Another Famous Sample Sale of Impt'd Women's Hosiery Values to $1.25 at 29c

Every year two European hosiery makers, a French and a German manufacturer, send us their samples—not seconds, but samples. They don't bother to classify the hosiery as to price, but invoice them regardless of their values in one lump lot. So you get 35c, 50c, 75c, 85c, $1.00 and even $1.25 stockings at 29c. It's the hosiery scoop of the year, as they say in the trade world, and we get the share that comes to Portland because we are the only consumers here of these two firms' goods. This is the biggest lot we ever had and the stockings are the finest and the prettiest. The colors include white, black, tan, champagne, biscuit, sage, Atlantic blue, mauve, gray, navy, green, bronze, ciel, Tyrian purple, fancy stripes, plaids, polka dots, etc.

A Friday Sale of Ostrich Plumes At Prices Far Below Wholesale Cost

The latest Paris fashion notes say Plumes, Plumes, and more Plumes. Anticipating these conditions, we placed much larger orders than usual, months ago (before the latest advance in raw stock), to be made up during the dull season. Therefore we offer you these beautiful plumes, made of the best African-grown stock, at the same prices that created such a sensation and set a new high-water mark in Plume selling last Fall. Bear in mind, we do not offer the ordinary "sale" Plumes, but the best hard fiber, lustrous stock. Plenty of salespeople, but come early to make sure of your selections. See Washington-Street Window Display.

PAY PREACHERS TOO MUCH

SEATTLE PASTOR CRITICISES PRESENT-DAY CHURCHES.

Thinks Money Would Do More Good Expended in Helping Sick and Needy.

At a reception given at night to 800 men of the White Temple by the ladies of the church, Rev. John M. Dean, of Seattle, spoke upon the opportunities for an enlargement of the work of the Baptist Church in Portland. He said in part: "Pennyless are not popular on the Coast except in Sunday school work, but you should not give your children coin to put in the Sunday school contribution, which you would not give a street conductor. A better way would be to let the children earn their own money and put in a nickel. I heard Secretary Taft say in his address at Seattle that he was glad the Y. M. C. A. kept the rich people out of a hole by giving them a safe place to invest their money. Many men of means are glad to place their money where it will do good, but do not wish it squandered. "I never could see any reason why the churches should put so much money into stained glass windows, and into the high salaries of the preachers. Thousands of churches pay their pastors more than all the other expenses of the church put together. I would like to see a Baptist Hospital, a Baptist Men's Resort and a Baptist Missionary Training school started here with money, which of course, could be

SEATTLE CALLS FOR BIDS

Three Buildings for Exposition and University to Cost $550,000.

Bids have been called for from contractors by the regents of the University of Washington for three buildings which are to be erected upon the university campus at Seattle. These buildings are to cost in the neighborhood of $550,000, and are to form a part of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, which is to be held in Seattle in the Summer of 1909. The State Legislature appropriated this money partly with the expectation of having the buildings used for the exposition and later to be turned over to the University of Washington. They are to be of permanent construction. The exposition will include a large number of temporary buildings, which are being designed and contracted for at the present time.

WHOLESALE HOUSE Closing Out.

The wholesale clothing house located at 42 Front street has transferred its $200,000 stock of high-class clothing to the new Couch building, on Fourth street, between Washington and Stark streets, where it is now being closed out to the retail trade at exactly wholesale prices.

REMOVAL NOTICE.

PRACTICE MARCH REDUCED

ONE CAUSE OF DESERTION HAS BEEN REMOVED.

Weekly March Has Been Abandoned Entirely and Monthly Marches Reduced to Six Each Year.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 2.—(Special.)—The fact that the practice march orders, as they have existed during the past two years, were too strenuous and were causing discontent and desertion

Scrofula

Is very often acquired, though generally inherited. Bad hygiene, foul air, impure water, are among its causes. It is called "the soil for tubercles," and where it is allowed to remain tuberculosis or consumption is pretty sure to take root.

in the army, was brought to the attention of the War Department by the annual report of the several Department commanders. To alleviate this condition the orders have been revised. The orders heretofore have provided for a weekly practice march during the entire year, a monthly practice march and a yearly practice march and encampment. Under the present orders the weekly march is done away with entirely. The monthly marches are only to be made each month for six months in the year, and the monthly march may be done away with for one or two months of the six, if the troops are on the yearly march during any part of these months. Major Burnham, Chief of Staff, Department of the Columbia, says in regard to the new orders: "I think we have hit a happy medium in the matter of practice marches. There is no doubt that some practice march and field training is necessary to keep the troops in shape to go into the field at a moment's notice. Heretofore the practice marches have no doubt been too severe on the troops. To take a march every week and an additional one every month during the entire year, is too much in this climate. In the new orders issued in this department we have given the organization command a little leeway where they can use their own discretion as to how much is best for the troops under their command. The monthly marches are limited to not less than three nor more than six days. In the yearly march we have provided for not less than 21 days and that not less than 120 miles are to be marched in that time and that at least seven days must be given the troops in camp for rest and recreation.
