Darrow and Richardson May Take Three Days to Talk to Jury.

LAST WORD FROM BORAH

He Will Sum Up Case for State, Judge Will Instruct Jurors Saturday, and There May Be a Verdict That Night.

BOISE, July 21 .- Argument in defense of William D. . Haywood will commence tomorrow morning, and the next two, or perhaps three days, B. F. Richardson and Clarence Darrow will plead for the life of their client, who, they assert, is innocent of any connection with the murder of Frank Steunenberg and falsely accused by the State of Idaho of conspiracy to kill the former Governor. The Denver lawyer, who with Clarence Darrow, of Chicago, has with Ctarence Darrow, of Chicago, has taken a leading part in the defense, expects to speak eight or ten hours. It is probable, therefore, that Mr. Darrow will not commence his closing argument before Wednesday morning.

The last word will come from Senator Borah, who will speak probably on Friday, closing up the State's side of the case. Judge Wood will charge the jury on Friday afternoon, or more the jury on Friday afternoon, or more likely on Saturday morning, and a ver-dict is expected by Saturday night. Opinion is divided as to the probable result. The decision of Judge Wood taking from the jury all evidence re-lating to deportations in Colorado and the employment of detectives to harass the employment of detectives to harass the Western Federation of Miners, constituting the showing by the defense of a counter conspiracy, ans necessarily limited the arguments for the defense to the evidence introduced by the State corroborative of Orchard, and the impeachment of Orchard by the defense

Deny All Connection With Crime.

Mr. Richardson will take the posi-Mr. Richardson will take the posi-tion that his client, Haywood, has not been connected with any of the crimes to which Orchard has confessed, and that the alleged conspiracy has not heen corroborated as required by the law of conspiracy. This will involve a review of all the evidence, from the period of trouble in the Coeur d'Alene district of Idaho in 1899 down to the murder of Steunenberg by Orchard in period of trouble in the Coeur d'Alene district of Idaho in 1893 down to the murder of Steunenberg by Orchard in 1905. He will present the legal side of the position of the defense at every point and disassociate Haywood and the Western Federation from all knowledge of or participation in the crimes by which Orchard earned the title of "Boss killer."

Mr. Richardson will argue from the evidence that Orchard was not present at the blowing up of the concentrator at the Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mine in 1899, and that therefore his evidence in this matter is impeached and worthless. He will argue that the explosion at the Vindicator Mine in Colorado and the killing of Beck and McCormick, was an accident with which Orchard had no connection; that the blowing up of the Independence Depot, in Colorado, where 14 men were killed, was the result of a scheme to create public feeling against the striking miners, and that the killing of the nonunion miners was not intentional; that Orchard had no connection with it or is he had was not intentional; that Orenard had no connection with it, or, if he had, that Haywood had no knowledge be-forehand of what was going on. Touch Lightly on Goddard Bombs.

The killing of Lyte Gregory, in Denver. Mr. Richardson will lay to the door of personal enemies of Gregory, who was engaged in strike-breaking. The Goddard and Gabbert bombs, concerning which so much has been said, will not be considered by the defense as seriously bearing on the case, but at the same time that if such bombs were made and planted, the Western Federation of Miners had nothing to do with them. The same disavowal of connection will be argued as to the Bradley explosion and the Steunenberg murder itself. From first to last Michardson will take the ground that Orchard, having foully murdered Steu-nenberg, has woven the members of the Western Federation into his story at the behest of Captain James McParland and Governor Gooding, of Idaho under promise of immunity.

People Calmly Await Verdict.

As the end of the case approaches, the town of Boise is even more quiet than it has been at any time during the trial. Most of the witnesses have been paid off and dismissed, but many people are coming from long distances to hear the argument. This is especially true from members of the bar from neighboring states.

The people of the town themselves are also taking much interest in the arguments, and the courtroom is filled at sure season.

at every session. There is, however, the same absence of discussion of the case in public places and the same decase in public places and the same determination to avoit anything that may create feeling or in any way bring discredit on the community. Among the permanent residents of Boise, or those who might almost be considered citizens by reason of long attendance on the trial, there has not at any time from first to last been any show of discrimination, or evidence of difference of opinion. It is a question for the court to decide, they say, and the decision of the jury will be the decision of the people of Idaho.

This is the opinion of Homer B. Hurlbert, for several years intimately as-sociated with the Corean court and a confidential advisor to the deposed Em-peror of Corea. Mr. Hurlbert, who has just come to America, is thoroughly familiar with the situation at Seoul at this time, and with the policy pursued by Japan in Corea. "It is hard to arouse the Coreans to the fighting point," continued Mr. Huribert, "but drive them to desperation and they will turn on their tormensers us they did in 1592 and then nothing but extermination will give Japan peace there. "But to exterminate 13,000,000 peo-ple, or even beat them into quiescence, is a difficult task.
