WRECK SHOP OF SUSPECT

Wild Scenes in "the Graveyard," District Where Atrocious Mur- ders Are of Almost Daily Oc- currence, Causing Panic.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—"The graveyard," as the foreign populated neighborhood on First avenue, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets is known locally, gave up today a fresh crime, rivaling in atrocity the mysterious butcheries of last week. The latest discovered victim was an 8-year-old girl, and, like the two young women murdered, she had been shockingly mistreated before death and the body mutilated when life was extinct.

The three murders were strikingly similar. Last Thursday night a woman was strangled in a Twenty-second-street boardinghouse; the next morning the body of a still unidentified woman, who had been choked to death, was found in an arway in East Nineteenth street. Katie Pritschler, daughter of a restaurant waiter, disappeared a week ago today and was killed that night. A ribbon placed about the throat and drawn so tightly that it cut the flesh, showed how she died. Her body was found today.

Worst Crime of All.

If the brutality of the murders can be qualified, that of the Pritschler girl ranks first. She was assaulted, murdered and then her lifeless form was horribly mutilated.

"The graveyard" takes its name from the proximity of the old Thirteenth-street cemetery, and the locality has become the scene of several revolting murders. The majority of the residents are foreigners. The body of Katie Pritschler was discovered today within a block of her home and scarcely a hundred yards from the location of a placard placed by the father calling attention to the fact that his child was lost. How the body could have remained undiscovered for a week is not explained. The body lay upon a berry crate with seemingly no effort at concealment.

"You can say for me," Coroner Harburger declared, "that the crimes in Berlin of which the newspapers have told, have not been one-thousandth part as bad as the murder of this little girl."

Girl's Neighbor Arrested.

At the Coroner's direction Gaetano Rippolano, whose cobbler shop adjoins the girl's home, was arrested and asked to explain his absence from his shop last Friday. He established the fact that he had spent the day at Bristol, Conn. The girl is said to have frequented Rippolano's place, and a search of the shop brought to light a man's shirt which bore red stains. The cobbler was arrested and remanded to the Coroner.

Giuseppe Bonfante, Rippolano's partner, was questioned, but threw little light on the case and was not detained. The police also began a search for a woman who is said to have formerly roomed at the Pritschler home, but who left there after a quarrel and took lodgings in the house where the girl's body was found.

When the news of the finding of the little one's body spread through the neighborhood, excitement rose to such a pitch that the removal of the body and the arrest of Rippolano caused almost a riot. Many thousands of persons were in the nearby streets when the wagon from the morgue arrived. At sight of the covered body the crowd vented its grief and rage in a babel of tongues. The police were compelled to use force to get through the street.

Enraged Mob Smashes Windows.

Soon afterward the arrest of the cobbler became known and the crowd charged the prisoner's shop. Rippolano had been safely removed to the station house, but his shop windows were smashed, and only the determined front of the police reserves, who clubbed right and left, prevented greater damage.

John Kusimich, the Russian watchman under arrest as a suspicious person, and who is said to have been seen in the company of the girl whose body was found in the area way on East Ninth street, was today remanded without bail until Saturday. No clew to the murder in Twenty-second street was secured today.

Later it was decided to hold Bonfante for examination tomorrow. Dora Messer, who is said to have been seen in the company of the cobbler, was arrested in the night court and held for the Coroner.

WILL NOT ALLOW RENOMINATION

Roosevelt's Resolution Firmly Made.

URGED INDOORSEMENT OF TAFT

Action of Ohio Committee Prevents Acceptance.

FAITHFUL TO HIS FRIEND

Man Deep in President's Confidence Says He Is Actively Backing Up Taft and Could Not Play Him False.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(Special)—President Roosevelt will not permit the Republican National convention to nominate him for another term. This information comes from a source that can be absolutely relied upon—one so deep in the confidence of the President and in knowledge of his purposes that, if made known, it would be universally accepted as fact without question.

The action of the Republican State Committee in Ohio on Tuesday led to the declaration quoted. The authority for the statement went on to say further, in corroboration of his own knowledge and opinion, that Mr. Roosevelt would not have permitted the Ohio Republicans formally to commit themselves to Secretary Taft if he were not unalterably determined not to be a candidate himself.

