"CHECK IS IN," ADVISES ELMORE

Astoria Man Says Too Many Salmon Are Caught in Columbia River.

HE WANTS CLOSED SUNDAY

Urges Wheels Stop From August 15 to October, and Suggests Corresponding Concessions by the Lower River.

Made glad by the arrival of a school of salmon in the Columbia River early last week, the fishery men here are again

Lengthen Closed Season.

He is willing, also, to lengthen the closed season in the Spring by extending it to May 1 or June 1, and in the late Summer by stopping of fishing on August 16, instead of August 25—all this on condition that fishing between Cascades and Celilo be prohibited at low stages of the river, when salmon, as he says, cannot climb Celilo Falls, and when they fall easy victims to wheels and seines, without any chance of escape whatever.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—The body of Philip Stanley, of Canas Valley, of this county, who disappeared from his home on April 14, was found yesterday by some hunters in the mountains near where the last evidence of him was seen, hanging to a tree. It is now evident that he committed suicide.

EMORE EVASDES POINT

It was suggested that this would mean elimination of fish wheels, and that some of the fish, Mr. Elmore didn't like to put it that way. Said he: "I don't urge abolition of wheels. I don't urge abolition of any kind of gear. But the wheels should be put under restrictions such as I have suggested."

THINKS IT FAIR OFFER.

"But we shan't do any of these things if by doing them we'd be filling up those pools below Celilo with salmon, just for those up-river fellows to catch. Now I think that's a fair offer."
