

HANDCUFFS END FIVE-YEAR CHASE

Detroit Robber and Murderer Caught After Flight Around the World.

BETRAYED BY PARTNER

Charles Connors, Accused of Killing Wealthy Man, Tells Incidents of Flight—Surrenders When He Looks Into Revolvers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Presenting his wrists for the handcuffs without a word of protest, Charles Connors, alias Clarke, wanted in Detroit, Mich., for highway robbery and murder committed on October 29, 1902, concluded a sensational 50,000-mile race with the police by surrendering today to Detective Sergeants Duffy and Baglio at the revolver's muzzle, when he emerged from his boarding-place at Washington boulevard and Francisco avenue.

"I've been round the world," said Connors when taken to jail. "Two Scotland Yard men chased me through France and a French secret service operator ran me into Berlin so close that I thought sure I was gone. I am glad the running is over. I haven't slept soundly for five years."

Connors, with a man named Thomas McGrath, robbed and murdered a wealthy man in Detroit and Connors escaped. McGrath was captured and he is now serving a life sentence.

"I know how I was betrayed," said Connors. "A man who used to be my side partner in the road agent business has just been put on the police force in Detroit because he's a good shot and knows a lot of thieves. He tipped me off because it will help to make his record good."

"It's all off with me. I came into Chicago a month or so ago and went to a quiet boarding-house to get some rest. But I can't stay anywhere long. I was restless and just getting ready to fly when they nabbed me."

TAFT TALKS IN MISSOURI

Ten Thousand People Hear Roosevelt's Chief Lieutenant.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 26.—Ten thousand people in Central Park tonight listened to Secretary Taft, whose speech followed the lines of his Columbus address. A banquet was given later at which Senator Warner and other spoke.

JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 26.—Secretary Taft arrived last night, escorted from Oklahoma by the Joplin committee, and this morning addressed a large throng, talking principally on trusts and rate regulation. He afterward rode on the trolley to Webb City, where, after luncheon, he delivered a speech to the citizens. The afternoon he went to Carthage and made a third speech.

CALLS TAFT MERE STRADDLER

Bryan Comments on Columbus Speech—Was Misrepresented.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 26.—W. J. Bryan made public tonight his comments on Secretary Taft's Columbus speech. He says Mr. Taft is a straddler on nearly all important issues, and criticizes him for failure to take advanced ground in reform. Mr. Bryan also complains that Mr. Taft misrepresented Mr. Bryan's position.

Make Sure Taft Can Go Through.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—In anticipation of Secretary Taft's late arrival at Vladivostok the gunboat Chittanogoa has put into that port that sure that it will be possible for Mr. Taft to enter that port on a gunboat or similar ship as late as the middle of next November.

STRIKE ON ALL CARLINES

Louisville Men Accuse Company of Barring Union Men.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 26.—The union employees of the Louisville street railroad voted unanimously tonight to strike. The men allege that the company discriminates in favor of non-union men. After a strike lasting 10 days, about six months ago, the men received an increase in wages.

ON VERGE OF ANOTHER STRIKE

Chicago Packing-House Teamsters Reject Employers' Offer.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Chicago is on the verge of another packing-house teamsters' strike, with the customary attendant rioting and disorder. When the question of wage settlement came up a week or more ago, a committee of arbitration was appointed and the matter was considered settled. The committee, however, has been unable to agree and at tonight's meeting the offer of the packers to increase the pay of the men one per cent was rejected. They demand one and a half increase all around and other concessions and have given the packers until Tuesday evening to come to terms or face a strike, which they threaten will become general.

Chicago dreads any strike in which the teamsters engage, as it is always marked by much disorder and lawlessness. The present city administration, however, has shown that it will maintain order, and prompt action is expected if rioting breaks out. In the event a settlement is not reached and a strike is called, the teamsters lost the last great strike in which they engaged.

Strike Against Open Shop.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 26.—Four hundred building craftsmen working on the building of the National Bank of Commerce struck because the financing contractors were conducting an open shop.

Metalworkers Demand More.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 26.—A demand for an eight-hour day and 50 per cent increase in wages was voted by the National convention of the Metalworkers' Union, which is said to have a membership of 22,000.

Police Protect Meat Wagons.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The Meat-Wagon Drivers' strike was quiet today. The packers allege that deliveries were made as usual under police protection.

CONDEMNNS WHIPPING-POST

Delaware Prison Warden Resigns to Show Disapproval.

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 26.—Disapproving of the Delaware whipping-post, declaring it is a failure and refusing to further lash prisoners, Aemond S. Meserve, Warden of the Newcastle County Workhouse, near here, and one of the leading criminologists of the country, has resigned.

