

ANXIOUS TO FINISH TRIALS IN OREGON

Bonaparte and Garfield in Direct Conflict With Bristol.

WANT NO FURTHER DELAY

Bristol's Statements Puzzle Officials After They Gave Instructions Personally—Neuhausen to Give Trials First Attention.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, D. C., Sept. 5.—It is not true that the delay in resuming the land-fraud trials in Oregon is due to the failure of Attorney-General Bonaparte and Secretary Garfield to agree upon a policy to govern the prosecutions. The delay is not due to any influence or any official in Washington. Both Mr. Garfield and Land Commissioner Ballinger, when on the Pacific Coast, conferred with District Attorney Bristol in regard to the Oregon fraud cases. That fact is well established and it can be stated positively that the only desire of the Interior Department is to have the cases brought to trial as speedily as is consistent with thoroughness.

Mr. Garfield is very anxious that all cases now on the docket shall be taken into court and cleared up. He does not want them hanging fire, giving the accused opportunities to cry persecution, nor does he want it said that the Government is afraid to press them to trial. In the interests of justice, both to the Government and the accused, he earnestly desires that the trials be pushed and it was his understanding that this would be done.

So far as the Attorney-General is concerned, only this can be said: Just before he left Washington Mr. Bonaparte examined the records of his Department very carefully and said that there was nothing whatever of record in regard to the Oregon land cases since Bristol asked permission to go to San Francisco to confer with Mr. Garfield. He said the cases were entrusted to Mr. Bristol and Mr. Honey and it was his understanding that the trials would soon be resumed by agreement between those officials. Acting Attorney-General Russell said very positively that preparations for resuming the trials were under way and that the trials would begin again very soon.

It can furthermore be stated that Inspector Neuhausen and his agents, and in fact all field representatives of the Interior Department in Oregon who can in any way assist the prosecution in the land-fraud cases have received explicit instructions to give first attention to those matters and Mr. Neuhausen and others are ready at any time to act under instructions from Mr. Bristol.

Mr. Bristol's attitude and his frequent statements that disagree with official records in the departments here in Washington are very puzzling to the authorities, but he is known to be eccentric. Why he should repeatedly try to shoulder onto Mr. Bonaparte and Mr. Garfield the responsibility for delaying the trials is more than can be figured out.

OREGON LEADS ALL STATES

Contributes Most to Reclamation Fund—General Increase Shown.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 5.—Oregon again leads all states in its contribution to the reclamation fund. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1907, the total receipts from land sales in Oregon amounted to $1,429,700, nearly three times the receipts in the previous year, when the total was only $465,346.

Last year, when timber entries in Oregon were tied up, North Dakota forged ahead of Oregon, but this year the receipts in that state were $300,000 less than in Oregon. There has been a general gain in land receipts through the West, Washington increasing from $454,571 in 1906 to $708,937 in 1907, and Idaho showing an increase from $51,963 to $70,138.

The total receipts from all states amount to $9,484,538, and this year approximately $5,000,000 will go into the reclamation fund, swelling the total to more than $40,000,000.

ARMY DEPOTS AT WALLA WALLA

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 5.—The general of the Army, in his annual report, usually recommends the establishment of a depot at Fort Walla Walla, Wash., for the purchase and training of horses for army purposes, also the establishment of a depot for the mounted service, where all manner of supplies for the cavalry and artillery can be stored. This recommendation has the favorable endorsement of the Quartermaster-General.

MONUMENT TO M'KINLEY

New York Dedicates Obelisk at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 5.—The dedication of the McKinley monument and its presentation to the state by the monument commission was the feature today of the Old Home Week celebration. The programme included a parade, in which two battalions of the Twelfth United States Infantry, two regiments of the National Guard of New York, the Thirtieth Royal Canadian regiment of Hamilton, and the Royal Fusiliers, of London, Ont., participated. The dedication ceremonies began at 2 P. M.
