

The seizure, coming so quickly after Mr. Rogers' return from a trip to Europe this Summer for the anke of his health, makes the filness appear serious to his friends. So serious was his condition after the stroke that it was found necessary to administer oxygen to him. His heart action was alarmingly weak and his trip to Fairhaven was a period of anxiety for his attendants.

Refuses to Ease Up on Work.

not live two years at his present par of John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller and Mr. Rogers have been in charge of the vast interests of the

When Mr. Rogers started for Europe

two months ago, it was said that the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. Rogers was told by his physiciaft a year ago that it was vitally necessary for him to cut down his business cares. He was warned that he could Darrow's Apology for Crime. ber of the executive staff and a large representation of the state judiciary The evidence in this case shows that ere in a power which controlled, a power which commits crime-it is proved as clearly as the fact that Frank Steunenberg is doad. Take April 20, 1800, when the members of the Western Federation of Miners walked boldly from their work, organized with military pre-Sorah rose to speak, were seated two f the counsel on each side, but Mr. lawrey, leading counsel for the state, vas not in his place owing to illness. Mr. Borah's speech was a sensation. From time to time he turned on coun-el for the defense, fierce denuncia-ion pouring from his lips, and at times rought protests from Mr. Richardson of Mr. Bernes, whit with bleaves area. not to take the stand. an accident. Jim Shayne was killed. Oh, yee, but he was a stab. Mr. Darrow tells you. The Bunker Hill mill was blown up! Oh, yes, but it employed nonunion men. Mr. Darrow says that whenever you get a thousand men together to go and do a thing, it is some-thing that ought to be done. That may be the rule in Chlcago, but it doesn't go in Idaho. Mr. Durrow her autoral Hore or backets.

that p

and telegrams of George Pettibone and Jack mpkine are the unexplained letters and tele ams of W. D. Haywood. The only question here is as to whether o tot the evidence has been adduced to satisfy ou that there was a conspiracy. Counsel for the defense has said we have not abown an inner circle" or an organized bureau for crime.

Well, I could pretty nearly rest the proof of position on the argument of Mr. Dar tioned Rudolph Spreckels as "one of the witnesses we shall call." Heney, after stating frankly to the jury that the declination of Second Vice-President Zimmer, the most important individual witness for the state to testify had put it beyond the power of the prosecution to establish definitely the connection of Glass with Boxton, devoted himself to a vigorous exposition of the circumstantial case made out. He claimed that by carry-ng out successfully a process of elimination he had proved beyond all ly only two men had the power to worth of checks by which had been secured the money to bribe the Supervisors, were drawn by Zimmer by direction of Glass and turned over to Halsey by Zimmer. When Zimmer was "persuaded" to go back on his grand jury testimony and refused to repeat it as evidence in court, the prosecution was designedly robbed of Its most valuable individual wliness the crime of bribing Supervisor Charles Heney charged that the "putling down" of Zimmer was the direct and criminal work of the defendant Glass. He charged that Treasurer Kennedy, of the Pacific States Company, deliberately perjured himself at the behest of Glass when, upon reasonable doubt that other than Hal- being recalled to the stand, he changed supply the telephone funds for the month in which those checks were drawn. bribery of the Supervisors-Emile J. "You, gentlemen of the jury, as reason Zimmer and Louis Glass, the former able men." said Heney, "cannot come to now in the County Jall for contempt in any other conclusion than that the witrefusing to testify, the latter of whom ness Kennedy was prostituted and con has exercised his right as a defendant rupted by the defendant Glass."

the work of the purification of the court. In the matter of separating the Emperor and ex-Emperor, the Cabinet is solely concerned.

Emperor Spoiled Despot.

