SAYS HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE FOR ANY OFFICE.

No Combination Formed With Fulton-Brother Would Have Only Senatorship.

Cake formally denies the rumor that a combine has been effected between himself and his brother, H. M. Cake, and United States Senator Fulton and Congressman Ellis. The reported compact was that in consideration of W. M. Cake keeping out of the Senatorial contest, H. M. Cake should receive the support of the allied interests for the Congressional nomination to succeed Ellis who was to be made Federal Judge in a district to be created in Eastern Oregon. A like agreement was said to have proposed that W. M. Cake should be the choice for Governor, Fulton to receive the combined support of the other three in his candidacy to succeed himself in the United States Senate. The alleged compact had already been denied by Senator Fulton and Congressman Ellis and the statement of Mr. Cake is intended to complete the refutation of the report. While denying the rumor of any coalition, Mr. Cake says that his brother, H. M. Cake, will be a candidate for only one office if any, that of United States Senator, and that if he decides to be a candidate for that office he will announce his candidacy at the proper time. Mr. Cake's statement follows:

My name has been used as being a can-My name has been used as being a candidate either for Congress or the office of Governor, and also there has been a reported coalition between Senator Fulton, my brother and myself for our mutual benefit. The rumor of this alleged candidary and coalition has spread until it has been noticed by a portion of the press throughout the state, and I feel that I should make a statement in relation there-

First, as to my candidacy, I wish to state most emphatically that I am not and will not be a candidate for the office of Governor or Congress or any any other office or not. Any statement or rumor or suggestion, either by word of mouth or otherwise, to the contrary must be accepted as being without any foundation whatever.

Second, Senator Fulton was entitled to the courtesy of first denying any alleged combination as above stated. He has done so and truthfully stated that there was no combination of any kind with him, and that he has not met me since his return from Washington. I will say further that neither have his friends nor anyone, in fact, sug-gested any combination whatever.

In my judgment, no candidate for nom-inations at the primary election can suc-cessfully make any combination with any other candidate, and such a combination or coalition as has been rumored with rela-tion to Senator Fulton, my brother or myself is impossible. Deputy Sheriff Bulger was careful to take his revolver when he went to St. Johns yesterday to serve on L. M. Gosney, a summons to appear in a divorce suit, and Bulger found before he had been there long that he needed the weapon.

The Deputy Sheriff met Mrs. Gosney before he reached her home. She told him that she feared to go into the house because her husband might attack her. "All right," said Bulger, "I'll go in with you."

They found that Gosney had gone to St.
Johns on some errand. While he was gone the Deputy Sheriff talked to Gosney's brother, who married Mrs. Gosney's sister, and learned that Gosney had a revolver, which he had purchased the day before. Bulger was told that Gos-ney carried it loaded.

"Give me your gun," Bulger demand-ed, when Gosney came in.
"I haven't any," replied Gosney, pull-

Before Gosney knew what had hap-pened the Deputy Sheriff had jerked the gun from the man's hip pocket, and as Gosney endeavored to wrench the weapon out of Bulger's hand, the Deputy put the muzzle of his own revolver to Gosney's breast and commanded him to stand

Gosney explained that he had pur-chased the gun to protect himself, his brother having threatened his life, but the testimony of Gosney's wife was that her husband had told her that he was planning to kill her.

"My brother has a gun," said Gosney. "and I demand, as an American citizen, that you search him." Bulger, search ed the other man but found no weapon. The Gosney brothers married sisters, but on account of L. M. Gosney's alleged cruelty to his wife they did not get on well together.
