SALOON OPEN PAST HOURS .- O. E. Mc-Saloon Open Past Hours,—O. E. Mc-Carthy, a bartender employed in a saloon at the corner of East Washington street and Grand avenue was arrested early yesterday morning by Patrolman Vessey, on a charge of violating the closing ordinance, and possibly a charge of resisting an officer also will be filed against the man. According to the policeman, a light was noticed in the saloon at 2 A. M. yesterday, and about 15 minutes 2 A. M. yesterday, and about 15 minutes later the man came out of the plane ac-companied by a woman. After a short conversation, the officer announced that the pair was under arrest, and McCarthy at that moment pulled a revolver. He was too slow, for the officer had drawn his own revolver a moment before, and at the bartender's move, covered him. The woman was released and McCarthy obliged to give $25 bail for his appearance

POLICEMAN DRIVES BACK MOB-While attempting to arrest a drunken man at the corner of Second and Burnisde streets last night Patrolman Wanless of the first relief of police, was cut in the back of the nock with a knife wielded by Chris Alberts, and to protect himself from a mob of North End toughs, who attempted to take away his prisoner, Wanless was obliged to draw his revolver, and drive back the crowd with the sun. Then back the crowd with the gun. Then Wanless grabbed his man, Ed Kelly, and took him to the station. The officer's wounds are not serious and he returned to duty. Fatroiman Thorpe later arrested Albert and booked him on a charge of assault. A charge of assault with a dangerous weapon will be filed today.

ROUMANIAN AID SOCIETY.—At a meeting held last Sunday the Roumanian-American Aid Society was organized. Its pur-poses are the moral and educational upliftment of the Roumanian-Americans in this city, assistance of those in need, and other liberal and humanitarian purposes. HOMB TRAINING CIRCLE.-Mothers' Home Training Circle, No. 5, will meet at the Mount Tabor schoolhouse on October 4, at 3 P. f.M. Miss Lilian Tingle will address the meeting, which will be public, on "The School Lunch." The meeting arranged for yesterday at the Montavilla schoolhouse was indefinitely postponed, as plans for organization were not perfected in time.

Those in favor held that as the city would keep it in repair for five years after improvement, the benefits more than outweighed the expense. Judge Frazer held that i.e wishes of most of the residents of the entire section should not be set aside by the votes of a few CARELIES GREEK LOSES MONEY.—A. Kiralgaizopulous, a Greek, who has been a lodger at the Dewey House for some time past, reported to the police yesterday that he had left a purse containing $50 in his room, and on returning at noon, found the money gone. He accuses no one of the theft but the matter will be investigated by the police.

UNIONS INDORSE PLANS

Labor Organizations Will Assist the Rose Festival Committee.

Organized labor of Portland has in-dorsed the plans of the Rose Festival Association and will do its share toward raising the $100,000 fund needed to de raising the 100,000 tillul needed to be tray expenses of the week's celebration. Last night, at the regular weekly meeting of the Portland Federated Trades Council, the letter from the Festival Association, outlining the project in full and requesting the labor organizations of the Rose City to participate, was rend and discussed. Not a dissenting voice was heard and the following special was heard and the following special committee representing the Council as a whole was selected to meet with the "Hundred Thousand Dollar Squad" next Wednesday night: C. H. Kelly, of the Journeymen Barbers' Union, No. 75; D. C. Wells, of the Bartenders' Local, No. 33, and Harry Gurr, of the International Bricklayers' Union, No. 15

These men are among the most active workers in local labor circles and they

ALASKA'S GREAT COAL BEDS

DEPOSITS NEAR KATALLA ARE INEXHAUSTIBLE. .

Both Anthracite and Bituminous Varieties Found in District-Will Supply the Entire Coast.

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 26 .- (To the Edtor.)-I notice an editorial in The Oregenian of this date which reads as fol-

"Alaskan coal is much nearer the water (Katalia) in abundance.

"I saw 15-foot veins of anthracite which can be tracked on top of the ground for over a mile. I also saw a 15-foot vein of bituminous coal which we traced for over a mile and a quarter. This last vein is estimated to contain over 25,000,000 tons of clear coal, all of which is above ratiroad track that will haul it to market, and which it will take years to nine, to say nothing about that which lies below.

Professor G. C. Martin, in Bulletin No. 284, on Page 29, states as follows:

It may seem from these tables that the antbracite from Matanuska and Berling Rivers has no equivalent on the Pacific Coast, and that it compares favorably with the Pennsylvania anthracite. It ought to be put into the San Francisco and other Pacific Coast, and that it compares favorably with the Pennsylvania anthracite. It ought to be put into the San Francisco and other Pacific Coast markets at a cost far below that of Eastern coal, in which case it should have no difficulty in entirely supplanting the latter. The Bering River semianthracite and part of the semibituminous coal from Matanuska is better than anything that is being mined in the West. These coals are the equivalent of the Pocahontas. New River and Georges Creek coals of the East and are eminently adapted for use on warships and for other purposes for which a high-grade, pure, "amokeless" steaming coal is required, and for these purposes will command a considerably higher price than any coal now being mined on the Pacific Coast, or if offered at equal prices should readily drive the latter from the market.

Part of these coals will produce an excellent quality of coke—better, in fact (except possibly in content of phosphorus, regarding which no data are available), than coke which can be produced from any of the Washington or Vancouver Island coals and equal to the coke from Crows Neat Pass. If an important smeller industry grows up in Alaska, as now seems possible, the Alaska coking coals should have the advantage both of quality and of transportation. The coals from other known Alaska fields than these are so situated or are of such quality that they can find markets only where excessive rates on outside coals give them an advantage—that is, their markets must be local and probably small.

There is no question about the quantity or quality of the Bering River coal, which extends over 79 square miles and which contains millions up-coal, which extends over 79 square miles and which contains millions upon millions of tons of coal the equiva-ient of any coal mined in Pennsylvania and West Virginia. With coal bunkers at Katalia, which are now building by both the Copper River & North-western Railroad and Alaska Pacific Rallway & Terminal Com-pany, and the completion of the construction of these lines to the cont fields, Portland and all Pacific

HIS LIFE CRUSHED OUT

Henry Burley Is Caught Under an Overturned Engine.

Henry Burley, an engineer, was burned to death near Granite, Or., last Tuesday, in an accident while moving a portable sawmill. The deceased is thought to have relatives in Portland.

The accident was caused by the traction engine used in moving the sawmill becoming unmanageable on a steep grade and leaving the road. The fireman jumped and was unburt, but the engineer vas caught between the sawmill and the boiler of the engine, where he was slowly burned to death.

The deceased was about 30 years of age and had been employed as a machinist and engineer in and about Portland for several years. He was of a retiring dis-position and was well liked by his asso-ciates. An effort is being made to locate his relatives here.
