances. Last performance of "The Fires of St. John" Sunday night.

Matinee at the Star

This afternoon there will be a matinee of "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" at the Star Theater. It is the funniest play of the year. No one has been able to sit through the three acts without laughing, and this week the Star Stock Company is dealing in wholesale laughter. The farce is one of those affairs in which the characters become hopelessly involved in astonishing situations, each situation being a more serious one than the last. A decided hit in "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" and will continue in the bill until tomorrow (Sunday) night. Seats are now selling.

"Sweet Nell" Charms All.

No more charming play nor performance could be wished than "Sweet Nell of Old Drury," which the Allen Stock Company is presenting at the Lorie this week. The return, after an absence of several weeks, is being beautifully celebrated by the most pretentious play and production ever attempted by a popular-price stock company. Miss Felton's playing of Nell Gwynne is equal to the work of the most famous comedienne in the country and is undoubtedly her greatest success.

Musicals at Portland Academy.

An attractive programme will be given at half-past 10 this morning at the Portland Academy by Music-Education students, assisted by Waldemar Lind, violin and viola, and Daniel Driscoll, cello.

to be played by Miss Eva Benson with Mr. Lind, who composed by Dr. Dvorak after his visit to America, and is full of reminiscences of negro melodies and rhythms. It will be played by the Dvovak orchestra material for our music of the future. In the Prairie Minstrel, which, as well as the Helmsley sketch, will be played by Miss Geraldine Aitken. Arthur Farwell illustrated another phase of American folk music, having based the composition entirely on cowboy songs. The Helmsley group will consist of two of the poetical Schumann "Scenes From Fairy Land," to which the viola, rarely heard as a solo instrument, gives wonderfully rich coloring. Miss Etta Chamberlain will play these with Mr. Lind, master of the violin at the violin. A group of Franz songs follows to be sung by Mrs. Guy Talbot, who has recently been studying with Miss Villa W. The programme ends with a Spindler Trio to be played by Miss Geraldine Aitken, Mr. Lind and Mr. Driscoll.

MISS O'NEIL TO PLAY "MAGDA"

Famous Tragedienne Will Appear in Her Greatest Role at Marquam.

Nance O'Neil, America's most representative tragedienne, will appear next week, commencing Monday night, in what is generally conceded to be her greatest role, "Magda," in a brilliant new play of American folk music. It will be one of the notable theatrical events of the year and you will make a great mistake if you miss it. Seats are now selling.

"Man's Enemy."

Monday night the stock company at the Star Theater will present "Man's Enemy." This is a sensational and exciting melodrama which has not seen the light of day in a Western theater before, although it is popular in the East. "Man's Enemy" is a play with a moral, and it teaches a powerful lesson. "Man's Enemy" will be the usual matinee. Seats now selling.

"Whose Baby Are You?" Next.

The next attraction to be offered by the Allen Stock Company at the Lorie will be that funniest of all farces, "Whose Baby Are You?" It is just the kind of a show for Summer-time, when nobody wants to sit through anything serious. There isn't anything in it but laughs. You must be on hand at the opening of the Lorie night-fest.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

Grand's Feature Show.

Everyone who attends the Grand this week says it is a dandy show. The bill is composed of Eastern headliners, and there are no poor acts on the list. John and Bertha, one of the best duos in the country, are a great hit. They are assisted by Fred Houlihan, Dolan and Benner, a bit of travelogue on "The Sporting Business," with a laugh in every line, and Dan Roby has a bunch of brand new jokes and parodies. Gertrude Gehret is a comedienne and vaudeville, and these and others complete the list of first-class vaudeville artists the Grand offers. There is no mistake about the bill being good.

Comedy Act at Pantages.

Fun and cleverness in rich profusion make up this week's offering at Pantages Theater. The Lincoln Four comedians, are the season's hit. Musical Bentley, Reed, Wiley and several other comedians complete the program.

VICTORIA MURDER MYSTERY

Body of Hospital Nurse Found Dead on Beach with Bruised Head.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 19.—The police are investigating what is believed to be a murder mystery. This afternoon the body of a nurse, Leila Layley, was found on the beach at high water mark with an abrasion at the left of the head. One hour before the discovery of the body Patrolman Jones saw a white painted rowboat brought up to the place where the body was found, and a sailor, a seaman went to the place where the body was afterward found and hurriedly rowed away. The dead woman was 35 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches tall, and of a cheerful disposition unlikely to suicide.

