

R. M. CAKE IS STILL THANKING DEER Not Ready to Announce His Intentions With Regard to Senatorship.

SILENT AS THE SPHINX But Decision Seems to Be in Process of Incubation - Portland Lawyer Well Equipped for the Race.

Political prophets expect H. M. Cake to be a big figure in the coming senatorial race.

In the middle of the afternoon. The humidity, was lighter and altogether Portland had a most comfortable and refreshing day.

A SPLENDID PUBLICATION SUNSET MAGAZINE ISSUES PACIFIC NORTHWEST NUMBER.

Will Attract Attention to Portland and This Entire Section - Issue Over 100,000 Copies.

Sunset Magazine for August is just out, and is an unusually attractive number.

Neither is more than one of the Cake brothers to run for office in the event that H. M. Cake decides to enter the race.

What Mr. Cake finally decides to come out for the toga at the primary election in April, he will know just how to make it warm for his antagonists.

There is nothing quite so valuable in attempting to state as to know your audience.

But if Mr. Cake is well equipped for the campaign, much more can be said of his qualifications for the office.

What Mr. Cake's platform will be in case he pursues the Senatorship, remains to be seen.

CLASHES WITH MAGISTRATE DETECTIVE MAHER REFUSED WARRANT IN POLICE COURT.

Judge Cameron and District Attorney's Sleuth Differ Regarding Mrs. Sleight's Condition.

Maher lives in the neighborhood, and yesterday morning, before court convened, appeared before Judge Cameron to ask that a warrant be issued for Mrs. Sleight's arrest.

"It would be better to lay the matter before the County Court and have three physicians appointed to examine her sanity," Detective Maher's temperature at once began to rise.

"You can't talk that way to me," retorted the Judge. "Do as I have suggested and quiet down."

"I'll not stand for that," exclaimed Maher. "I'm a citizen, not a Judge. You are not on the bench now."

"Leave at once," ordered the Judge, "or I'll have you put under arrest."

Maher then walked out. Later J. J. Driscoll, brother-in-law of Maher, asked the Judge to issue the warrant, but he still refused.

"As a matter of fact," said Maher, "and according to Judge Cameron's own statement, Mrs. Sleight may be insane, but then, it was his duty, after the City Attorney made the complaint, to issue the warrant, give her a fair trial, and if she was proved guilty commit her to the County Court for an examination as to her sanity."

The police records will show that at 12 o'clock Wednesday night the residents of the part of the city in which Mrs. Sleight lives telephoned to the police station for officers to quell the noisy woman.

"My brother-in-law and I appeared as co-defendants, and I think that we were entitled to a little recognition from Judge Cameron. This woman for whom I asked the warrant twice was arrested and convicted in the Municipal Court. The City Attorney made the complaint to me, Officer Franklin. I did not threaten the Judge, and do not bear him any ill will, but I think the treatment I received in his court was altogether wrong."
