The camp was asleep by dark, except for the guard detail. During the next three weeks the bat-talion will have a touch of real cam-paign marching. The command, 150 strong, is out for its annual field prac-tice. Until the end of the month there will be daily marches of from 15 to 20 miles with nightly historyce in solution.

What the Press Agents Say. "THE UNDERTOW" TONIGHT

Great Graft Play Creates Sensation at the Marquam.

One of the most sensational dramatic sensations of the period is "The Undertow," which is to be seen this week at the Marquam. The Stockwell-MacGregor Company has certainly hit the popular chord in presenting this new American drama of graft in politics. The lines are brilliant, the situations intensely dramatic and the heart interest overwhelming. The newspaper of fice scene is alone worth the admission price. There will be a matines tomorrow.

"A Bachelor's Honeymoon."

There is only one comedy playing in Portland this week, and it is at the Star Theater, where the stock company is presenting "A Bachelor's Honeymoon." The leading roles are played by Earl Dwire, of the Baker Company, and Claudia Colona. There is not a solemn character in the cast, and each one has something to do to cheer up the audience. As a laughter show, "A Bachelor's Honeymoon" is a prize winner. This is the first time this standard comedy has been played anywhere at such bargain prices. There will be matinees Saturday and Sunday.

"Jim the Westerner" a Hit

A great big hit has been made this week by the Allen Stock Company in "Jim the Westerner" at the Lyric, and thousands of enthusiastic theatergoers are talking about ft. Everywhere you go they will tell you that the show of the week is at the Lyric, and as a result the house is crowded at every performance. The company is more than making good in the various roles and the management has done itself proud in the matter of stage settings and effects.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"Are You a Mason?" Monday.

The next offering of the Stockwell-Mac-Gregor Company at the Marquam will be the funniest of modern farces, "Are You a Mason?" in which the company is certain to repeat its triumphs of this week in "The Undertow." It will keep you laughing from the rise of the first to the fall of the lass curtain.

Beginning Monday night, the stock com-pany at the Star Theater will present "The Scout's Revenge," a new Western melo-drams in four acts. This will be the first time this play has been seen in this city. It is filled with action and stirring situa-tions. Seats for "The Scout's Revenge" are now selling.

"The Two Orphans," at the Lyric.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

Ibsen at the Grand.

The only vaudeville sketch ever written by the late Henrik Ibsen, the world-famous dramatist, is the feature of the current bill at the Grand. "Friendship" is unusual in plot and treatment, as would be expected of Ibsen. It is presented by David F. Perkins and Henry A. Lappin, two vaudeville actors of note. Arthur Rigby, a blackface comedian, is one of the big hits of the show. Those are samples of what the Grand is giving this week. The entertainment is in all respects up to the standard.

Big Vaudeville Acts at the Grand. Next week the Grand Theater will have one of the bills that has made the house famous, no less than three big feature acts appearing. The first of these is Harlan

CONWAY CASTLE ARRIVES IN

Long Voyage From Antwerp Due to Delays by Heavy Weather.

ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 8 .- (Special.) -- The three-masted British bark Conway Cas-tle arrived in this evening, 212 days from Antwerp with a general cargo including about 2000 tons of cement, consigned to Grace & Company, of Portland. Captain John Jones, master of the vessel, says the long and tedious trip is the result of delays by heavy weather off the Horn, and the fact he was compelled to put into Valparaiso for water, and light winds and calms in the North Pacific.

The Conway Castle sailed from Ant-werp on January 9 and made a splendid run across the Atlantic and to the Horn. There a succession of heavy westerly gales was encountered and the bark was buffeted back and forth for 35 days before rounding into the Pacific. While there Captain Jones sighted the British ship Dalgonar, which arrived here in June and was in company with her for pearly two weeks.

