GANS THE VICTOR

Defeats Jimmy Burns in a Rushing Fight of 20 Rounds.

OPPONENT DOWN

Burns Holds Him Even for 17 Rounds, but in Last Three Is Overmastered by the Black Man's Terrific Swings.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—(Special.)—
Joe Gans, lightweight champion of the world, out-pointed Jimmy Burns here tonight and carned the decision at the end of 20 rounds. Burns made a fine showing, but could not overcome Gans' eleverness, and the negro's science kept him from being hurt. In the sixth, seventh, eighth and twelfth rounds Burns had a shade the better of things, but was very tired at the end rounds Burns had shade the better of things, but was very tired at the end and could not keep Gans away.

It was a fine fight all the way, and there was little loafing. Burns hugged during the latter part to avoid punishment, but was tough as a bull and kept himself so well covered that Gans could not land a knockout punch. He became so tired that his swings were became so tired that his swings were wild and Gans managed to keep out of the way and save himself. Burns certainly gave him a hot battle and was loudly cheered for his showing, as compared with the Britt fizzle. Jef-fries acted as referee and could not help but give the verdict to Gans. There were no knock-downs. Burns bled in a number of rounds from Gans' punches with the left in the face, but always came back.

The house was a large one, but the over $1000.

Young Peter Jackson created some amusement at the start by challenging Tommy Burns for a fight, and it was stated that Gans would back him for $5000. Burns did not even notice the challenge, as he has a fight in prospect with Gunner Moir in England in November for $5000 and a side bet of

First Bound.

Round Two.

Burns rushed furiously, landing right over the head and left to jaw. Burns landed one light on the face and got three in re-turn. Gans smiled as they clinched. Burns caused laughter at his short swings. Gans blocked every straight lead. Burns landed a low left to stomach. Round Three.

Joe puts two straight lefts to the face, and go: a left hard in the stomach. Burns could not keep away from Gans' lefts, but was doing all the rushing. In a fierce raily in mid-ring Gans warmed up and exchanged pights and lefts with Burns. Gans missed a terrific right at the gong. Round Four.

Burns rushed and almost lifted Gans off bis feet. Gans got a left to the stomach.

Burns rushud with head down, but got a PRIZE FIGHT PROVES FATAL RAIN AGAIN PREVENTS GAME than right on the ear. Round Five.

Gans stayed on defensive entirely. He avoided all Burns' rushes. Burns got two on the head and nearly went down. Burns landed a left to the jaw, but Gans went to his corner fresh. Burns went to his corner looking tired.

Round Six. Gans put a straight right to the face and they went to a clinch. Burns puts a hard left to the neck and received a hard left on the kidneys. They fought furi-ously, both landing on face and body.

Round Seven. Burns brought blood from Gans' cheek. Gans rejised his arm in a clinch and Burns took advantage to put in three hard ones to the body. Gans looked worried and tired from the rough wreatling. The crowd began heliering for Burns and the round ended about even Burns landed a hard left to the neck and Gans returned with a right uppercut to the stomach. They fought furiously and wrestled in the clinch. Burns landed a hard left on the jaw. Gans was covering his body from Burns' rushes as the bell evened it up in the long-range hitting. The browd hissed Burns for hitting in clinches. Burns was bleeding at the mouth Burns shoved Gans around the ring and swung-wildly, while the negro coolly allowed him to set the pace. Round Ten.

Burns rushed furiously and they slugged in mid-ring. Gans landed cleanly on the body and head. Gans peppered Burns with right said left swings on the face. In two short railies Gans puntshed Burns badly. Round Eleven.

Gans blocked everything and held Burns at hay with fast jabs to the nose and jaw. Burns landed a herd right swing on the cheek. The crowd hollered for Burns. Burns was staggered by a left to the jaw as the round closed. Gans seemed master of the situation, but Burns' aggressiveness. was not lessened Gans toyed with Burns by rocking his head as Burns rushed and swung wildly. Gans put & terrific right on the body, but Burns kept coming.

Round Thirteen. Gans asked Jeff to end Burns' clinches Burns fought so frantically that he went to his knees without being hit. Gans stood away and punched Burns into a daze with lefts and rights to the jaw, but Burns swung rights and lefts and kept coming. Round Fourteen.

Burns seemed tired. He refused to break. Gans short punishing cross-cuts to the ears and nose. Gans backed away and punished Burns severely and Burns rushed frantishing in spite of a perfect rain of hard blows to the face and Jaw. Gans scored three to one in the final raily. Bound Fifteen.

Burns took a terrific series of hard rights to the body without clinching and the crowd gave him a round of cheers for his game-This was a wild round and both men were well winded.

Round Sixteen. Gans tried three times for a knockout, but missed. They slugged hard, each using uppercuts, and Burns was shaky as the bell rang.