It is one of the President's characteristics to stick to his friends. Of course, he would put his friend Taft in a very unpleasant position if he should allow Mr. Taft to be a formal candidate for the Presidency and then accept it himself.

"Whatever else may be charged against Roosevelt, that kind of work never has been, even by his bitterest opponents," said the gentleman interviewed. "Up to the time the Ohio state committee acted by formal resolution, Roosevelt could have indicated to Taft that he had better wait; but I happen to know that the President has urged and approved of the course taken in Ohio."

It is no secret that Mr. Roosevelt regards Mr. Taft as the most available and, in some respects, the most capable man to follow him in the White House. Undoubtedly he would like to see Mr. Taft elected.

Hanley for State Rights.

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 1.—Upholding the rights of the individual states against encroachment of their rights by Federal legislation, Governor Hanley, in a speech delivered here to the Chautauqua Assembly yesterday took occasion to speak for conservatism in dealing with the problems of the country. He thought most of them were problems that the state could solve without the intervention and help of the National Government, and he deprecated the reaching out of the Federal arm into purely state matters. After referring to problems resulting from trade combinations and the accumulation of large fortunes, Governor Hanley said:

"In matters of such moment we cannot afford to thoughtlessly follow impulsive leadership, however high its character or pure its purpose.

"President Roosevelt has earned the confidence and the gratitude of his countrymen by courageous work and signal service, and I do not speak in unkindly criticism, for I believe in the purity of his purposes and in his greatness. But he is not infallible, however strong of soul and pure of heart he may be."

WILLIAMS BEATS VARDAMAN

Leads in Democratic Primaries for Mississippi Senatorship.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 1.—(Midnight)—Incomplete returns from the Democratic primaries held today throughout the state at this hour show Congressman John Sharp Williams leading Governor Vardaman for the Senatorial nomination by about three to one. The count is progressing slowly because of the extreme length of the ticket.

For Lieutenant-Governor, Luther Manship is leading by a large majority. The day was favored by excellent weather and an unusually heavy vote was polled. No disorder was reported from any point.

SAYS NATION MUST RULE

Jenkins Predicts Civil War if State Rights Are Enforced.

CHICPEWA FALLS, Wis., Aug. 1.—Congressman Jenkins, chairman of the House Judiciary committee, last night issued a statement relative to the North Carolina Railroad rate tangle. He says there has never been any event since the Civil War that calls for so severe condemnation as the recent senseless trade in behalf of states against the Nation. He adds that it is humiliating that the matter has been compromised and that the Nation has to some extent surrendered.

"The Civil War was the result of such agitation and we may have earlier than we wait another civil war," he said. "To avert such a calamity and to preserve the Nation, we must conform to the law, obey the law and have the law enforced according to the framework provided in the Constitution."

Judge Jenkins points out that the Supreme Court of the United States is made the final judge between state and Nation. Mr. Jenkins believes the executive of the state should keep cool, maintain his dignity and remember we have to depend upon the judiciary of the country to save the Union.

"Ever since the Civil War," he said, "other states have had similar troubles

BATTLE AT GATES OF SEOUL

Suicide of Commander Signal for Men to Fight.

GATHERING IN MUTINEERS

Final Act in Revolution Causes Des- perate Fight in Barracks—Band of Rebels Escapes and Roams the Country.

SEOUL, Aug. 1. 11 A. M.—A battalion of Corean troops, resenting disarmament, mutinied and, at a given signal, attacked three mounted Japanese officers, who had arrived at Little West Gate barracks to demand the surrender of their mutineers. Two of the Japanese officers escaped on horseback. The third one fell from his horse and escaped afoot.

Firing then began and the Coreans sallied out of Little West Gate into the street, but were forced to retire under a Japanese fire from the lower gate. General Okazaki ordered reinforcements at 10:30 o'clock and the barracks and adjacent buildings were completely invested. There was continuous sniping and also fire from the Japanese machine guns.

The entrances to the Japanese section of the city have been under a heavy guard ofgendarmes since midnight and troops and machine guns are stationed in all the streets.

