"I have every reason to believe that Kelly made his record and is entitled to the same. I was present at the time and saw nothing wrong and will youch for the timers. Jack King is as well posted on athletics as anyone in the Northwost, and usually knows what he is talking about, but in respect to the record made at Spokane I think he is mistaken. As to the charge of professionalism I am not in a position to dispute him for I have had no con-nection with the football games ex-cept as a player and know nothing recept as a player and know nothing re-garding the handling of the funds. The controversy seems to He between King and Hayward and it should be settled between them and the Uni-yersity of Oregon. The charge of professionalism in amateur athletics is an ugly one and should be proven or dis-proved immediately. As King has publicly brought forth the charge it h up to the State University to prove it."

What Edgar Frank Says.

Edgar Frank, one of the club di-

Edgar Frank, one of the club di-rectors, expresses the same view of the situation as did Mr. Lonergan. "I have known Jack King for a number of years," said Frank, "and he is as well informed on athletics as anyone I know, yet I think he was hasty. "The charge of professionalism crops out continually and several cases have been proven in the past, but in the present instance Multnomah cannot af-ford to be mixed up in it for the rea-son that it will immediately be said we are sore because Kelly is not to compete at Jamestown for us. "We have no grudge against Kelly,

"We have no grudge against Kelly, nor have we against King, and hope that the charges will not be continued for the sake of all concerned. The simplest way out of the matter now that it is started seems to be that Ore-son should omistly invastigate to be. gon should quietly investigate the af-fair and either disprove the charge or get rid of Hayward."

Jack King, when seen last evening, repeated that he was ready to back up what he said in reference to Kelly and Hayward. His statement in brief is as follows

King Makes Statement.

"Kelly and Hayward know that what I ald was true, and I do not like the way they have tried to belittle me in their in-terviews. I have been connected with athletics for over 20 years, and know Bill Hayward from the time he started foot racing, and furthermore, in all the time I have been in athletics no one can say that I ever used a crooked method to attain the end I desired, either for myself or for any of the athletes I have trained. The wager I made, and which is still uncovered, seems to have worried some people considerably. I have nothing further to say at present." The words "at present" were uttered in a significant manner and might be con-strued to mean there may be more to fola significant manner and might be con-strued to mean there may be more to fol-low in the event that the matter is not dropped. When pressed for a reason as to why he had issued his defy in the first place. King replied, reiterating portions of his former statement: "I have always been fair and square in sthietics. As is well known, the only

THREE CHEERS FOR RUGBY

Berkeley Athletes Rally for New

Style of Football.

BERKELEY, Aug. 23.-(Special.)-Football men of the university, including players, coaches and trainers, held their first rally of the year on the campus this master. afternoon, heard speeches by the idols of the gridiron, gave three cheers for Rugby and went out to make ready for a campaign designed to beat Stanford at Rugby in November on the latter's at Rugby a round. It was apparent that Rugby would have enthusiastic support from the players, old and new. Cal Haffey, cap-tain of the '0f team, said after the meet-ing: "There is just about four times as much enthusiasm on tap here today as there was last year at this particular ses-sion, when the ball was set rolling." DENVER, Aug. 23.—J. H. Hughes, Milwaukee, captured the amateur average of the western handicap yes-terday, surpassing even professionals. He lost only 11 birds of 400. Horace Bonseer and Chauncey Powers were each two birds behind Hughes. Wil-liam Heer, Concordia, Kan., took the professional average, scoring 97 per cent.
