ENGLISH HOP CROP

Latest Estimate of Yield Is 450,000 Cwt.

FIGURES FOR CALIFORNIA

Heavy Rain Storms in the New York Producing Section-Small Local Demand for Spot Goods or Contracts.

A cablegram from their London office was received by Klaber, Wolf & Nettle yesterday, which reported very little lice in the English hopyards and estimated the English with a continuance of the present favorable weather, at 450,000 cwt.

M. J. Netter, of this firm, has report from California that the Sacramento district will have some of the new crop ready shipment in the coming week. He states that there are about 21,000 bales of 1906 hops remaining in growers' hands in

J. M. Spicer, who formerly represented the California branch of Kluber, Wolf & Netter, has come to Oregon to represent this firm in the Independence and Dallas sections, with headquarters at Independence, where he took up his duties yester day. Mr. Spicer has had many years' experience in the growing and inspection of hops and has been held in much esteem by California growers. He is certain to be come a favorite with the producers in the section in which he will hereafter operate. E. M. Young, who formerly attended to the firm's buying in that section, has given up the hop business to engage in other interest to growers is the formation of a partnership between Harry L. Hart and T. Henry Hubbard, two of the best-known dealers of the state. The firm has just opened an office in Salem and later in the season will establish another branch in Washington, either at Tacoma or Puyallup. The market has ruled full this week, both for spot and contract hops. The only trans-actions reported yesterday were in the Gervais and Woodburn sections, where T. A. Livesley & Co. bought about 200 bales of including the two Reuben lots, at rices said to be 515 and 6 cents.

The prevailing moist weather, it is feared, will bring a renewed attack of vermin in Valley yards, but a brief rainy spell so far ahead of picking time does not cause uch uneasiness to farmers.

A press dispatch received yesterday from Sacramento said:

Sacramento said:

The hop crop this year will, it is said, be about 25 per cent less than that of last year. Local dealers estimate that the entire yield of the state will not pass 80,000 bales. It is figured that Sacramento and Folo Counties will produce about 27,000 bales. Dealers, though they admit that the hops are of excellent quality this year, are offering but T cents a pound and no sales or contracts are reported.

reported by the Waterville Times of Au-

There is no change in the hop situation here with the exception that some of the yards were badly whipped by the strong winds that prevailed here early in the week. Heavy rainstorms have been almost daily occurrences here, and this morning some hall fell. As far as can be learned, the yards in this immediate vicinity were not damaged by it. The heaviest part of the storm seemed to pass north of this village, but as yet no reports of damage have been received.

FRONT STREET BUTTER ADVANCED. Easter Tone in the Cheese Market-Eggs

The best outside brands of butter have city creamery price. With one or two ex-

The demand for cheese is not as active as it was last week, and this has given a degree of easiness to the market. In some quarters It is thought probable that the price may recede a cent. The weakness, however, is only temporary, from all indications, as the Improvement is perceptible in the tone of the egg market, especially as regards No. 1 stock, for which there is a steady demand. Less effort is being made to force the sale of seconds, as the futility of such course has been demonstrated. A good many East-ern eggs are being offered, but the trade does not take kindly to them. From now on the market for strictly fresh ranch eggs should continue in satisfactory shape. Arrivals of poultry yesterday did not quite ruled steady at the quoted prices.

BULLISH VIEW OF COFFEE MARKET. strong Undertone Indicated by the Statistical Position of the Article. A bullish view of the future of the coffee market is taken by one of the leading brokers of New York, who says in his latest weekly circular:

brokers of New York, who says in his latest weekly circular:

If the current crop in Brazil is either much smaller than anticipated or late in coming to market, the supplies of coffee svaliable for contracts in the nearby months in this market are much below what they ought to be. A similar condition exists in Europe, even where the supplies appear so large, as in Havre, and still all months sell at the same price; but the position there is a good deal like it is here, the available coffee is controlled by the Government of San Paulo, and the speculators who sold there or here, have little or no coffee to settle their contracts with. In transferring spot months to futures they no longer get the heavy premiums formerly existing, and this makes the position of the entire market very different from the past year.

It is very difficult to control stocks at high prices, but at very low prices as at present it is quite easy. With prospects of a smaller crop than expected for the current season, and recent and present unfavorable weather for the growing crop, the holders of spots here and in Europe will find a steady demand for consumption, notwithsianding that both here and in Europe the interior buys from hand-to-mouth only; the fact is the great majority of the trade have no stocks.