General Okazaki believes that he has ample troops to control the situation. The other three Corean garrisons have not mutinied. The invested quarter is adjacent to the consulate quarter, which is protected by a strong cordon of Japanese troops.

TWO BATTALIONS IN REVOLT

Commander Commits Suicide and Then Shooting Begins.

SEOUL, Aug. 1 (evening).—Unverified official returns from this morning's conflict between Japanese troops and the First Battalion of the First Shilwa Regiment gave the number killed and wounded at 60 Coreans and about 40 Japanese.

About 3000 men willingly disbanded, marching without arms through the parade ground, where according to rank, they received gratuities ranging from 25 to 50 yen. At 8 o'clock this morning the Minister of War read the receipt of disbandment to the higher Corean officers at the house of General Hasegawa.

Major Pakseung Hwan, commander of the First Battalion of the First Shilwa Regiment, returned to the barracks and committed suicide. This excited his subordinates and also a battalion of the Second Shilwa, which attacked two Japanese officers and their orderlies. One battalion marched on the south gate, where a clash occurred, in which Captain Kajawara and two others were killed.

Over 100 Coreans escaped with their rifles and divided into two bands. They are still abroad, but on account of the rain no trouble is expected tonight.

The receipt of disbandment, which is attributed to Iwaning, but for which the Japanese say Marquis Ito is also responsible, begins by saying that the existing army of hirelings is unfit for the native defense and orders them to disband and receive a gratuity and not to commit any reprehensible acts.

COREANS LOST 120 IN FIGHT

100 Guards Consulates and Is Gath- ering Up Mutineers.

SEOUL, Korea, Aug. 1.—According to official reports received by General

Governor J. K. Vardaman, of Mississippi, defeated for Senator by Congressman John Sharp Williams.

Hasegawa up to 9 o'clock this evening, there were 120 casualties among the Coreans as a result of the riots growing out of the disbandment of the Corean troops.

Marquis Ito in his audience with the Emperor this afternoon assured the Emperor of his complete safety. Marquis Ito provided the foreign consulates with guards tonight as a precaution for safety.

The imprisonment of fugitives from the Shilwa regiment continues. The remainder of the Corean army distributed throughout the country will be disbanded as fast as the Imperial receipt reaches the different stations. No trouble is anticipated. The Residency General regards the urgent question, that relating to abdication, as settled, and believes that an army of 7000 Japanese is sufficient to maintain order.

HAVE NOTHING TO SHOOT WITH

Coreans in Poor Condition to Make Successful Stand.

TOKIO, Aug. 1.—With the exception of an unsuccessful attack upon the Japanese troops yesterday by some disbanded Corean soldiers, which resulted in slight casualties on both sides, the Japanese losing one officer, a general calm is reported in Seoul.

It is believed that the lack of ammunition by the disaffected soldiers, coupled with the strictest surveillance on the part of the Japanese authorities, will prevent risings on an extensive scale.

BATTLE AT COREAN BARRACKS

Forty or Fifty Shot in Battle With Mutineers.

SEOUL, Aug. 2.—(11 A. M.)—In a conflict today at the West Gate barracks, between Japanese troops and disbanded Corean soldiers, 40 or 50 were killed and wounded, including several Japanese, who were arrested and imprisoned them. Firing has ceased.

The American Consulate was struck by several bullets. No foreigners were injured, and the city appears to be safe.

COME TO APPEAL FOR HELP

Warn Us Against Japan.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Hoping to induce the American government to intervene and prevent Japan from obtaining further domination in Korea, Prince Tyong Out Yi and Yi Sang Sul, two of Korea's delegates to The Hague, who were denied admission to the peace tribunal, arrived here today upon the steamer Maestic.

"I and my companions," said Prince Yi, who speaks English, "represented the Corean government by authority of the Emperor, but Japan used all her cunning to show that we appeared at The Hague without any authority. We blame our treatment in Holland entirely to the Japanese domination, and while there have been no disorders yet, unless something is done there will be a serious uprising.

