CHAIR-WARMERS' TRUST THORN IN THE HOTELKEEPER'S SIDE

Members Transact Business in Lobbies Rent Free, Use Stationery and Live Off Free Lunch.

"SHE that the papers are after all kinds and varieties of trusts," said a hotel clerk yesterday, "but there is one obnoxious outfit that I wish they would touch up good and lively. It needn't be."

The chair-warmers' trust. Worst nuisance in town. I mean those fishers who sit around the hotels and look and talk millions with only 15 cents in their pockets. They have their mail sent here, they sponge on us for stationery, they fill the best seats, they are a blot on existence in a hotel—but what can we do to get rid of them?

They sit around and pretend to live here, and transact all their business here rent free. They do not pay a cent into the hotel, they sleep one knows where, they live in 25-cent restaurants and off our free lunch. One of them will stroll in with a 5-cent cigar with a fancy hand around it as if he had just engaged a hotel, and he will be carefully removed on the sly and put in his pocket to slip on the next two for he lights up when some one is looking.

EAGER TO MAKE PURCHASE Western Coeprage Company Urges City to Sell Riverfront.

Through its agent, Thomas McCusker, the Western Coeprage Company yesterday renewed its request to the Port of Portland commission to purchase a small tract of land adjoining the drydock. A lengthy communication to the city to approve the transfer and declaring that if the land is not sold the company, it will probably build its plant elsewhere.

The commission gave the letter very little consideration, as it had previously discussed the question and decided not to sell the property. The commissioners take the position that they are willing to lease the property but will not sell it.

Breakfast Monotony —the same old chops, or bacon and eggs, and biscuit, for breakfast—may be avoided. Try Fruit (preferably cooked), Four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts with cream or milk, Eggs, one or two poached or soft-boiled, Cup of Postum Food Coffee with cream and sugar, Toast, one or two slices nice and crisp.

This will give you an ideal combination of the three principal food elements—proteins, carbohydrates and fats—in the most easily digestible form. And it means a wide-awake individual, with energy and a clear head to make a stir in the world; it replaces that dull, sluggish feeling which so often follows the too-much-meat-and-biscuit breakfast.