CONWAY CASTLE IN ing of the vessel caused the pipes to leak so that the water in the casks became tainted with sait water and was spoiled. Captain Jones decided to put into Valparalso for a fresh supply, which he did, arriving there on Sunday, May 19, and leaving on the following Tuesday. From the South American port to the line the bark made a good run of 25 days but since then has encountered only light winds and calms. encountered only light winds and calms. She arrived off the mouth of the river this morning and was brought inside at > Captain Jones says that altering his course to put into Valparaiso and his de-lay there lengthened his passage fully a month. The Conway Castle carries a crew of 25, all told, and all are well on month.

Antilochus Brings Big Cargo.

The steamer Casco, Captain Ahlin, ar rived up yesterday with a full cargo from San Francisco for Portland. The Casco brought, in addition to the canned stuff. a large quantity of oak logs for a local furniture factory. The timbers are all Siberian oak and were transshipped at San Francisco.

MONTEITH IS EXONERATED

Charges of Graft Against Park Superintendent Not Sustained.

Park Superintendent A. D. Monteith was exonerated of the charge of padding the payroll of the park department and keep-ing a private rig at the expense of the city, at an investigation held vesterday by city, at an investigation need yesternay by the City Park Board. It developed that the charges were nothing more than spite-work of Charles Passig, a discharged em-ploye, and several of his friends employed in the park, who have been opposed to Superintendent Montelth since he was apointed a year ago.
Passig called several witnesses to substantlate the charges, but proved nothing. On the other hand Superintendent Monteith called several witnesses, their testimony tending to show that the charges had been maliciously made.

After remaining in session from 10 o'clock in the morning until 2 o'clock in the afterneon without adjourning for the noon hour, the board went into executive session to consider the subject. The mem-bers were behind closed doors about ten minutes, when they appeared and an-nounced that the superintendent had been nearly two weeks.

Although the bark was not seriously damaged by the gales, her decks were awash almost continually and the strain-whole system.

ATTENTION CITIZENS:

The City of Portland and the State of Oregon are both growing rapidly. There are lots more people who will come to enjoy our natural resources, beautiful surroundings and exquisite climate if we offer any inducements whatever. Our greatest fault is lack of unity of interests and LOYALTY to our home industries. Manufacturing keeps our money at home and gives employment to our own people. Let's get in and patronize everything we possibly can made at home. We will guarantee that manufacturers producing goods here will fully guarantee them equal to, if not better than foreign brands. We do, on the shoes we manufacture, and, in fact, make the fiat assertion that if we do not produce a BETTER article for the money than can be had elsewhere, we do not ask your patronage. Why? Because we are here on the ground and know what this country wants in a shoe. Ask your dealer for our Shoes. If he does not supply you, you know what he is doing in the way of advancing our city and state. Our name—"The J. A. Reid Shoe"—is stamped with a steel stamp on the bottom of every pair.

Police Court Rudely Separates Chums Arrested as Vagrants

Orders Tom Kinney to Leave City and Sends Richard Anderson to Jail for Thirty Days, in Order to Break Up Unprofitable Partnership.

HE bonds of friendship had become so close between Richard Anderson and Tom Kinney, two Vancouver youths, that the law was compelled to sever them in a most forcible manner, yesterday. It seems that the two young mer were useful lumber mill hands before they became acquainted. Meeting they found such a harmony of temperament, ideas and purposes existing between themselves that they got to idling about fishing, and talking their time away, instead of working.

Two weeks ago they came to Portland and continued to loaf in the face of an absence of funds. Free lunches by day and an unpaid-for room by night kept them happy until the landlady became suspicious and demanded pay. This not being tendered, she notified the police who interviewed the young men, found they had not been working and took them up as vagrants.

"It is plain to me that you two will continue worthless so long as you are allowed the luxury of each other's comallowed the luxury of each pany." said Judge Cameron.
"We will leave the city," said Kinney, speaking for both.
"Doubtless," said the court. "But you in relays. Anderson, who will leave in relays. Anderson, who strikes me as the most worthless, will remain here 30 days, while Kinney will leave inside of an hour."

"Gladly," said Kinney. "Thank you.
"I'm always unlucky" said Anderson. "Hang it all, anyway."