"We knew before we left Korea that Japan would force the Emperor to abdicate. Japan seeks to drive us from our land and destroy our kingdom. Korea has always been a peaceful nation. We have no guns, arms or powder, and we expect the American people in their fairness and justice to interfere. The United States does not realize what Japan's policy is in the Far East and what it portends for the Republic Convention Refuses to Denounce Democratic Constitution—Message Sent Roosevelt Indorsing His Policy.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Aug. 1.—For Governor, Frank Frantz; Lieutenant-Governor, N. G. Turk, Checotah, I. T.; Secretary of State, Thomas Robnett, Ardmore, I. T.; Attorney-General, Silas Reid, El Reno.

With the chief places on the state ticket filled, the Republican state convention took a breathing spell late tonight. Not in the history of the party in Oklahoma has there been such an ovation to one man as the one that greeted the announcement that Governor Frantz was renominated head of the ticket without opposition. The delegates cheered for several minutes and balked the efforts of Chairman Murphy to restore order. The action was not unexpected by the feeble opposition and its resignation seemed to carry the convention off its feet. There was little division on the other nominations.

TAFT'S NAME IS CHEERED

Republican Convention Refuses to Denounce Democratic Constitu- tion—Message Sent Roosevelt Indorsing His Policy.

With the chief places on the state ticket filled, the Republican state convention took a breathing spell late tonight. Not in the history of the party in Oklahoma has there been such an ovation to one man as the one that greeted the announcement that Governor Frantz was renominated head of the ticket without opposition. The delegates cheered for several minutes and balked the efforts of Chairman Murphy to restore order. The action was not unexpected by the feeble opposition and its resignation seemed to carry the convention off its feet. There was little division on the other nominations.

Denounce New Constitution.

The unexpected occurred when the section in the platform denouncing the Democratic constitution was eliminated and the party merely pledged itself to secure amendments to the document. The platform indorses the National and territorial administrations and denounces the Democratic party for its failure to "comprehend the needs of the people or to deal with the problems of government."

The platform contains an anti-trust plank, favors the removal of restrictions from Indian land and indorses good roads, but remains silent on the prohibition question.

Lusty Cheers for Taft.

The first applause elicited in the convention was for Secretary of War Taft. A large banner bearing the words, "Hear Taft at Oklahoma City August 21" had been stretched across the stage, and when the delegates spied it they cheered lustily.

Congressman McGuire brought the convention to its feet by suggesting the following telegram to President Roosevelt, which was ordered sent to the President: "The Republican party, in convention assembled, send you loyal and affectionate greetings. Our platform indorses your administration and your policy of a square deal for every man and every nation of every clime."

The Frantz forces won the first test of strength when Ralph Campbell was named temporary chairman by acclamation.

Wild Discussion Breaks Out.

A clash that was followed by wild demonstration came when J. S. McGowan, of Snyder, Oklahoma, in a speech attempted to argue against the naming of a ticket and for use rejection of the constitution. He had captured the convention with his eloquence and finally declared that the party could not afford to name a ticket under the new constitution. The delegates were swept off their feet for a moment, but the friends of Governor Frantz, soon realized what they believed was a trap laid to stampede the convention against Frantz. Then disorder ruled the gathering. Delegates hissed and yelled for Mr. McGowan to sit down. The speaker attempted to stick out, but the convention was against him. The chairman tried to quiet the delegates, but without avail. Delegates rushed to the platform and threatened, but the speaker held his ground.

"I don't know whether Frantz would swear to support that constitution or not," shouted Mr. McGowan, "but we have had Governors who would not do it."

Frantz Men Crush Minority.

At this point, Frank Rush, of Blackburn, carried a Pawnee County Frantz banner to the platform and jumped to a press table. The delegates wildly excited, sprang to their feet shouting for Frantz and a state ticket. Logan County quickly joined its Frantz banner with Pawnee. Delegates left their seats and joined in the rush. Policemen went to the stage to prevent trouble, but the affair was too one-sided for the better minority to lift its hand. D. L. Sleeper, of Tulsa, standing on a table, ultimately succeeded in restoring order.

The following additional nominations were made at the night session: For Treasurer, M. S. Stilwell, of Bartlesville, I. T.; Corporation Commissioners, T. J. Dore, Westville; John Krafton, Fortwatomie County, and John Jensen, Tulsa.

At 12:30 the convention adjourned until 9 A. M., to complete the nominations and wind up its business.