Meserve, who is from Wellshoro, Mass., took charge of the workhouse six years ago. Coming in the wake of almost general condemnation of the Delaware whipping-post, the attitude of Meserve will probably result in the abolition of lashing. The Warden said today: "I have made a very careful and unbiased study of the effect of the whipping-post on men of this class, and have come to the conclusion that it is all bad. It brings out in a man all that is revengeful and hurtful, and he arrays himself against law, order and society."

Mr. Meserve has lashed hundreds of negroes and white men. He has repeatedly stated that the principle was wrong and has strongly advocated the repeal of the medieval law.

Meserve has always had the unanimous support of the workhouse trustees in his management of the institution and leaves his position with the regrets of every member of the board. He has obtained an official position with the Paulley Jail Company, of St. Louis, and will supervise the construction of prisons in Burlington, Vt., and Winnipeg, Manitoba. His salary at the Delaware institution was $350 a year, while his wife was paid $50 as a stenographer.

There are now 316 prisoners at the workhouse. The Legislature authorized the incarceration there of all long-term prisoners throughout the state, as it is Delaware's sole penitentiary.

STEAMER RUNS DOWN TUG

Five of Sunken Vessel's Crew Missing—Others Are Rescued.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 26.—The British steamer Barnstable last night ran into and sank the tug Gerry, of Wilmington, Del., that was towing mud scoops off Sparrows Point. Five men are missing, including four of the Gerry's crew and one from the dredge Standard, whose crew was returning to the city. Five men were aboard the tug. Six clambered up the side of the steamer by the anchor chain and the remainder were rescued by the steamer's buoy or swim ashore. The cause of the accident is unknown.

B. & O. Road Wants No Drinkers.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad has issued orders that all employees who drink liquor while on duty will be discharged.

Armenian Murderers Located.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Three Armenians wanted for the murder of Father Kaspar Vartanian are reported to have been located in Bulgaria, whence they fled via Montreal and Marseilles.

MRS. BALLINGTON BOOTH HERE ON WORK OF PRISON LEAGUE

MRS. BALLINGTON BOOTH, commander of the Volunteers of America, lecturer and author, was in Portland yesterday with her son, and left last night for Chicago and New York, going on the Northern Pacific train to Seattle, whence they will travel by way of the Canadian Pacific. When seen by an Oregonian reporter last night she was making hurried preparations for departure. "This trip was merely for a visit to the prisons," said Mrs. Booth, with a smile. "Starting at Columbus, O., I visited the prisons in Iowa, the penitentiary at Joliet, Ill., the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., and at Salt Lake City, Utah. I visited the convicts at Salem last Sunday. "You see, I was out this way last winter, and the washouts on the railroad delayed me so that I was not able to see the boys in the Oregon prison. I promised them then that the next time I was out this way I would pay them a visit. This trip into Oregon has been made especially to see them. In addition to my work with the Volunteers of America I am deeply interested in the Volunteer Prison League, a National movement, and a distinct work because it is conducted entirely within the prison walls. I have now succeeded in working up a membership of 150,000, all within the prisons. "I had a delightful day with the Utah prisoners. The buildings are situated in a beautiful location at the foot of the mountains, where there is plenty of room. You know it is important to have land for the prisoners, for prisons in the city must have very high walls, and there is hardly enough room for the men to exercise. I am in favor of having each state buy some land in the country. "After I return to New York I must retrace my steps to Chicago, where I will attend the National Prison Congress, as I am chairman of one of the committees. This gathering will be held from September 12 to 19. Nearly every state of the Union sends to this congress representatives from its prison warden and physicians. Oregon has not yet seen the importance of the gathering, but I believe she will soon. "The Volunteers now have for a headquarters in New York City a fine new building on Twenty-Eighth street, two doors from Broadway. The property is worth $200,000, and was given by friends of our work. In this way a cent was diverted from other important institutions for the benefit of the headquarters. We now have a large hospital under one of the approaches to the Brooklyn bridge. It is surrounded by tenement houses on the one side and by printing offices and factories on the other. We sometimes have as many as 250 surgical operations in a day. Two ambulances are constantly busy. "We have done a great deal for the firemen, for when a fire starts in one of those old rookeries the walls often fall and bury the faithful men. In a recent New York fire 13 firemen were overcome and brought to us for treatment. Our work for men enables us to reach their families also and often to render them valuable assistance. "I have now been away from New York nearly three weeks. In my travel through the West this trip I have seen the Northern Pacific trains crowded, and feared that I could not get away tonight, but finally secured two upper berths, the last to be had, for myself and son."

LIKE JOSEPH'S COAT

Will Be Raiment of New York Swells Next Winter.

OVERCOATS ALMOST WHITE

If Styles Dictated by Tailors Are Followed Broadway Will Resemble a Carnival of Boomers. Caruso Pockets the Thing.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(Special.)—The latest wrinkle in glad raiment is to be blue evening clothes. The man who, in the coming fall and winter, expects to approach anywhere near the "real thing" will have to array himself nightly in a dark blue claw-hammer.

