OUR 233d FRIDAY ECONOMY SALE

Beautiful, Distinctive Paris Pattern Hats on Sale at Exactly Half Price

This is a selling event of unusual timeliness, right at the threshold of the Millinery season; two weeks before the Horse Show, the fashion event of Portland society. Discerning buyers will come early and revel in the rich assortment, choosing at will what suits their fancy. A sweeping, stupendous sacrifice of the surpassingly beautiful creations that have been the envy and delight of all Portland women. A sale that began yesterday morning and that has created more interest than any similar merchandising event ever heralded in the Pacific Northwest. Such a tremendous assortment of millinery loveliness has never before been presented; and now when we announce that these artistic creations go for half the regular price, it arouses intense enthusiasm among the buyers of the best to be had in feminine headwear. So wide a range of choice in pattern and color that no particular style can be mentioned here. These clever hats were fashioned by the deft fingers of gay Paris' most talented artists, and were imported direct by us. From the hats that we offer now at half the regular price have been chosen the designs that have established millinery styles for Portland this Fall and Winter—and it's a high mark they have set, too. To women familiar with Paris headgear and its designers, this list of artists will present an ensemble to conjure with: Carlier, Georgette, Suzanne, Maison Coriel, Virot—artists who have made Paris millinery the standard of the world.