Round Seventeen. Gans held Burns at arm's length and shot his right to the mouth. Burns was bewildered, but strong. He was unable to land a telling punch. In his eagerness Burns Junped into the air in his rush. Gans dazed him with a left to the jaw and Burns held on.

Round Nineteen. Burns ran for Gans and swung for the jaw, but Gans caught it on the gloves. Gans stabbed Burns and then put two hard rights to the jaw. Burns kept swinging, but could not connect. Burns' ability to stand Jans' punishment to the head was Round Twenty. Burns forced Gans to jump away from his wild rushes. Burns seemed shaky, but saved himself by clinchins. In the last minute Gans landed a right with sickening force to the stemach, which forced Jimmy to cling to his gloves to keep from falling. Gans was given the decision.

Tacoma 2; Butte 1.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 27 .- (Special.)-The Tigers' unlimited luck allowed to make it four straight from Butte to-to make it four straight four hits off day. Tacoma made just four hits off Samuels. They came in a row in the Samuels. They came in a row in the Samuels. They came in a row in the sixth inning after two were out. The rally was started by Ike Butler, whose batting average is less than 100. Shaw followed with a scratch hit over second base, and Martinke filled the bases by beating out a bunt. Jesse Stoval hit a clean single into right field, scoring Butler and Shaw. Hed Irby fielded the hall clean single into right field, scoring But-ler and Shaw. Had Irby fielded the ball cleanly. Shaw would have been retired at the plate. Before and after the sixth inning. Samuels was invincible. He had perfect control and was given superb support by his team mates. Butler was hit oftener, gave more passes to first base, and the Tigers bungled behind him oftener than the Bandits. Butte's one run also came in the sixth, resulting from Butler's wild heave, Stis' sacrifice and Exempt error. Except for the SEATTLE Wash., Sept. 27 .- (Special.)-Paddy Welch was master of the situation today and he held the league leaders helpless from start to finish. He allowed only four hits and did not issue a pass. He had his curve ball working well and when he has that he will trouble any team in the country. Starkell also pitched good ball, allowing but four hits, but one of them was the longest home-run drive of the season, belted out by Emil Frisk, the boss slugger of the Pacific Coast. The other run was total receipts were only $16,219, which will leave the club a profit of a trifle of down the first base line. WILL CABLE NEW CHALLENGE Lipton Wants to Race Under Universal Yacht Rules. LONDON, Sept. 2/.- The Royal Irish Yacht Club will cable a reply to the New York Yacht Club's resolution declining Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge. This dis-patch will further intimate under what conditions Sir Thomas is prepared to send another challenge.

The decision was reached after a long onference with William Fife, the designer, who, as stated by Sir Thomas yesterday, positively refuses to design a yacht to race for the cup under the old rules of the Yacht Club. Fife, however, is willing to flesign a 90-footer for that purpose under the universal rule which has been in use in America for over five years. in use in America for over five years.

Senttle Wrestler Better Man.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27 .- Dr. B. F. SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27.—Dr. B. F. Roller, of Seattle, easily defeated Albert Klank in a wrestling match in West Seattle this morning for a side bet of $1000. Roller was in fine shape and had little trouble in disposing of Klank. The first fall was obtained in 15 minutes and the second in 13 minutes. The match was strictly a private one, and only the seconds of the wrestlers and the timekeepers witnessed it. An attempt was made to have the match in public, but both the Mayor and chief of police refused consent.

CAR SHORTAGE IS ACUTE

Estacada Sawmills May Be Forced to Shut Down.

"The car shortage in Oregon has reached an acute stage," said H. A. Webster, a lumber manufacturer, of Estacada, yesterday. "It is far more serious than ever before in the history of the state. Shippers at Estacada find it practically impossible to get any cars. The fact is we have had in the last 25 days but one car for a shipment consigned out of the state. Our mill has ready for shipment 10 carloads of lumber for Salt Lake City, but our repeated requests for cars have been last 25 days but one car for a shipment repeated requests for cars have been ignored. There is but little trouble to get cars for local shipments, but most of the lumber mills ship out of the state, and their inability to get an adequate car service is seriously embersoring this industry.

Takes First Game of Series From Philadelphia.

CLOSE SCORE OF 5 TO 4

Game Is Hard Played and Exciting. Donovan and Plank Do Pitching and Both Work Hard-Immense Crowd in Attendance.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. took the lead in the sensational race for the American League pennant by defeating Philadelphia, 5 to 4, in a hotly-contested game. Donovan, leading pitcher of the league this season, was hammered for 14 hits by the home team, but Detroit's hits off Plank came at a more opportune time. Twelve Philadelphians left on the bases to Detroit's six practically tells the story. Twice the home cally tells the story. Twice the home players had the bases full, but Donovan held them safe and they failed to score: The batting order is as follows:
