BISHOP SCADDING HONOURED.—At a brilliant function at Toronto, Saturday, September 21, the degree of Doctor of Divinity, honoris causa, was conferred on Bishop Charles Scadding, of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, by Trinity University, Professor W. Clark, vice-chancellor of the university, presided over the convocation and introduced Bishop Scadding. The speaker commented on his close acquaintance with the Oregon Bishop, which extended back to the time the distinguished divine was a student at Trinity. He thought that if any characteristic of Dr. Scadding's life stood out more prominently than another, it was his intensely practical nature. It was this, in combination with deep spirituality, that had made him so successful in his life work and had afforded sufficient reason for the honor conferred on him by his alma mater.

PORTLAND WILL SEND DELEGATES.—The Chamber of Commerce has been requested to send delegates to the annual convention of the National Civic Federation, which meets in Chicago, October 22-25. At this year's meeting the subject to be discussed will be: "Combinations and Trusts." The federation was organized several years ago for the purpose of finding solutions of the various questions affecting capital and labor. Its officers and executive committee are composed of representatives of financial, clerical and educational men of the nation. Its president is August Belmont; vice-presidents, Samuel Gompers and Benjamin I. Wheeler, and Charles W. Eliot, Nicholas Murray Butler, Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Parker, Andrew Carnegie and Charles J. Bonaparte are among its directors. The Chamber will probably appoint delegates at its meeting to be held this morning.

KISER EXHIBIT CLOSER THAN EVER.—More than a thousand people daily have visited the free exhibition of the Kiser photographs now on view in the Portland Hotel parlors. Saturday more than 300 visitors crowded the two rooms from 9 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night. The exhibition will close Thursday at 10 P. M. It has been one of the most attractive and successful exhibits of the kind ever seen in this city. As today is the last time that the pictures will be on view special arrangements have been made by those in charge to insure the large number of visitors expected. The views are the result of eight years of labor by F. H. Kiser of this city, and cost over $3000. Henry B. Corlies in charge of the exhibit, assisted by Miss Esther Gunther. The photographs are to be taken to the large cities of the East next.

TROTTABLES WILL INCORPORATE.—By a vote of 13 to 7 the legal voters of Troutdale, decided to incorporate and organize a municipal government. Officers for the new municipality were elected unanimously as follows: Mayor, Aaron Fox; Recorder, J. S. Hudson; Treasurer, S. S. Logan; Marshal, C. P. Brooks; Aldermen, E. W. Corlier, I. H. Henshaw, J. Harlow, John Holm, Dan W. Mickley and W. Sutherland. These officials will serve until their successors are elected next June, having been nominated at a meeting held two weeks ago last night.

SALON SWAMPED IN TONIA.—Arrested Sunday afternoon on a charge of drunkenness and locked in jail all night, Charles Patterson yesterday afternoon gave to the police officials the name of the man who supplied him with liquor, and M. J. Blake, a swamper in a Second-street saloon, was arrested on a charge of posting liquor on Sunday. The arrest was by Patrolman Bates.

MARLUM PAYS HIS COSTS.—Andrew Marlum, charged with attempting to steal a pet dog from the home of Minnie Denley, a waitress at the German Kitchen, was taken before the Municipal Court yesterday morning. The case was dismissed, but Marlum was obliged to pay the costs, which amounted to $150.

CHARGED WITH 40 THEFT.—Phineas W. Edwards, an ex-convict, was arrested at 11 o'clock last night by Detective Price and Patrolman Quinton First and Madison streets on a charge of larceny from the person. Louis Nye, the complaining witness, alleges that Edwards took $40 from him Saturday night.

CANDIDATE FOR WHIPPING POST.—Peter Friberger, who was arrested Sunday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was charged with wifebeating at yesterday's session of the Municipal Court. Friberger appeared with his face badly bruised and scratched to complain against him.

BANK CLEARINGS STILL GAINING.—Bank clearings for the month of September show continued good business in all lines in Portland and the large tributary country. The total of cash transactions passing through the Portland banks in the Clearing-House Association during September totaled $2,172,449.01. The total of the corresponding month for last year is $2,083,000.56. This is a gain in business over last year of about 20 per cent. With the exception of Spokane, Portland continues to lead all other cities of the Pacific Northwest in the volume of her bank clearings. While the whole Pacific Coast is prosperous and the figures of each show advances, Portland has been at the head of the column. Spokane has been forging ahead actively of late and now stands at the head of all Northwestern cities in the percentage of gain over the corresponding months of last year.

REGIMENT MAY ENBARB HERE.—At the meeting of the board of governors of the Portland Commercial Club, held yesterday, a resolution was unanimously passed requesting the War Department to have the transport which will carry the Fourteenth Infantry to Manila make the soldiers aboard at Portland instead of at San Francisco, as has been the practice heretofore. The Senators and Representatives in Congress will be asked to lend their assistance. The Fourteenth Infantry, now at Vancouver Barracks, will leave for the Philippines on January 15.

INTERFERES WITH POLICEMAN.—Fred Erickson, seeing his friend A. M. Sirem, in charge of Patrolman Craddock, on his way to the police station for being drunk yesterday, thought it his duty to interfere on behalf of Sirem. Erickson approached the bluecoat, and loudly demanded that he release Sirem. But Erickson did not consider the fact that he was interfering with the law, and before he had time to carry out his threat to kick the officer, he was under arrest, charged with interfering with an officer. He was locked up.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE NOW IS 84.—Attendance at the Portland schools yesterday was 83.4, an increase of 2.6 since the opening day two weeks ago. The attendance yesterday was probably a trifle larger than this, as several of the smaller schools did not report, and for them last week's figures are included in the total. On the second Monday of last year the attendance was 15,223, a difference in favor of yesterday of 247.

DANGEROUS BLAZE SOON EXTINGUISHED.—Sparks flying from the chimney of the Wren Box & Lumber Company, at the foot of East Salmon street, set fire to a pile of sawdust and shavings, and for a time threatened a serious conflagration. The blaze was discovered by Arthur Anson, a nightwatchman, who turned in an alarm. The fireboat responded and soon had the fire under control. Damage is nominal.

MONEY NOT OBJECT Mrs. Rose Parker Says She Was Compelled to Sue. ENJOINS USE OF PORTRAIT Humiliated by Its Publication in a Magazine Advertisement—She Brought Damage Suit and Injunction Suit as Last Resort. Mrs. Rose S. Parker, wife of Lieutenant Hugh A. Parker of the United States Army, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sutton of 64 Hoyt Street of this city, who has brought suit for $50,000 damages and injunction proceedings against the Heks-Chattem Engraving Company to restrain that corporation from using her picture for commercial purposes, last night at the home of her parents gave her reasons for resorting to the courts. Mrs. Parker, who is handsome, well educated and a young woman of refinement and high social standing, says she regrets the necessity for the action that she has been compelled to take, but asserts that she saw no other way of obtaining redress.
