SHERIFFS OF OREGON MEET

STATE ASSOCIATION HOLDS MEETING IN PORTLAND. Delinquent Tax Question Most Important Topic of Discussion. Session With Washington Men. Sheriff Stevens had no monopoly on his job yesterday afternoon, for his office was occupied by more Sheriff's than had been together at one place since this time last year, when the Oregon Sheriff's Association met in Salem. At that meeting Sheriff H. T. McClellan, of Douglas County, was elected president, and Sheriff M. F. Corrigan, of Yamhill, secretary. Those officers had charge of the meeting yesterday, but before the session closed their successors for the coming year were named, the new officers being: Sheriff Pomeroy, of Clatsop, president; and Sheriff J. W. Connell, of Washington, secretary. The association was organized in 1866 at Portland, and the following year met at Salem, and again in this city. The new law abolishes the advertising feature, but provides that when tax becomes delinquent any one may pay the amount due, with 15 per cent penalty added, and receive a certificate which entitles him to possession in case the prior owner fails to redeem the certificate with interest before the expiration of three years. It was voted as the sense of the association that the certificate plan does not apply to the 1907 levy. An inspection of the County Jail was made by the visitors, who expressed themselves much pleased with its condition and the methods employed in its management and in keeping the premises clean and in sanitary shape. The Sheriff's of Washington met yesterday at Vancouver, and today there will be a joint session of the two bodies at the Multnomah County Courthouse. Through the courtesy of Manager Freeman, of "The Oaks," the visitors of both states will be entertained at that resort either this afternoon or evening, as decided upon at the meeting, which is called for 11 o'clock.

WOODMEN HAVE CAR RIDE

Trolley Party Arouses Natives by Horn-Tooting and Bell-Ringing. The Woodmen of the World gave a trolley party last night, 30 open cars being crowded with the members of the different camps. Each member was supplied with a horn and several sets of cowbells were furnished each car. The cars started from the Lewis and Clark Fair grounds, and proceeded down Washington to Third, to Morrison, from Morrison to Nineteenth, to Northrup, to Twenty-third, thence to the Lewis and Clark Fair grounds. On the arrival of the cars at the Fair grounds the crowd visited the Oriental building, which had been brilliantly lighted for the occasion. Here brief addresses were delivered by Chief Organizer Gilroy, of the head camp; Mayor Harry Lane and Mayor Couch, of St. John. Others who occupied seats on the platform were: F. Van Housen, A. R. Kelsey, P. R. Pettit, James Ruddiman, H. L. Day, F. W. Budrow, H. D. Moore, J. S. Williams, A. R. Brown, J. I. Drabble, J. R. Kennedy, R. E. Snodgrass, C. C. Bradley, William Reidt, Captain Charles Elliott, A. L. Barber, City Auditor, who is clerk of Woodfoot Camp, introduced the speakers. On account of the noise in the hall the speakers could not be heard, and after three addresses had been given speechmaking was abandoned. Dancing followed the regular programme.

points will leave St. Paul September 4 for Portland and the Pacific Coast, arriving at Portland on the morning of September 14. The party will stop at Yellowstone Park on the way West and will leave Portland the night of arrival over the O. R. & N. for the East. The train comes West over the Northern Pacific. Special rates have been made by the Harriman lines for the Spokane Interstate Fair, which will be held from September 23 to October 4. Reduced fares is offered between Walla Walla and Spokane and from other local points in that territory for the fair.

PROMOTION FOR VANDERLIP

Reported in Seattle He Will Be President Standard Oil Bank. SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 23--(Special).--It has leaked out here as a result of the Standard Oil Company investment in the Seattle National Bank that Frank A. Vanderlip, ex-Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and one of the vice-presidents of the National City Bank of New York, is to succeed James Stillman as president of that institution. The change may not be made until the first of the year, but financiers who are in the secret say that it is only a question of time before Stillman turns the active bank management over to Vanderlip. The National City is recognized as the Rockefeller bank and is the richest in the country.

Hebrews Honor Unique Occasion Tomorrow

Jews of the City Will Write Beginning and End of the Holy Scrolls. A unique ceremony will be performed tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the neighborhood house of the Council of Jewish Women at First and Hall streets, when a Seiyun Ha-Torah will take place. Translation of the five books of Moses, these are written in Hebrew on parchment and are received in this country almost completely from houses of learning in Europe. This is done in order to give the Jews in the various communities an opportunity of having the sacred honor of taking part in the completion of the work. To show the interest that is taken in the ceremonies it might be stated that large sums of money are often contributed by the fortunate bidden for the privilege of writing even one of the letters. An elaborate programme has been prepared. Besides violin solos, remarks will be made by Rabbi Joseph B. Wise, D. Solis Cohen, Rabbi J. Black, Sig Stichel, M. Moessoson and Mrs. S. M. Blumauer. The ceremonies will take place under the auspices and for the benefit of the Portland Jewish Free School, of which Rev. J. Seidel is superintendent. While the school is progressing satisfactorily in the number of scholars, over 120 being taught there daily, there is some need of funds, and for this purpose it was thought that an occasion of this kind would bring together those who are interested in the work of the school. There are at present four classes, the pupils ranging in age from 5 to 13 years.

DARROW TO GIVE ORATION

Lawyer Who Defended Haywood Will Speak in City Labor Day. Clarence S. Darrow, the famous Chicago Socialist and lawyer, who successfully defended William D. Haywood, secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, in the sensational trial at Boise last month, will deliver the Labor day oration in Portland, on labor questions. It is believed that Mr. Darrow will also speak of the Haywood trial and tell of the alleged conspiracy against the Federation by the Mineowners' Association. During the trial at Boise the committee in charge of the local Labor day celebration attempted to secure Darrow for an address here on that day, but could not secure any definite assurance from him. A letter was recently received by the committee in which Darrow promised to be present at the local celebration and to deliver the address of the day. The Oriental building at the Lewis and Clark Fair Grounds will be fitted and decorated for the day and in addition to other features, a baseball game between the Franks and Brewers has been arranged. The Federated Trades Council will take up the wood question and enter the arena as an avowed enemy of the wood trust. This move was decided upon last night at a meeting of the Council and a committee was appointed to confer with the Lumbermen regarding his offer to supply wood to the city at $5 a cord. The Council accepted the invitation of Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher to attend services at the White Temple, Sunday, August 26, when the pastor will speak on current labor questions.

ESTACADA HOME BURNS

The residence of Mrs. W. K. Haviland burned yesterday afternoon. The fire was well under way when first seen, but the fire company quickly responded to the alarm, and by hard work saved the frame of the building. Practically nothing else was saved. The house was one of the best in town, and the total loss is about $500, with $3000 insurance. No one had been in the building for two hours, and the cause of the fire is unknown.
