SHOW BIG SUCCESS Members of Hunt Club, and Horses, Back From Seattle. PORTLANDERS WIN PRIZES

Oregon Entries Surprise Everybody by Splendid Showing-Visitors Royally Treated by Seattle Officials and Public.

Members of the Portland Hunt Club, who took part in the Ssattle horse show, returned yesterday and all are enthus-instic in their praise of the splendid treatment they received at the hands of the officials of the Seattle horse show and also the reception they received from those who attended the show. The party included Miss Mande Hahn, Miss Anny Shogren, Miss Eva H. Klernan, Miss Mable Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. James Nicol, E. T. Chase, T. T. Strain, Scott Brooke, Wil-liam Walters and T. S. McGrath, who at-tended the show on Saturday. The horses, after being 24 hours on the road, did not reach Portland until last night. Portland's splendid showing at Seattle did not reach Portland until last night. Portland's spiendid abowing at Seattle has already borne fruit. Yesterday a big hatch of entries were received for the Hunt Club horse ahow, which is to be held next month. John W. Considine, the well-known theatrical_man, who was among the early box purchasers, sent in his entry list yesterday. He has en-tered his handsome stable in 17 classes. In all there will be two car loads, and perhaps more of Seattle. Spokane and Tacoma horses exhibited in Portland. Mr. Brooke, in speaking last night of Mr. Brooke, in speaking last night of the Hunt Club's visit to Seattle said:

"Nothing could have been more highly appreciated than the showing that Port-land made at Sentile's horse show. The fact that the H int Club members en-tered into the spirit of the horse show and were willing to do all in their power and were willing to do all in their power to make it a success, was greatly appre-ciated by all the officials. Nothing was left undone by them to make our visit enjoyable and we all had a delightful time. It seemed that there was some skepticism about the showing that Port-land would make, and the surprise we gave them was well worth the time and labor of taking our horses over there. When we arrived, however, nothing was too groof for us. too good for us. "Evidently, Mr. Treat and the rest of

The horse show officials expected a few horses and a few riders, but they were not prepared for the showing we made. The riding of the members of the club who went to Seattle and their hearty co-operation in aiding the show, has made us a great many friends and it will be a large factor in making our own horse large factor in making our own horse show a success. Mr. Laidhaw has prom-ised to send his celebrated saddler to our show and Mr. Treat and Mr. Considine show and Mr. Treat and Mr. Considine will ship their stables." In addition to bringing to Portland three blue ribbons, two red ribbons and four yellow ribbons, the fact that Mrs. Caivin Heilig, wife of the well-known local theatrical manager, who formerly lived in Fortland, carried off a blue rib-bon with her handsome saddler Surat-nacia, is looked upon almost as a local victory. Mrs. Heilig's entry is credited to Tacoma, yet because Mrs. Heilig lived here so long and is so well known social-ly, no one will be willing to admit that he is from Tacoma. Mrs. Heilig won she is from Tacoma. Mrs. Hellig won her blue ribbon in the ladies' saddle class, one of the largest and hardest of the show. Mrs. Hellig will bring her horse to the Portland show.

practically assured, for the members of the Multhomah Amateur Athletic Club are doing their utmost toward assisting the collegians in the pro-motion of this contest, which will be the first meeting between the represen-tatives of the principal educational in-stitutions of two Northwestern com-monwealths to take place in this city. Eugene will cend a large delegation from the Oregon student body, while the same can be expected from Idaho, and the citizens of Eugene, and of Moscow, are planning excursions to Moscow, are planning excursions to Portland. In addition to the visiting delegations, Portland football lovers are expected to turn out en masse. Society will be there in a body and this event promises to be equally as popular as the coming horse show.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Eugene, Or., Oct. 21.-(Special.)-Although Oregon's men were much heavier than Pacifle's in Saturday's game, this circum stance did not keep them from getting hurt during the contest. # THE BUCK'S HOT-BLAST HEATER WILL SAVE YOU ONE-THIRD OF YOUR FUEL EXPENDITURES

This in a single season will mean a great saving to you, and especially if you take into consideration the present cost of fuel. A Buck's Hot-Blast is the most successful and economical of all heaters, because its principles of construction are right. It is made to burn any kind of fuel-hard coal, soft coal, coke, wood or slack. It consumes all gas, soot and smoke usually lost in the ordinary heater. This may seem to you impossible. but we will be glad to demonstrate to you its unquestionable economy and wonderful heating power. See the many sizes and styles of these heaters-today. They are not

TWO STURDY MEMBERS OF THE MULTNOMAH FOOTBALL SQUAD

FLOYD COOK AND FAUL RADER.

Rev. Paul Rader, a veteran football player from the University of Colorado, and Floyd Cook, ac-knowledged as one of the best punters that ever wore Multhomah colors, are both out for football prac-tice with the Multhomah Club squad, and both will probably play in the coming game with Whitman next Friday

Friday. Mr. Rader is a crack football player and will do a great deal to strengthen the club line. He is a big man and weighs over 200 pounds. This weight is not superfluous flesh, for Rader is a well-built man, standing over six feet four inches in height. He will no doubt be able to do great things for the club. Floyd Cook cannot be classed with Rader in size. He is about the average height and weighs 170 pounds. Every bit of this, however, is muscle, and he is very fast on his feet. Cook is a great punter and when playing full for the club in the years 1902 and 1903 had a record of an average kick of 50 yards. Cook is well known in the city and formerly was president and manager of the Cook Motor Car Company. Bert Pilkington, an old O. A. C star, is another of the new men who will help the club in her coming struggle with Whitman. Pilkington has a fine record as an all-round player.