"In regard to the feeling in Japan about convention, the people are doubtedly sufficiently critical, but the agreement ought to satisfy all reasonable Japanese, as it ends a long impossible situation. The ex-Emperor was a spoiled despot, always intent upon the selfish exploitation of his Nation. The power of the Emperor and throne has been diminished. It is now possible to regu-

of the ex-Emperor from his troops and advisers, both of which the Cabinet is prepared to do as soon as there is a sufficient showing of troops to overawe any attempts at resistance and to quell any trouble that such action might oc casion.

WEEP AND LOOT THE PALACE

Old Ladies Condole With Emperor and Carry Away Souvenirs.

A wave of great excitement swept over

SEOUL, July 25 .- The Corean anthill has been stirred to the very center by late all of the Emperor and ex-Emperor's the ex-Emperor's pledge of abdication.

Haywood was surrounded by seven of his counsel and his wife in her invalid chair was, as usual, by his side, the prosecution in the case against

No Immunity for Orchard.

Mrs. Steunenberg, the widow of the murdered Governor, appeared in the courtroom for the first time since the trial opened. She occupied a seat inside the railings, beside her youngest son, Julian. Governor Gooding, a num-

Haywood.

At the prosecution's table, when Mr. Borah rose to speak, were seated two of the counsel on each side, but Mr. Hawrey, leading counsel for the state. was not in his place owing to illness.

From time to time he turned on counsel for the defense, fierce denunciation pouring from his lips, and at times brought protests from Mr. Richardson and Mr. Dirrow, but with blamng eyes and hot words he silenced every effort to break the rush of words. The climax was reached, when in behalf of the State of Idaho, its people, its Governor and himself he disclaimed all in-Orchard. Finally, his face pale and him. pice quivering with emotion, the Senator raised his arm and said:

"If I should ever join in or give approval to immunity to this man, I hope the great God may wither my right arm in the socket."

Condemns Attack on Hawley.

Mr. Borah began his argument to he appreclated that the jurors were fatigued by their long ordeal and promised he would be as brief as possible under the circumstances. Much of his speech, he declared, would be an answer to the argument of the op-

I am aware that I am in this case as a spe-cial prosecutor. The learned counsel on the other side has impressed this fact upon you. But let me say that the state which does not

But counsel has gone further with my assoto. Why they should attack Mr. Hawley, o went fearlessly into the investigation of a matter, why they should assail in a percase is an attack upon everyone, be he high or low, who has had anything to do with or been in any way associated with, the investi-gation of the crime of December 30, 1965.

Only Want Fair Verdict.

Mr. Borah declared the state did not want Haywood convicted of any crime for which Orchard or Pettibone or guilty only if the evidence was deemed sufficient to warrant such a conclusion. The Senator denounced Clarence Darrow's statement that the jurors' minds had been poisoned against the defendants in this case. Nowhere, he declared, could a fairer trial have been held than in Bolse; no defendant ever sat in a courtroom where there was a. greater desire for an absolutely impartial and just trial. He continued:

thal and just trial. He continued: Have you men heard anybody on the streets of Boles asking for the blood of William Dy Raywood regardless of his guilt? No, and it is to the everlasting credit of the people of liabe that, despite the fact that one of its more than justice and an absolutely fair and impartial trial. Men know it and by now I where has there been an outcry for anything interesting trial. Men know it and by now I

Mr. Borah declared that Mr. Darrow in his address to the jury had offered subtle justification for everything charged against the defense. He set himself up in defiance of all the laws of public decency.

Defense Has Orcharditis.