At the annual garment and style exhibit, which opened today, two-thirds of the evening suits on exhibition are made of blue worsted. The material is dark and in certain lights cannot be distinguished from black.

Other interesting things can be seen at the exhibition besides the blue evening clothes. The forms on which hang the clothes that New York ought to wear and probably won't, look much like the wardrobe of a valetville slumstick artist or a Dutch comedian. The colors range anywhere from cream brown to Nile green.

For instance, there is an overcoat which the exhibitors prophesy will be "popular" in the fall. Anyone who appeared on Broadway a year ago wearing that coat would have been followed for blocks by a mob anxious to see what he was advertising. The material is slightly darker than white flannel, and has a foot and a half of three-inch chrome brown stripes. Then there is another overcoat, supposed to be English woven. The cloth contains a touch of every color in the rainbow.

If New York should adopt the styles set forth, Broadway this winter will look like a carnival of boomers for a comic opera costumer. There is one consolation, however in the exhibit. Those who were worried last year over the dictum from the tailors' convention that men really must wear corsets need not worry longer. The sack coat of many colors will be cut full, and there will be absolutely no need for any artificial repression.

There are other styles coming back. The man who has kept a paddock overcoat in a mothball tomb for two years can get it out again this winter. The slit back coat will be quite the thing. Of course, there will be the straight-back coat, but he who prefers this style must have it made with Caruso pockets. This is not a gratuitous slap at the great tenor. The long, perpendicular slit pockets which go "all the way through" are now designated by "the trade" in this manner. "Incidentally, if you want a long, full-back coat with a belt you must have the side seams creased like razors and the material of which it is made must vie in splendor with the multi-colored coat of Joseph. Sack coats will be cut much shorter this winter, and (perish the thought) it is hinted that before long the dear old coats of your college days, which ended just below your belt, will be back again. And Raglan shoulders—that is, the shoulders that were not shouldered at all—are also to return. Pads must be thrown away, for coats this year will be cut just as wide as the wearer and no wider.

The new styles are making their appearance daily. As is usual with us the styles first shown are of a distinct character—those which depict the latest of fashion's changes, seen today in coats that are longer and more fitted than formerly and in sleeves that more snugly encircle the arm—the Japanese effect modified and elongated. Skirts, too, show a decided change, though plaited styles form the majority of those seen. We call special attention to our model suits—made by a Paris-American—that is to say, a New Yorker who spends most of his time and gets all his inspiration among French things. What Paquin thinks will be good in sleeves, what Francis has decreed in coats—you will see in these suits. The prices are $50.00 to $85.00—not extravagant for finely tailored and exclusive novelty suits.

At Lipman-Wolfe's Only! The Greatest of Imported Perfumes

Djer Kiss (Pronounced "Dear Kiss")

"Djer-Kiss" is without a doubt the greatest perfume creation of the day and heretofore has been obtainable only in the capitals of Europe and the metropolitan cities of America. It is made by the famous Kerkoff Parfumerie of Paris, and consists of extract, toilet water, lotion, sachet powder, face powder, soap, etc. The odor is lasting, so delicate, so entrancing, so different, that every woman who tries it once becomes infatuated with it. Lipman, Wolfe & Co. are the sole agents for this famous perfume.

HAS NO HOPE FOR CANTEEN General Grant Says Congress Sees Mistake, but Fears Cranks.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21.—"The anti-canteen law ought to be repealed, but there is little prospect that Congress will do anything with it for a good while," said General Frederick D. Grant, in an interview at Willow Grove Park. "Politicians do not care to antagonize the extreme Prohibition element. Congress sees, I think, that it has made a mistake, but it is a hard thing to go back now." The General made this statement in answer to a query as to what he thought would be the outcome of the agitation for the repeal of the law abolishing the canteen in the Army. He declared that he was in favor of the canteen not because he consumed the drink evil, but because he considered it the most practical way to regulate the sale of intoxicants to soldiers. General Grant was at Willow Grove to take part with G. A. R. posts in their annual reunion.

LYNCH DOUBLE MURDERER

Nebraskans Take Prisoner From Sheriff and Hang Him.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 26.—Loris Higgins, who murdered his former employer, W. L. Coppel, a farmer, and his wife, near Rosalia, May 12, on account of a trivial dispute with Coppel, was hanged at Bancroft today. Higgins had been in the county jail since his capture. Last night Sheriff Young, of Thurston County, took him to Bancroft on a train which reached Bancroft this morning. On arrival there 20 men took Higgins from the Sheriff, hauled him away on a drag and hanged him from a tree. The Sheriff, before leaving Omaha Sunday, received an intimation that a lynching might be attempted, but replied that he would shoot the first man attempting to hang Higgins. His arrest had become radically religious.
