BUST WEEK FOR PUSH CLUBS .- The coming week will be a busy one for the East Side push clubs and their various East Side push clubs and their various committees. Tomorrow night the United East Side Push Club will hold an im-portant meeting in the Sargent building. A full representation from all the affili-ated clubs is expected. Secretary Ries-land was unable to send out the usual postalcard notices not having a list of delegates. A number of important ques-tions are coming up at this meeting. Wed-nesday night the Sellwood Board of Trade will hold a meeting to hear re-ports of several committees, notably from ports of several committees, notably from the committee on the sewer system which it is proposed to construct in that suburb. committee on gasmains also will et. Next Friday night the Multno-Improvement Association meets in The its hall on Mississippi avenue to consider the matter of filling up a street across Cook-avenue Guich. This club will lend its assistance to the agitation for a high school building in North Albina. The new North East Side Improvement As-sociation will also meet next Friday night to organize an executive committee and begin an agitation for many needed im-

PRAISE FROM MISSOURI .- One of the most interesting and comprehensive arti-cles ever printed outside the state con-cerning Oregon and its resources appears in the October number of the appears in the October number of this Fruitgrower, of St. Joseph, Mo., copies of which reached Portiand yesterday. Since his visit he has written many complimentary articles about Oregon, but the October issue of his publi-cation surpassed all former efforts, over 20.000 words of free descriptive matter being used. The front cover, especially designed for the number, is printed in three colors. Opening with several hundred words in reference to the state in general, every county is taken up in turn and valuable facts printed in reference to the inducements for homeseekers and Investors. The story is illustrated with fine half tones showing farm scenes, fruit districts, irrigation sections and in fact every industry in the state.

WANT ANOTHER HIGH SCHOOL -- Com-mittees from the North East Side Im-provement Association and the Noita Pro-

provement Association and the Noita Pro-gressive Chub will call on the Board of Education this week, to urge that plans for another high school building, to be built in North Albina, be prepared as soon as possible. The district bought a three-acre tract some time ago in Patton Addition for a high school site, so there will be no trouble over the location, such as was experienced in locating the East Portland High School. It is represented that the territory that will be tributary to this building is a large one, being all that portion of the city north of Sull-wan's Gulch, including the whole of the van's Gulch, including the whole of the Williams-avenue, Highland, Irvington, Williams-avenue, Highland, Irvington, Thompson, Vernon, Woodlawn, North Albins, Peninsula and Portsmouth schools, nearly all large buildings. "LIDLIFTERS" ARRESTED. - Seven "LIDLIFTERS" ARRESTED. — Seven ar-rests were made by the police yesterday of persons who tried to allievlate the thirst of the public. Joe Murphy, pro-prietor of a confectionery on the East Side, was taken to jail for selling Hquor and F. Fletter, proprietor of a saloon at Fourth and Taylor streets, was ar-rested, with his zon-Joseph, for giving liquor to a friend. Detectives Kay and Keinlen made the arrests and the same officers also arrested J. Harrington, at the corner of Sixth and Pine streets, and Harry Kenney and George Faltz, pro-prietor and bartender respectively, of a saloon at 313 Pine street. The charge in saloon at 313 Pine street. The charge in each case is that of dispensing liquor in defiance of the Sunday-closing law and the cases will be heard before Judge Cameron today. Boy HORSETHIEVES ARRESTED,--Detec-tions Price and Hollow contents aftertives Price and Hellyer yesterday after-noon recovered a horse which had been stolen by two small boys and kept constolen by two small boys and kept con-cated on a ranch near the Vancouver ferry road. The animal is branded with the initials "W. P." on the flank. The youthful horsethieves had cut off the mane and trimmed the tail of the animal to disguise it. The officers withhold the names of the lads for the reason that they are only 14 years of age and are amenable only to the Juvenile Court, where their cases will be heard today. The lads forged a bill of sale in order to deceive their parents. The police are en-deavoring to discover the owner of the horse. LIDBARY COMMUTTERS TO MEET.—The LIBRART COMMITTEES TO MEET.—The East Side Library committees, appointed by the general committee, consisting of O. M. Scott, H. H. Prouty and Joseph Buchtel, will hold a meeting Wednesday night in the rooms of the East Side Club, to plan the work of canvassing for funds. There are 50 clitzens on these committees and each has been notified by letter to at-tend the meeting. The East Side has been divided into districts and special com-mittees have been spointed for each district. At this meeting plans for can-vassing for funds will be adopted. It is not expected that the money will be raised in one day, but it is hoped to raise it within a reasonable time. EXAMINES CEMENT PROPERTIES.—D. W.