"If the doctrine that Mr. Darrow, the jury shortly after 7 P. M. He said preached to you be true, I am not surprised that these men committed murder," said Mr. Borah, who then turned upon Mr. Richardson and declared that, if Harry Orchard is crazy, it was no compliment to one of the greatest lawyers in the West that the maniac did not disclose any of his insanity in a week's cross-examination. He continued: The counsel for the defense tell you that Orchard was caught red-handed in the sot of Stilling Steumenberg, that he confessed to save his own neck and that, if he had not conprotect its citizens or punish wrongdoers would mon lose the respect of its people and have no standing in our civiliantion. on his grave for a year past. Oh, no, gentle-men of the jury, if Orchard had not confessed the attorneys for the Western Federation of Miners would be in this couriroom defending this matter, why they should assail in a per-sonal way a man who has practiced law in his community for 50 years and whose loyaity. Notes honesty, has never before been ques-tioned, I do not know. It is smally thought sufficient to attack a man's argument—to do away with his logic—but running through this when the bomb went off. Mr. Darrow says my assistant has "Orchardills." Well, may-be he has, but we got it from the depths of the Western Federation of Miners. They had "Orcharditis" first, he was one of them, a delegate to their convention, a visitor to their homes. But the difference is that we have him ited up in the peritentiary while they were sending him broadcast through the country on his evil missions. Much has been said here in derision of Moyer or Simpkins or anybody else was Harry Orchard's religion. Whether he has re-responsible, and desired a verdict of ligion or not I do not know and it has nothing to do with his testimony one way the other. But remember, gontlemen of the jury, that the question of Orchard's religion or non-religion was not a matter imposed by the state upon you-it was brought into this case by the cross-examination of the defense

Give Assassin Religion's Solace.

Dwelling upon Mr. Darrow's views o Christianity, Mr. Borah exclaimed elo-quently that it was too late in this morning of the twentleth century to write upon the brow of Him upon Cal-vary, "imposter"; to late to brand "faise prophet" upon Him who said: "This day thou shall be with me in Paradise." If Harry Orchard, poor devil that he is, with his hands red with the blood of "D innecent men and his sui Coogan's Defense of Glass.

"Justice," said attorney Coogan, the white-haired, lifelong friend of the defendant, in opening his argument for Glass, "should be the same kind in all Here is a man who has run cases. over three-fourths of the space allotted to mankind, and who now finds himself confronted with a serious crime before a jury. It means a great deal to him. But if he is guilty of this of fense you should not consider the consequences to him. One thing you must

tion of innocence is ever with the ac- was argued here today

Cremates Herself for Revenge.

LUTTLE ROCK, Ark., July 25 .- Angry because her husband, a laborer, refused to praise her for saving money. Mrs. Anna Lowe today poured a gation of coal oil on her body, told her little daughter to watch and then set fire to the oil. Mrs. Lowe's body was burned to a crisp.

Church Merger Case Argued.

PUZZLE PICTURE: FIND THE CANDIDATE WHO WILL GET THE LADDER

NASHVILLE, July 25 .- The noted Cumberland Presbyterian Church case, involvat all times remember, and the court ing the right to form a union with the tions." will so instruct you, that the presump- Presbyterian Church in the United States, Cont.

"The most important thing to be ac complished is judicial reform, article 3 providing for a separation of judicial, magisterial and administrative affairs. which is an urgent necessity. Other matters perhaps are of less importance, such as taking control of the Corean army and administering the finances and the affairs of the imperial household."

"It is a fact that the Japanese people have forgotten the American question in the Corean crisis, which has shown the little importance attached by the public to the former. The leaders in the agitation in Japan are men who have gone astray in their judgment of public ques

Continuing, the Foreign Minister said "If the lesson of the fate of Corea can and the Emperor's proclamation published in the provinces. All the privileged old ladies attached to gourt arrived in crowds at the palace, condoling, weeping, wailing and inci-

The ex-Emperor wept, saving that his taken the proposed course, and was then unable to continue his speech. Knowing that the affairs of state had passed to a new administration, he commended

(Concluded on Page 4.) CONTENTS TODAY'S PAPER

The Weather YESTERDAY'S -- Maximum temperature, 76 degrees; minimum, 58.

TODAT'S-Probably fair; westerly winds.

Foreign. Japan makes treaty giving full control over Cores, and Hayashi says China may share same fate. Page 1.