AND PRICES TAKE TUMBLE

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—The squall which broke over the stock market today has seen brewing for several days and there are not wanting observers to contend that the seeds of trouble were sown in the fil-additional market movement to advance prices which was embarked were not was contend to a seed of the seeds of trouble were sown in the fil-additional market movement to advance prices which was embarked were not refer to the seeds of trouble were sown in the fil-additional additionally as the seeds of trouble were sown in the fil-additional market movement to advance prices which was embarked were not refer to the seeds of trouble were sown in the fil-additional market movement to advance prices which was embarked were not refer to the seeds of trouble were sown in the fil-additional market movement to advance prices. vised market movement to advance prices which was embarked upon under fiamboyant auspices late in June. then perfectly well foreseen, have been overtaken by the bad effect on sentiment of the renewed outbreak of hostility against corporations.

The stock market was disposed to view with mild disquiet the news of the enormous fines levied on the Standard Oil Company by Judge Landis last Saturday. Every day since then, however, the daily news has consumed large space with the announcement of new measures or pians in pursuit of the railroads or other corporations. The relicration has got on the nerves of Wall street, and the disposition to sell has been increasing, and the decline in prices has guined cumulative velocity, as is the way with falling bodies, the outcome being a spasm of liquidation today.

No one questions that there was large and important liquidation in progress, although the part played by the bears in forcing prices lower and in precipitating the liquidation was also obvious. The bear element had grown cautious after the considerable decline that has occurred this week, and especially after the small disturbance in the early London market today. American securities were pronounced a bright spot in the London market coday. American securities were pronounced a bright spot in the London market, and there was some buying for foreign account here. The result was the show of strength in the early part of the day and some domand from the shorts to cover. This appears later to have been a device on the part of the more influential bear leaders to shake off a weak following.

There were signs enough as the morning advanced that important ilquidation was still in progress. The onstaught of the bears thereupon was firere and the siump in prices somewhat alarming. The market proved to be honey-combed with stop-loss orders, refuting the common supposition of its seld-out condition. Goasip of several days past was revived in full force of the scaling-down of or closing-out of speculative accounts following a recent return from Europe. The stocks most affected by the weakness were those identified in popular es Groceries, Nots, Etc.

Enormous Lines of Wheat Sold by

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Heavy realizing sales caused a slump of more than 2 cents in the price of wheat today on the local exchange At the close the September de-livery was off 2% cents. Corn was down %c. Oats were up isc to %c. Provisions were &c to 22 isc lower. The wheat market today was completely in the hands of the bears, who pounded prices vigorously. Commission houses also disposed of enormous lines of wheat for disposed of enormous lines of wheat for discouraged longs. The conditions in this country favored the bear side of the market, the weather in the Northwest being favorable for a new crop, and the receipts of new wheat in the Southwest showing a constant increase. The severe break in prices in Wall street also had a depressing effect on the wheat market. The market lacked substantial support, the principal demand coming from shorts. The close was weak and at the lowest point of the day. September opened a shade to \(\frac{1}{2}\) \(\frac{1}{2}\) \(\frac{1}{2}\) c higher at 90\(\frac{1}{2}\) to 90\(\frac{1}{2}\) c and declined to 87\(\frac{1}{2}\) \(\frac{1}{2}\) September opened a shade to \(\frac{1}{2}\) \(\frac{1}{2}\) c higher at 90\(\frac{1}{2}\) to 90\(\frac{1}{2}\) c and declined to 87\(\frac{1}{2}\) \(\frac{1}{2}\) September opened a shade to \(\frac{1}{2}\) \(\frac{1}{2}\) c higher at 10\(\frac{1}{2}\) to 10\(\frac{1}{2}\) c and declined to 87\(\frac{1}{2}\) \(\frac{1}{2}\) September opened unchanged to a shade country holdings caused bearish sentiment in the corn pit. The late strength in oats partially offset these influences and prices rallied somewhat from the low point of the day. The close, however, was easy. September opened unchanged to \(\frac{1}{2}\) c higher at 35\(\frac{1}{2}\) c.

The oats market was extremely erralic. The market was weak early in the day because of heavy liquidatory sales, but later prices rallied sharply on buying by bears. During the remainder of the day, despite several slight breaks, sentiment continued bullish. The market closed strong. Spot opened unchanged to \(\frac{1}{2}\) c higher at 48\(\frac{1}{2}\) to 100\(\frac{1}{2}\) c, sold between 42\(\frac{1}{2}\) c and 46\(\frac{1}{2}\), and closed at 43\(\frac{1}{2}\) fe 43\(\frac{1}{2}\) c.

Provisions were weak on scattered selling by longs. A 10c to 15\(\frac{1}{2}\) decline in the price of live hogs was largely responsible for the weakness. At the closed pork was off 22\(\frac{1}{2}\) c. discouraged longs. The conditions in this
