America Is Going "Diabolo" Mad

"Diabolo" is a French game that is finding great favor in America. If you will step into the Toy Store, Third Floor, today, we will show you what Diabolo is and how to play it. It is coming along strong, and you want to know all about it. Our Mr. Hoffman, who has just returned to Paris from America, writes as follows: "Referring to Diabolo, I am enclosing some cuts and descriptions of Diabolo, which has taken the Continent by storm. I found the children playing it everywhere in Paris, and in the parks and gardens old and young were at it by the score. In the court at the hotel where I am stopping, American young ladies are learning the game evenings. I saw them at it here in the driveway in front of the house as I came in tonight. It is in all the shop windows in Paris. I bought a quantity, and it is to be shipped to you from Paris within a week or ten days. We have "Diabolo" Sets on sale at these low prices, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00. See page in last Sunday's Oregonian regarding the popular game of "Diabolo."

SEEK TO KILL SUIT

Railroads Ask Dismissal of Injunction Case.

JURISDICTION IN QUESTION

Lumbermen Reply to Motion Which Is Identical With One Overruled by Judge Hanford at Seattle Last Week.

The first of the obstructive tactics that will be employed by the defendant railroad corporations in fighting the injunction suit filed by the lumber manufacturers was presented before United States Judge Wolverton in the Federal Court yesterday. It was a motion to dismiss the suit of the lumbermen as against the non-resident railroad corporations named in the complaint, the question involved being that of jurisdiction. The motion was argued and submitted and the ruling of the court will be the basis for an appeal of the case to the Supreme Court.

W. W. Cotton, general counsel for the Harriman lines in the Pacific Northwest, and James B. Kerr, of the firm of Carey & Kerr, resident attorneys for the Hill interests, supported the motion which alleges that there does not exist a diversity of citizenship, among the defendants to the suit, and for that reason the Federal Court does not have exclusive jurisdiction.

J. N. Teal, counsel for the Oregon & Washington Lumber Manufacturers' Association, over 400 of the independent lumber manufacturing firms of the state, who appear as intervenors in the litigation against the railroads, argued against the granting of the motion, which would dismiss the suit so far as the following railroad systems are concerned: Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line, Southern Pacific, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Great Northern and the Northern Pacific. Counsel for the railroads do not question that the court has jurisdiction over the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, the Oregon & California, Corvallis & Eastern and the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad.

The same motion was argued by opposing counsel before Judge Hanford in the United States Court at Seattle last week in a suit involving the same question and in which the Washington lumbermen are the plaintiffs. In a decision rendered Saturday, Judge Hanford held that the court had jurisdiction and dismissed the motion of the defendant corporations.

Government Sues to Recover Land.

Assistant United States Attorney Cole yesterday filed in the United States Circuit Court suit against Mollie Conklin et al to recover for the Government about 40 acres of land in Clatsop County. It is alleged in the complaint that the land involved in the suit was acquired by the defendants from John A. Benson, an extensive land-fraud operator, residing in California. Suits of a similar nature have been brought by the Government in California and Montana to restore to the public domain several thousand acres of land that were obtained fraudulently by Benson and his associates, and afterwards sold to private individuals.

MUST PAY THE PENALTY

INSURANCE DEFRAUDERS ARE TO BE SHOT.

Three Americans Operating in Mexico Cannot Be Saved, Says Supreme Court of Republic.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 11.—(Special).—After delays and appeals occupying nearly five years, the cases of C. T. Richardson, William Mason and Dr. C. S. Harle, charged with conspiracy to murder in order to collect the insurance of their alleged victims, have ended and nothing can save them from being shot at Chihuahua, Mex. on Friday, December 6, unless the governor of the state interposes, and this is unlikely. The Supreme Court of the Republic has affirmed their sentence of death.

Richardson wrote large policies for wealthy persons and the holders died so suddenly thereafter that the Life Insurance company sent a detective, W. J. Gray, to Chihuahua. Among the men insured by Richardson who died suddenly, strychnine was found in the viscera of one and bichloride of mercury in the viscera of the others. Dr. Harle confessed that he had aided Richardson by making out false death certificates. He admitted he knew of the frauds, and that one of the men died of strychnine poisoning, but denied that he gave the poison. Harle, however, was charged, along with Richardson and Mason, with conspiracy to defraud, conspiracy to murder and forgery and was convicted.

Denies She Saw Murderer.

"Bob" Lucas, whose mother, Mrs. S. J. Lucas, was reported to have witnessed the man who murdered Harry Logan, the railroad engineer, who was shot on the Fourth-street bridge on the morning of October 24, jump from the bridge and run down the gulch, denies the statement that his mother saw the murderer. Mr. Lucas attributes the false report to a certain member of the police force.

Goes on Inspection Trip.

General Manager J. P. O'Brien, of the Harriman lines in this territory, left last night for a trip of inspection over the Washington division of the O. R. & N. He will be away from the city until Thursday.

AFFECTS ONLY RETAILERS

Law Places No Limit on Other Liquor Licenses.

A meeting of the liquor license committee of the Council was held yesterday afternoon, following the meeting of the ways and means committee. Routine matters were taken up, the question being raised whether or not the Council has the right to grant liquor licenses to restaurateurs and grocers in view of the recent restricting ordinance. City Attorney Kavanaugh finally decided that the Council might grant liquor licenses to all except retail dealers.

Aberdeen, Wash.—The new form of certificates issued by the banks of Chesham County were put in circulation today and are being generally accepted.

We call the attention of all thinking people of Portland and vicinity to a signed statement from a prominent physician on the city news page of Sunday's Oregonian (the 10th inst.). This statement explains the danger of using cold-storage foods, tainted meats or those treated with preservatives.

Smith's meats are absolutely fresh Oregon meats. They are pure. They are free of all dyes, colorings or preservatives. The volume of our business is so immense that we don't need preservatives; wouldn't use preservatives. Smith's meats are ready to eat—not to keep.

Beef Trust meat, every ounce of it, has been in cold storage and traveled in ice-cases. No matter if you buy it next door to us or a mile away, if it's Beef Trust meat you run the risk. We've seen sloppy, sticky, thawed-out Eastern meats go into these markets and have often wondered who ate it.

Take a piece of glass, lay it in an exposed place near our market or any other downtown market. In five minutes it will have gathered enough dirt and grime to astonish you. Fancy the condition of meats in Beef Trust markets, meats that lay adjoining the sidewalk from morning until night. Imagine the filth and germs they gather. Who could eat them? And yet these meats are sold under the banner of U. S. Government inspection.

In our campaign for cleanliness and hygiene we have repeatedly called the attention of Portland's Market Inspector, Sarah Ann Evans, to this needless and putrefying exposure of meats—but conditions don't improve; they seem to grow worse every day and hour.

Mrs. Evans, we confidently believe you are afraid to oppose the Beef Trust.

Smith's meats are kept inside the shop, and protected by glass until you buy them.