Salvador asks Mexico to act as mediator with Nicaragua. Page 4. National. Mrs. Ayres says Colonel Ayres was hounded out of army by jealous officers. Page 4. Domestic,

W. J. Bryan saves woman from being run over by automobile. Page 2.

Pension Commissioner Warner insists his stepmother is a negress. Page 4.

Three Indian girls guard ancestors' gra-to prevent removal of bodies. Page 3 Sche home for general 2-cent fare on Eastern roads is blocked. Page 5.

Next friends of Mrs. Eddy win important points in litigation. Page 4.

Portland woman travels across continent to recover lost needlework. Page 3. H. H. Rogers struck down by heat and seriously ill. Page 1.

Death of Malkus in Columbia disaster re-venis story of elopement and fraud. Page 2.

Governor Glenn refuses compromise with rafiroads and inzists they obey state law, Page 4.

Pacific Coast.

Darrow finishes and Borah begins his ar-gument in Haywood case. Page 1. Argument begins in Glass trial Page 1.

Inspector Bermingham begins inquiry into Columbia disaster. Page 3.

Horse thieves active in Clackamas County, Page 5.

State treasury shows cash balance of nearly $1,000,000. Page 6.

A. Ballinger and party of Seattle capitan ists in Crook County Page 13.

Portland and Asiatic Uner Oregonia brings large cargo. Page 13.

Columbia disaster fault of navigation rules. Page 10.

Catholic Teachers Hear Discussion of In-dustrial Problems. Page 15.

Portland physicians heroes of the Columbia wreck. Page 12.

Sport.

Tennis tournament nearing end. Page 7. Los Angeles beats Portland, 8 to 5. Page 7.

ST LOUIS. July 25.—The tempera-ture broke the record for the year when the thermometer registered 98 degrees for four hours during this aft-ernoon. Two deaths and 20 prostrations were reported tonight as caused by the heat. KANSAS CITY HOT WAVE Two Deaths and Three Prostrations From 98-Degree Temperature. KANSAS CITY, July 25 .- Two persons died from the effects of heat pros-tration in this city today. Three other persons were prostrated. The maximum temperature was 98 degrees.

Heavy Rain in Arizona.

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 25.-There was heavy rain here this morning. Precipitation reached 1.1 inches. Reports from Roosevelt last night showed a flood of 2500 feet. Water is flowing Surviving passengers of Columbia wreck number 125 Page 10. do no damage except to delay work until the water recedes and fill with water and debris the excevated portion of the foundation where rock is not yet

Heat Kills Two in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS. July 35.—During the last N hours, two deaths and 18 prostrations have been reported due to the excessive heat. At noon the temperature registered 90 degrees.

Gives Warning to China. Touching on the American question, Count Hayashi said:

of all possible souvenirs.

efforts for many years had been a mistake and that he himself should have dentally carrying away in their cusomary loose dothing everything detachable and portable. The palace was looted trip was necessary for the health of Mrs. Rogers, but friends of the millionaire believed it had been ordered by the physiclans for his own sake. He had been straining every nerve to carry out his plans regarding a Virginia railroad, his pet project, and the effort had exhausted the whole peninsula today when the new But he cased up but very little. For agreement with Japan was announced several years, ever since the retirement

Becomes Very Ill on Yacht.

It was while busy at his desk today that Mr. Rogers was stricken. A physiclan was called and the oil man was assisted to the street and into an automobile, which carried him to his yacht, Kanawha, off East Thirty-first street. Upon the yacht he became very ill, and It was during the trip to Fairhaven, which was made in record time, for the yacht is the fastest of the New York Yacht Club's fleet, that oxygen was administered. Inquiry at Mr. Rogers' office regarding his condition met with noncommital re plies. All that could be learned was that he had been taken ill and had gone to his home for a brief rest.

ST. LOUIS RECORD BROKEN

Temperature at 96 Causes Deaths and Prostrations.