Seattle, 5; Spokane, 0. SEATTLE, Wash, July 2.-(Special)-Aside from the fact that Seattle won, the feature of today's game was Quigley. He cut off three hits yes-terday and in the fourth inning today headed off Spokane the ouly time the bunchgrassers were dangerous, making two swell stops and getting his men. Coy was never in danger outside that huning, allowing but two hits and striking out six. Beside that he gave an excellent exhibition of what a fielding pitcher ought to do, heading off saven of the enemy. Killaly had indifferent support and the game was as a whole, a listless affair that gave fans little chance to strume, though Seattle did win, 5 to 6. Batteries-Coy.