STATE AND NATION CONFLICT

Test Case at Tacoma to See Who Shall Collect Fees.

TACOMA, Wash., July 19.—(Special.)—As attorney representing all Italian immigrants in the state, the County Clerk, who recently resigned to practice law, is preparing a test case against County Clerk Libby to compel the latter to collect the ordinary tax on the fee for violating the law or for observing its terms. The trouble is all on account of the conflict of the state and federal laws. The state law provides that the County Clerk shall collect fees of $1.00 and $1.00, respectively, for first and final naturalization papers, while the act of Congress passed two years ago fixes the fee at $2.00 for declarations of intention and $4.00 for ultimate attainment of full-fledged citizenship.

GRAIN YIELD PROMISES LARGE

Today was cloudy with light sprinkles of rain.

Centralia to Vote on Bonds.

CENTRALIA, Wash., July 19.—(Special.)—On Tuesday, July 20, the voters of this city will decide the question of bonds to lay a trunk sewer. This city, owing to the formation of the soil, has not up to the present time needed a sewer. Now that the city is rapidly growing, the need is apparent. The entire real estate of the city will be taxed to pay the expense of the trunk sewer and the materials will be paid for by the property-owners wishing to connect. The people seem to be in favor of this method of raising the funds and the measure will undoubtedly carry.

Run Mills to Full Capacity.

MONTESANO, Wash., July 19.—(Special.)—The Moses and Lumbury Manufacturing Company's mill, which has been closed down for several weeks installing new machinery, making repairs and improvements, will start up in a few days and will be run to its full capacity right along. MUST SUBMIT EVIDENCE

NO MORE DELAY WITH HONEST SETTLERS' CLAIMS.

Bourne Gets Order to Push Oregon Land Patents Where Fraud Cannot Be Proved.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 19.—Senator Bourne has succeeded in securing an order from the general Land Office calling upon T. B. Neuhausen, at Portland, to submit an immediate report, giving a list of all suspended land entries in Oregon against which there are no facts of record in his office or within the knowledge of Government officials which warrant further suspension. Mr. Neuhausen has also been instructed to make separate reports as to each entry against which there are charges warranting further suspension, all such reports to be submitted before September 1, 1907. Mr. Bourne has discovered that many land entries have been suspended in Oregon without apparent justification and in consequence honest entrymen are experiencing great difficulty in securing title from the Government. While he does not desire or intend to interfere with the prosecution of men guilty of fraud, he insists that honest men shall not be required to suffer along with the guilty. The Land Office is in accord with his views, and it is expected that numerous entries now suspended without cause will be released in the near future and started on their way to patent.

Under Secretary Hitchcock blanket suspensions were made on mere suspicion and all these blanket orders will be done away with as rapidly as possible.

The new rate will take effect July 23, in order to take care of shipments which the Oregon Packing Company desires to make from La Grande and Union, and will be open to all shippers between the points named upon the specified class of products. Permission to put the new rate into effect is made by the Commission of General Freight Agent R. B. Miller, of the O. R. & N. Last year the company applied this rate on cherries from Union and La Grande to Portland and the reduced rate stated this year upon the petition of the Oregon Packing Company, who will have two carloads of fruit to move from the above points, Tuesday and Wednesday, and the effect of the reduction will be extended to Baker City. Written notice has been served upon the Railroad Commission by Manager J. P. O'Brien, of the Southern Pacific, that in compliance with the petition of the citizens of Maracola, in the Wendling branch of the Southern Pacific line, a new schedule is being arranged which will give the patrons of the branch the benefit of the service of two regular through trains daily, one train each way, from Wendling, Oregon. Mr. O'Brien has also informed the Commission that plans and estimates have been prepared for a depot at Maracola station, a luxury which the Maracolans have never enjoyed and which the Commission was asked to secure for them, and that work of construction will begin at once.

Ernest, the leader of what was once the Dowrie forces in Seattle and vicinity. The two men have been in correspondence for some time and the assurance is given that the visit of Granger will culminate in the construction of a new Zion City somewhere near Seattle. The object of Granger's visit is twofold. He expects to lay the foundation for the new Zion and at the same time organize the discontented and scattered forces of the Christian Catholic Church into a solid body, for the purpose of ousting General Overser Wilbur Glenn Voliva.
