WATER MAIN WANTED .- The contractor for the paving of Grand avenue, between Belmont and Bast Stark streets, say they are now ready to start laying pavement when the Water Committee gets its 12inch main down. The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company is finishing lay-ing the required steel rails except at the intersection of Grand avenue and East Morrison street, but this intersection can not be relaid until the iron comes from the East. The intersection is a network of rails and cross rails and the iron must be specially prepared, which takes time. The rest of the street may be paved as soon as the water main is down but there is no indication that the main will soon be laid. No pipe has been de-livered and nobody seems to know anything about when it will be delivered.

The main was to be hild just before the paving was done, say the contractors and they are ready to do their work now.

The block is occupied with living tents containing families from different portions of the country who came prepared to stay all Winter. Butler Found Guilty.

Rev. D. W. Butler was found guilty in Judge Cameron's Court yesterday morning and with Mrs. Gilbert, the woman, who has led him away from the narrow path of domestic righteousness, was put on parole for 30 days their bail of $300 still held to insure good faith. Letters from Mrs. Gilbert to the wayward preacher which Mrs. Butler had found in the wastebasket substantiated by the dis-covery of the pair together last Sunday night was strong enough evidence conviction. Mrs. Butler asked the Judge not to send her husband to jail and the court let them go on parole with the understanding that their acquaintanceship

TO BE STUDIED CITIES

Data Gathered Will Be Embodied in Series of Articles to Be Published in Manufacturers' Record.

Albert Phenis, special correspondent for the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, was the guest of Tom Richardson, manager of the Commercial Club yesterday. Mr. Phenis is making a tour of the Pacific Coast in the interests of his magazine and is commissioned to write a series of articles on the possibilities of this Coast in the way of manufacturing de-velopment. He says he finds a very interesting situation here and expects to write concerning Portland an article that will not only be of great interest to his readers, but of considerable help in the upbuilding of this city.

This is Mr. Phenis' first visit to the Pacific Coast and he is much pleased with what he has seen. He made a tour of New England last Spring and wrote a series of articles on that part of the country, and expects to furnish a similar series from this Coast.

The Manufacturers' Record in referring to Mr. Phenis' trip to the Pacific and what he intends to write, said in a recent Record to so present the panorama of Pacific-stope development as to quicken the thoughts and energy of the people everywhere and to show to the East and to the South the limitless possibilities of this section when we put forth the same energy and activity which have been dis-played on the Pacific Coast. There are certain fundamental reasons for the ma-terial upbuilding of the territory beyond the Rocky Mountains. There are certain economic conditions which have given a foundation for material advancement, and it will be the aim of Mr. Phenis to look into the causes for its development, to study and present to our readers the reasons why that section has made such advance in agriculture and commerce. "With the great activity in the rebuilding of San Francisco, the vim and energy of Spokane, Portland and many other cities, with the great influx of population and the vast expansion of agricultural prosperity, a study of that section and what it is doing should indeed prove an inspiration not alone to the South, but to all America. We believe that the let-ters of Mr. Phenis will prove a revelation to the people who have not kept in touch with what the Far West is doing, and that in them will be found lessons which the East may well take to heart. More-over, these letters, with their influence tending to broaden the nationalization of business interests, of making every section acquainted with what other sections are doing, will show how well rounded is American prosperity and how little roo there is in this country for the pessimilar "In undertaking this work the Manufacturers' Record believes that it is doing for the South, for the whole East as wel as for the Pacific Coast the most import ant special work which it has ever a

"PSYCHICAL RESEARCH."

Lectures on Man's Personality and Its Importance.

PORTLAND, Aug. 14.—(To the Editor.)—Will you kindly permit me to say a word relative to the lectures on "Psychical Research." to be given at the Unitarian Church, at Seventh and Yamhill streets, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, at Sociock? The lectures will be free. The use of the church was given by the pastor and trustees as a matter of public spirit and for the benefit of the people of Portland irrespective of religious belief, or lack of belief.

In regard to the lectures themselves.

and for the benefit of the people of Forland land trespective of religious belief, or lack of belief.

In regard to the lectures themselves, they will deal with the question of man's personality and its importance in the universe from the scientific point of view. That attitude ignores both authority and revelation and substitutes communication for faith. It accepts the present-day demand for proof of claims before conceding their importance. Needless to say it does not antagonize any form of religion, even spiritualism, any more than it endorses any one. The science of psychic research has been receiving the close attention of such men as Sir Oliver Lodge, in England, and Professor William James, of Harvard, in the United States. Dr. James H. Hyslop, who will lecture in Portland, is a fine representative of the class of men who are giving their time and unusual abilities to the solving of the questions involved.

Dr. Hyslop is the author of a number of remarkable books on various subjects, and his account of his work as a psychical researcher is drawing large audiences in the cities that he is visiting. His subject for Friday evening is "Science and a Future Life."

"Only outdoor exercise in a cold climate would enable vigorous individuals of our species to digest the viands forced upon allimentary organs enfeebled by sedentary occupations," wrote Dr. Felix Oswald. Brain workers must have different food than laborers, because brain work uses up parts of the brain and nerve centers, while physical labor uses up other while physical labor uses up other parts of the body.
